P R E F A C E.

WHILE we sing the praises of our God in his church, we are employed in that part of worship which of all others is the nearest akin to heaven ; and it is a pity that this, of all others, should be performed the worst upon earth. The gospel brings us nearer to the heavenly state than all the former dispensations of God amongst men : And in these last days of the gospel, we are brought almost within sight of the kingdom of our Lord ; yet we are very much unacquainted with the songs of the New Jerusalem, and unpractised in the work of praise. To see the dull indifference, the negligent and the thoughtless air that sits upon the faces of a whole assembly, while the psalm is on their lips, might tempt even a charitable observer to suspect the fervency of inward religion ; and it is much to be feared, that the minds of most of the worshippers are absent or unconcerned. Perhaps the modes of preaching in the best churches, still want some degrees of reformation ; nor are the methods of prayer so perfect, as to stand in need of no correction or improvement : but, of all our religious solemnities, psalmody is the most unhappily managed : that very action, which should elevate us to the most delightful and divine sensation, doth not only flat our devotion, but too often awaken our regret, and touches all the springs of uneasiness within us.

I have been long convinced, that one great occasion of this evil, arises from the matter and words to which we confine all our songs. Some of them are almost opposite to the spirit of the gospel ; many of them foreign to the state of the New Testament, and widely different from the present circumstances of Christians. Hence it comes to pass, that when spiritual affections are excited within us, and our souls are raised a little above this earth in the beginning of a psalm, we are checked on a sudden in our ascent towards heaven, by some expressions that are most suited to the days of carnal ordinances, and fit only to be sung in the worldly sanctuary. When we are just entering into an evangelic frame, by some of the glories of the gospel presented in the brightest figures of Judaism, yet the very next line perhaps which the clerk parcels out unto us, hath something in it so extremely Jewish and cloudy, that darkens our sight of God the Saviour. Thus, by keeping too close to David in the house of God, the vail of Moses is thrown over our hearts. While we are kindling into divine love by the meditations of the loving kindness of God, and the multitude of his tender mercies, within a few verses some dreadful curse against men is proposed to our lips : That God would add iniquity unto their iniquity, nor let them come into his righteousness, but blot them out of the book of the living, Psal. lxxix. 26. 27, 28. which is so contrary to the new commandment of loving our enemies ; and even under the Old Testament is best accounted for, by referring it to the spirit of prophetic vengeance. Some sentences of the Psalmist, that are expressive of the temper of our own hearts, and the circumstances of our lives, may compose our spirits to seriousness, and allure us to a sweet retirement within ourselves, but we meet with a following line, which so peculiarly belongs but to one action or hour of the life of David, or of Asaph, that breaks off our song in the midst ; our consciences are afrighted, lest we should speak a falsehood unto God :

Thus

Thus the powers of our souls are shocked on a sudden, and our spirits ruffled, before we have time to reflect that this may be sung only as a history of ancient saints; and perhaps, in some instances, that salvo is hardly sufficient neither: Besides, it almost always spoils the devotion, by breaking the uniform thread of it: For while our lips and our hearts run on sweetly together, applying the words to our own case, there is something of divine delight in it; but at once we are forced to turn off the application abruptly, and our lips speak nothing but the heart of David. Thus our own hearts are, as it were, forbid the pursuit of the song, and then the harmony and the worship grow dull of mere necessity.

Many ministers, and many private Christians, have long groaned under this inconvenience, and have wished, rather than attempted a reformation. At their importunate and repeated requests, I have, for some years past, devoted many hours of leisure to this service, Far be it from my thoughts to lay aside the book of Psalms in public worship; few can pretend so great a value for them as myself. It is the most artful, most devotional, and divine collection of poesy; and nothing can be supposed more proper to raise a pious soul to heaven, than some parts of that book; never was a piece of experimental divinity so nobly written, and so justly revered and admired: But it must be acknowledged still, that there are a thousand lines in it which were not made for a church in our days, to assume as its own: There are also many deficiencies of light and glory, which our Lord Jesus, and his apostles have supplied in the writings of the New Testament; and with this advantage I have composed these spiritual songs, which are now presented to the world. Nor is the attempt vain glorious or presuming ; for in respect of clear evangelical knowledge, The least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than all the Jewish prophets, Matth. xi. 11.

Now let me give a short account of the following composures.

The greatest part of them are suited to the general state of the gospel, and the most common affairs of Christians. I hope there will be very few found but what may properly be used in a religious assembly, and not one of them but may well be adapted to some seasons, either of private or of public worship. The most frequent tempers and changes of our spirit, and conditions of our life, are here copied, and the breathings of our piety expressed according to the variety of our passions, our love, our fear, our hope, our desire, our sorrow, our wonder, and our joy, as they are refined into devotion, and act under the influence and conduct of the blessed Spirit ; all conversing with God the Father by the new and living way of access to the throne, even the person and mediation of our Lord Jesus Christ. To him also, even to the Lamb that was slain, and now lives, I have addressed many a song ; for thus doth the holy scripture instruct and teach us to worship, in the various short patterns of Christian psalmody described in the Revelations. I have avoided the more obscure and controverted points of Christianity, that we might all obey the direction of the word of God, and sing his praises with understanding, Psal. xlvii. 7. The contentions and distinguishing words of sects and parties are secluded, that whole assemblies might assist at the harmony, and different churches join in the same worship without offence.

If any expressions occur to the reader, that favour of an opinion different from his own, yet he may

may observe, these are generally such as are capable of an extensive sense, and may be used with a charitable latitude. I think it is most agreeable, that what is provided for public singing, should give to sincere consciences as little disturbance as possible. However, where any unpleasing word is found, he that leads the worship may substitute a better; for (blessed be God) we are not confined to the words of any man in our public solemnities.

The whole book is written in four sorts of metre, and fitted to the most common tunes. I have seldom permitted a stop in the middle of a line, and seldom left the end of a line without one, to comport a little with the unhappy mixture of reading and singing, which cannot presently be reformed. The metaphors are generally sunk to the level of vulgar capacities. I have aimed at ease of numbers and smoothness of sound, and endeavoured to make the sense plain and obvious. If the verse appears so gentle and flowing as to incur the censure of feebleness, I may honestly affirm, that sometimes it cost me labour to make it so. Some of the beauties of poesy are neglected, and some wilfully defaced; I have thrown out the lines that were too sonorous, and have given an allay to the verse, lest a more exalted turn of thought or language should darken or disturb the devotion of the weakest souls. But hence it comes to pass, that I have been forced to lay aside many hymns after they were finished, and utterly exclude them from this volume, because of the bolder figures of speech that crowded themselves into the verse, and a more unconfined variety of number, which I could not easily restrain.

These, with many other divine and moral compositions, are now printed in a second edition of the poems entitled, Hora Lyrica; for, as in that book

I have endeavoured to please and profit the politer part of mankind, without offending the plainer sort of Christians, so in this it has been my labour to promote the pious entertainments of souls truly serious, even of the meanest capacity, and at the same time (if possible) not to give disgust to persons of richer sense, and nicer education; and I hope, in the present volume, this end will appear to be pursued with much greater happiness than in the first impression of it, though the world assures me the former has not much reason to complain.

The whole is divid-d into three books.

In the first, I have borrowed the sense, and much of the form of the song, from some particular portions of scripture, and have paraphrased most of the doxologies in the New Testament, that contain any thing in them peculiarly evangelical; and many parts of the Old Testament, also, that have a reference to the times of the Messiah. In these I expect to be often censured for a too religious observance of the words of scripture, whereby the verse is weakened and debased, according to the judgment of the critics: But as my whole design was to aid the devotion of Christians, so more especially in this part: And I am satisfied I shall hereby attain two ends, viz. assist the worship of all serious minds, to whom the expressions of scripture are ever dear and delightful, and gratify the taste and inclination of those who think nothing must be sung unto God but the translations of his word. Yet you will always find in this paraphrase dark expressions enlightened, and the Levitical ceremonies and Hebrew forms of speech changed into the worship of the gospel, and explained in the language of our time and nation; and what would not bear such an alteration, is omitted and laid aside. After this manner should I rejoice

rejoice to see a good part of the book of Psalms fitted for the use of our churches, and David converted into a Christian: But because I cannot persuade others to attempt this glorious work, I have suffered myself to be persuaded to begin, and have, through divine goodness, already proceeded half way through.

The second part consists of hymns, whose form is of mere human composition; but I hope the sense and materials will always appear divine. I might have brought some text or other, and applied it to the margin of every verse, if this method had been as useful as it was easy. If there be any poems in the book that are capable of giving delight to persons of a more refined taste and polite education, perhaps they may be found in this part; but except they lay aside the humour of criticism, and enter into a devout frame, every ode here already despairs of pleasing. I confess myself to have been too often tempted away from the more spiritual designs I proposed, by some gay and flowery expressions that gratified the fancy; the bright images too often prevailed above the fire of divine affection; and the light exceeded the heat: Yet, I hope, in many of them, the reader will find, that devotion dictated the song, and the head and hand are nothing but interpreters and secretaries to the heart: Nor is the magnificence or boldness of the figures comparable to that divine licence which is found in the eighteenth and sixty-eighth Psalms, several chapters of Job, and other poetical parts of scripture: And in this respect I may hope to escape the reproof of those who pay a sacred reverence to the holy Bible.

I have prepared the third part only for the celebration of the Lord's supper, that, in imitation of our blessed Saviour, we might sing an hymn after we have partaken of the bread and wine. Here you will find some paraphrases of scripture, and some other compositions. There are above an hundred hymns in the two former parts, that may very properly be used in this ordinance, and sometimes, perhaps, appear more suitable than any of these last: But there are expressions generally used in these, which confine them only to the table of the Lord; and therefore, I have distinguished and set them by themselves.

If the Lord, who inhabits the praises of Israel, shall refuse to smile upon this attempt for the reformation of psalmody amongst the churches, yet I humbly hope, that his blessed Spirit will make these composures useful to private Christians; and if they may but attain the honour of being esteemed pious meditations, to assist the devout and retired soul in the exercises of love, faith, and joy, it will be a valuable compensation of my labours: My heart shall rejoice at the notice of it, and my God shall receive the glory. This was my hope and view in the first publication; and it is now my duty to acknowledge to him with thankfulness, how useful he has made these compositions already to the comfort and edification of societies, and of private persons: And upon the same grounds I have a better prospect, and a bigger hope of much more service to the church, by the large improvements of this edition, if the Lord who dwells in Zion shall favour it with his continued blessing.

Note, In all the longer Hymns, and in some of the shorter, there are several Stanzas included in Crotchets, thus, []; which Stanzas may be left out in singing, without disturbing the sense. Those parts are also included in such Crotchets, which contain words words too poetical for meaner understandings, or too particular for whole congregations to sing. But after all, it is best, in public Psalmody, for the minister to chuse the particular parts and verses of the Psalm or Hymn that is to be sung, rather than leave it to the judgment or casual determination of him that leads the tune.

Note, Since the Sixth Edition of this Book, the Author has finished what he had so long promised, viz. The Psalms of David, imitated in the Language of the New Testament; which the World seems to have received with approbation, by the sale of some thousands in a year's time. It is presumed, that that book, in conjunction with this, may appear to be such a sufficient provision for psalmody, as to answer most occasions of the Christian's Life: And if an Author's own Opinion may be taken, he esteems it the greatest work that ever he has published, or ever hopes to do, for the use of the churches.

HYMNS

H Y M N S

AND

SPIRITUAL SONGS,

COLLECTED FROM THE HOLY SCRIPTURES.

BOOK I.

1. *A new song to the Lamb that was slain, Rev. v.
6, 8, 9, 10, 12.*

1 BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb
Amidst his Father's throne :
Prepare new honours for his name
And songs before unknown.

2 Let elders worship at his feet, .
The church adore around,
With vials full of odours sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.

3 Those are the prayers of the faints,
And these the hymns they raise :
Jesus is kind to our complaints,
He loves to hear our praise.

[4 Eternal Father, who shall look
Into thy secret will ?
Who but the Son should take that book,
And open every seal ?

- 5 He shall fulfil thy great decrees,
The Son deserves it well;
Lo, in his hand the sov'reign keys
Of heav'n, and death, and hell !
- 6 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
Be endless blessings paid ;
Salvation, glory, joy remain
For ever on thy head.
- 7 Thou hast redeem'd our souls with blood,
Hast set the pris'ners free,
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.
- 8 The worlds of nature and of grace
Are put beneath thy pow'r ;
Then shorten these delaying days,
And bring the promis'd hour.
- II. *The deity and humanity of Christ, John i. 1, 3,
14. and Col. i. 16 and Ephes. iii. 9. 10.*
- 1 ERE the blue heav'ns were stretch'd abroad,
From everlasting was the Word ;
With God he was, the Word was God,
And must divinely be ador'd.
- 2 By his own pow'r were all things made ;
By him supported all things stand ;
He is the whole creation's head,
And angels fly at his command.
- 3 Ere sin was born, or Satan fell,
He led the host of morning stars ;
(Thy generation who can tell,
Or count the number of thy years ?)
- 4 But lo, he leaves those heav'nly forms,
The Word descends and dwells in clay,
That he may hold converse with worms,
Dress'd in such feeble flesh as they.

5 Mortals with joy behold his face,
Th' eternal Father's only Son;
How full of truth! how full of grace!
When through his eyes the Godhead shone!

6 Archangels leave their high abode,
To learn new myst'ries here, and tell
The loves of our descending God,
The glories of Emmanuel.

III. The Nativity of Christ, Luke i. 30, &c. Luke ii. 10, &c.

1 BEHOLD, the grace appears,
The promise is fulfill'd;
Mary, the wond'rous virgin, bears,
And Jesus is the child.

2 The Lord, the highest God,
Calls him his only Son;
He bids him rule the lands abroad,
And gives him David's throne.

3 O'er Jacob shall he reign
With a peculiar sway;
The nations shall his grace obtain,
His kingdom ne'er decay.

4 To bring the glorious news,
A heav'nly form appears;
He tells the shepherds of their joys,
And banishes their fears.

5 Go, humble swains, said he,
To David's city fly;
The promis'd infant born to-day,
Doth in a manger ly.

6 With looks and hearts serene
Go visit Christ your King:

And straight a flaming troop was seen;
The shepherds heard them sing,

- 7 Glory to God on high!
And heav'nly peace on earth,
Good-will to men, to angels joy,
At the Redeemer's birth.

- 8 In worship so divine
Let saints employ their tongues,
With the celestial host we join,
And loud repeat their songs.

- 9 Glory to God on high!
And heav'nly peace on earth,
Good-will to men, to angels joy,
At our Redeemer's birth!

IV. Referred to the 2d psalm.

V. Submission to afflictive providences, Job i. 21.

- 1 NAKED as from the earth we came,
And crept to life at first,
We to the earth return again,
And mingle with our dust.

- 2 The dear delights we here enjoy,
And fondly call our own,
Are but short favours borrow'd now,
To be repaid anon.

- 3 'Tis God that lifts our comforts high,
Or sinks them in the grave;
He gives, and (blessed be his name)
He takes but what he gave.

- 4 Peace, all our angry passions then,
Let each rebellious sigh
Be silent at his sovereign will,
And ev'ry murmur die.

- 5 If smiling mercy crown our lives,
 Its praises shall be spread,
 And we'll adore the justice too
 That strikes our comforts dead.

VI. Triumph over death, Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

- 1 GREAT God, I own the sentence just,
 And nature must decay;
 I yield my body to the dust,
 To dwell with fellow clay.
- 2 Yet faith may triumph o'er the grave,
 And trample on the tombs;
 My Jesus, my Redeemer lives,
 My God, my Saviour comes.
- 3 The mighty Conqu'ror shall appear
 High on a royal seat,
 And death, the last of all his foes,
 Ly vanquish'd at his feet.
- 4 The greedy worms devour my skin,
 And gnaw my wasting flesh,
 When God shall build my bones again,
 He clothes them all afresh:
- 5 Then shall I see thy lovely face
 With strong immortal eyes,
 And feast upon thy unknown grace
 With pleasure and surprise.

VII. The invitation of the gospel; or, Spiritual food and clothing, Isa. lv. 1, 2, &c.

- 1 LET ev'ry mortal ear attend,
 And ev'ry heart rejoice,
 The trumpet of the gospel sounds
 With an inviting voice.

- 2 Ho ! all ye hungry starving souls,
That feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthen toys
To fill an empty mind :
- 3 Eternal Wisdom has prepar'd
A soul reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.
- 4 Ho ! ye that pant for living streams,
And pine away and die ;
Here you may quench your raging thirst
With springs that never dry.
- 5 Rivers of love and mercy here
In a rich ocean join ;
Salvation in abundance flows,
Like floods of milk and wine.
- 6 Ye perishing and naked poor,
Who work with mighty pain,
To weave a garment of your own,
That will not hide your sin ;
- 7 Come naked, and adorn your souls
In robes prepar'd by God,
Wrought by the labours of his Son,
And dy'd in his own blood.]
- 8 Dear God ! the treasures of thy love
Are everlasting mines,
Deep as our helpless miseries are,
And boundless as our sins !
- 9 The happy gates of gospel-grace
Stand open night and day :
Lord, we are come to seek supplies,
And drive our wants away,

VIII. The safety and protection of the Church, Isa. xxxvi.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5 6.

1. HOW honourable is the place
Where we adoring stand,
Zion, the glory of the earth,
And beauty of the land !
- 2 Bulwarks of mighty grace defend
The city where we dwell ;
The walls, of strong salvation made,
Defy th' assaults of hell.
- 3 Lift up the everlasting gates,
The doors wide open fling ;
Enter, ye nations that obey
The statutes of our King.
- 4 Here shall you taste unmingled joys,
And live in perfect peace ;
You that have known Jehovah's name,
And ventur'd on his grace.
- 5 Trust in the Lord, for ever trust,
And banish all your fears ;
Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells,
Eternal as his years.
- 6 What though the rebels dwell on high,
His arm shall bring them low ;
Low as the caverns of the grave
Their lofty heads shall bow.
- 7 On Babylon our feet shall tread
In that rejoicing hour ;
The ruins of her walls shall spread
A pavement for the poor.

IX. *The promises of the covenant of Grace. Isa. lv, 1, 2
Zech. xiii. 1. Micah vii. 10. Ezek. xxxvi. 25. &c.*

1. IN vain we lavish out our lives,
To gather empty wind ;

- The choicest blessings earth can yield
Will starve a hungry mind.
- 2 Come, and the Lord shall feed our souls
With more substantial meat,
With such as saints in glory love,
With such as angels eat,
- 3 Our God will ev'ry want supply,
And fill our hearts with peace;
He gives by cov'nant and by oath
The riches of his grace.
- 4 Come, and he'll cleanse our spotted souls,
And wash away our stains
In the dear fountain that his Son
Pour'd from his dying veins.
- 5 [Our guilt shall vanish all away,
Though black as hell before:
Our sins shall sink beneath the sea,
And shall be found no more.
- 6 And lest pollution should o'erspread
Our inward pow'rs again,
His spirit shall bedew our souls
Like purifying rain.]
- 7 Our heart, that flinty stubborn thing,
That terrors cannot move,
That fears no threat'nings of his wrath,
Shall be dissolv'd by love :
- 8 Or he can take the flint away
That would not be refin'd,
And from the treasures of his grace
Bestow a softer mind.
- 9 There shall his sacred Spirit dwell,
And deep engrave his law,
And ev'ry motion of our souls
To swift obedience draw.

10 Thus will he pour salvation down,
And we shall render praise :
We the dear people of his love,
And He our God of grace.

X. *The blessedness of gospel times, or, The revelation of Christ to Jews and Gentiles, Isa. x. 2, 7, 9, 10. Matt.
xiii. 16, 17.*

1 HOW beauteous are their feet
Who stand on Zion's hill,
Who bring salvation on their tongues,
And words of peace reveal !

2 How charming is their voice,
How sweet the tidings are !
“ Zion, behold thy Saviour King,
“ He reigns and triumphs here.”

3 How happy are our ears,
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found !

4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heav'nly light,
Prophets and kings desir'd it long,
But dy'd without the fight.

5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And desarts learn the joy.

6 The Lord makes bare his arm
Thro' all the earth abroad ;
Let ev'ry nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

XI. *The humble enlightened, and carnal reason humbled ;
or, The sovereignty of grace, Luke x. 21, 22.*

- 1 THERE was an hour when Christ rejoic'd,
And spoke his joy in words of praise ;
“ Father, I thank thee, mighty God,
“ Lord of the earth, and heav'ns and seas.
- 2 “ I thank thy sovereign pow'r and love,
“ That crowns my doctrine with success ;
“ And makes the babes in knowledge learn
“ The heights, and breadths, and lengths of grace.
- 3 “ But all this glory lies conceal'd
“ From men of prudence and of wit ;
“ The prince of darkness blinds their eyes,
“ And their own pride resists the light.
- 4 “ Father, 'tis thus, because thy will “ Chose and ordain'd it should be so ;
“ 'Tis thy delight t' abase the proud,
“ And lay the haughty scorner low.
- 5 “ There's none can know the Father right,
“ But those who learn it from the Son ;
“ Nor can the Son be well receiv'd,
“ But where the Father makes him known.”
- 6 Then let our souls adore our God,
That deals his graces as he please ;
Nor gives to mortals an account
Or of his actions, or decrees.

XII. Free grace in revealing Christ, Luke x. 21.

- 1 JESUS, the man of constant grief,
A mourner all his days ;
His spirit once rejoic'd aloud,
And turn'd his joy to praise.

- 2 *Father, I thank thy wond'rous love,
That hath reveal'd thy Son
To men unlearned ; and to babes
Has made the gospel known.*
- 3 *The myst'ries of redeeming grace
Are hidden from the wise,
While pride and carnal reas'nings join
To swell and blind their eyes.*
- 4 Thus doth the Lord of heav'n and earth
His great decrees fulfil,
And orders all his works of grace
By his own sov'reign will.

XIII. The Son of God incarnate ; or, The titles and the kingdom of Christ, Isa. ix. 2, 6, 7.

- 1 THE lands that long in darkness lay,
Now have beheld a heavenly light ;
Nations that sat in death's cold shade,
Are blest'd with beams divinely bright.
- 2 The virgin's promis'd Son is born ;
Behold th' expected child appear ;
What shall his name or titles be ?
The Wonderful, The Counsellor.
- 3 This infant is the mighty God,
Come to be suckled and ador'd ;
Th' eternal Father, Prince of peace,
The son of David, and his Lord.]
- 4 The government of earth and seas
Upon his shoulders shall be laid ;
His wide dominions shall increase,
And honours to his name be paid.
- 5 Jesus, the holy child, shall sit
High on his father David's throne,
Shall crush his foes beneath his feet,
And reign to ages yet unknown.

XIV. The triumph of faith ; or, Christ's unchangeable love, Rom. viii. 33, &c.

- 1 WHO shall the Lord's elect condemn ?
'Tis God that justifies their souls ;
And mercy, like a mighty stream,
O'er all their sins divinely rolls.
- 2 Who shall adjudge the saints to hell ?
'Tis Christ that suffer'd in their stead ;
And the salvation to fulfil,
Behold him rising from the dead.
- 3 He lives ! he lives ! he sits above,
For ever interceding there :
Who shall divide us from his love,
Or what shall tempt us to despair ?
- 4 Shall persecution or distress,
Famine, or sword, or nakedness ?
He that hath lov'd us bears us thro',
And makes us more than conquerors too.
- 5 Faith hath an overcoming power,
It triumphs in the dying hour :
Christ is our life, our joy, our hope,
Nor can we sink with such a prop.
- 6 Not all that men on earth can do,
Nor pow'rs on high, nor pow'rs below,
Shall cause his mercy to remove,
Or wean our hearts from Christ, our love.

XV. Our own weakness, and Christ our strength,
2 Cor. xii. 7, 9, 10.

- 1 LET me but hear my Saviour say,
Strength shall be equal to the day ;
Then I'll rejoice in deep distress,
Leaning on all sufficient grace.

- 2 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own pow'r may rest on me;
When I am weak, then am I strong,
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.
- 3 I can do all things, or can bear
All suff'rings, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While his left hand my head sustains.
- 4 But if the Lord be once withdrawn,
And we attempt the work alone,
When new temptations spring and rise,
We find how great our weakness is.
- 5 So Sampson when his hair was lost,
Met the Philistines to his cost;
Shook his vain limbs with sad surprise,
Made feeble fight, and lost his eyes.

XVI. Hosanna to Christ, Matt. xxi. 9. Luke xix.
38, 40.

- 1 HOSANNA to the royal Son
Of David's ancient line!
His nature's two, his person one,
Mysterious and divine.
- 2 The root of David here we find,
And off-spring is the same:
Eternity and time are join'd
In our Emmanuel's name.
- 3 Bless'd He that comes to wretched men
With peaceful news from heav'n!
Hosannas of the highest strain
To Christ the Lord be given!
- 4 Let mortals ne'er refuse to take
The Hosanna on their tongues,

Left rocks and stones should rise, and break
Their silence into songs.

XVII. Victory over death, 1 Cor. xv. 55, &c.

- 1 O FOR an overcoming faith,
To cheer my dying hours,
To triumph o'er the monster Death,
And all his frightful pow'rs !
- 2 Joyful, with all the strength I have,
My quiv'ring lips should sing,
*Where is thy boasted vict'ry, grave ?
And where the monster's sting ?*
- 3 If sin be pardon'd, I'm secure,
Death hath no sting beside ;
The law gave sin its damning pow'r ;
But Christ, my ransom, dy'd.
- 4 Now to the God of victory,
Immortal thanks be paid,
Who makes us conqu'rors while we die,
Thro' Christ our living head.

XVIII. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord,
Rev. xiv. 13.

- 1 HEAR what the voice from heav'n proclaims
For all the pious dead,
Sweet is the favour of their names,
And soft their sleeping bed.
- 2 They die in Jesus, and are bless'd ;
How kind their slumbers are !
From suff'rings and from sins releas'd,
And freed from ev'ry snare.
- 3 Far from this world of toil and strife,
They're present with the Lord ;

The labours of their mortal life
End in a large reward.

XIX. The song of Simeon ; or, Death made desirable,
Luke i. 27, &c.

- 1 LORD, at thy temple we appear,
As happy Simeon came,
And hope to meet our Saviour here ;
O make our joys the same !
- 2 With what divine and vast delight
The good old man was fill'd,
When fondly in his wither'd arms
He clasp'd the holy Child ;
- 3 " Now I can leave this world, he cry'd,
" Behold thy servant dies ;
" I've seen thy great salvation, Lord,
" And close my peaceful eyes.
- 4 " This is the light prepar'd to shine
" Upon the Gentile lands,
" Thine Israel's glory, and their hope,
" To break their slavish bands."
- 5 Jesus! the vision of thy face
Hath overpow'ring charms !
Scarce shall I feel death's cold embrace,
If Christ be in my arms.
- 6 Then will ye hear my heart-strings break,
How sweet my minutes roll !
And mortal paleness on my cheek,
And glory in my soul.]

XX. Spiritual apparel, viz. The robe of righteousness, and garments of salvation, Isa. lxi. 10.

1 A Wake my heart, arise my tongue,
Prepare a tuneful voice ;
In God the life of all my joys,
Aloud will I rejoice.

2 'Tis he adorn'd my naked soul,
And made salvation mine ;
Upon a poor polluted worm
He makes his graces shine.

3 And lest the shadow of a spot
Should on my soul be found,
He took the robe the Saviour wrought,
And cast it all around, -

4 How far the heav'nly robe exceeds
What earthly princes wear !
'These ornaments, how bright they shine !
How white the garments are !

5 The Spirit wrought by faith and love,
And hope and ev'ry grace ;
But Jesus spent his life, to work
The robe of righteousness,

6 Strangely, my soul art thou array'd
By the great sacred Three ;
In sweetest harmony of praise
Let all thy powers agree.

XXI. A vision of the kingdom of Christ among men, Rev. xxi. 1, 2, 3, 4.

1 LO, what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes !
The earth and seas are pass'd away,
And the old rolling skies.

2 From the third heav'n where God resides,
That holy, happy place,

The new Jerusalem comes down,
Adorn'd with shining grace.

- 3 Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing,
"Mortals, behold the sacred seat
"Of your descending King.
- 4 "The God of glory down to men
"Removes his bless'd abode;
"Men the dear objects of his grace,
"And He the loving God.
- 5 "His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
"From ev'ry weeping eye,
"And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears,
"And death itself shall die."
- 6 How long, dear Saviour, O how long
Shall this bright hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day.

XXII. and XXIII. [Referred to the 125th Psalm.]

XXIV. The rich sinner dying, Psal. xlix, 6, 9. Eccl.
viii. 8. Job iii. 14, 15.

- 1 IN vain the wealthy mortals toil,
And heap their shining dust in vain,
Look down and scorn the humble poor,
And boast their lofty hills of gain.
- 2 Their golden cordials cannot ease
Their pained hearts or aching heads,
Nor fright, nor bribe approaching death
From glitt'ring roofs and downy beds.
- 3 The ling'ring, the unwilling soul,
The dismal summons must obey,

And bid a long, a sad farewell,
To the pale lumps of lifeless clay.

- 4 Thence they are huddled to the grave,
Where kings and slaves have equal thrones;
Their bones without distinction lie
Amongst a heap of meaner bones.

[The rest referr'd to the 49th psalm.]

XXV. A vision of the Lamb, Rev. v. 6, 7, 8, 9.

- 1 ALL mortal vanities be gone,
Nor tempt my eyes, nor tire my ears,
Behold amidst th' eternal throne
A vision of the Lamb appears.

- [2 Glory his fleecy robe adorns,
Mark'd with the bloody death he bore;
Sev'n are his eyes, and sev'n his horns,
To speak his wisdom and his pow'r.

- 3 Lo, he receives a sealed book
From him that sits upon the throne;
Jesus, my Lord, prevails to look
On dark decrees, and things unknown.]

- 4 All the assembling saints around
Fall worshipping before the Lamb,
And in new songs of gospel-sound
Address their honours to his name.

- [5 The joy, the shout, the harmony
Flies o'er the everlasting hills;
Worthy art thou alone (they cry)
To read the book, to loose the seals.]

Our voices join the heav'nly strain,
And with transporting pleasure sing,
Worthy the Lamb that once was slain
To be our teacher and our king!

- 7 His words of prophecy reveal
 Eternal counsels, deep designs;
 His grace and vengeance shall fulfil
 The peaceful and the dreadful lines.
- 8 Thou hast redeem'd our souls from hell
 With thine invaluable blood:
 And wretches that did once rebel
 Are now made fav'rites of their God.
- 9 Worthy for ever is the Lord,
 That dy'd for treasons not his own,
 By ev'ry tongue to be ador'd,
 And dwell upon his Father's throne!

XXVI. Hope of heaven by the resurrection of Christ;
 1 Pet. i. 3, 4, 5

- 1 BLESS'D be the everlasting God,
 The Father of our Lord:
 Be his abounding mercy prais'd,
 His majesty ador'd.
- 2 When from the dead he rais'd his Son,
 And call'd him to the sky,
 He gave our souls a lively hope
 That they should never die.
- 3 What though our inbred sins require
 Our flesh to see the dust,
 Yet as the Lord our Saviour rose,
 So all his followers must.
- 4 There's an inheritance divine
 Reserv'd against that day;
 'Tis incorrupted, undefil'd,
 And cannot waste away.
- 5 Saints by the pow'r of God are kept,
 'Till the salvation come;

We walk by faith, as strangers here,
'Till Christ shall call us home.

XXVII. Affurance of heaven : Or, A saint prepared to die, 2 Tim. iv. 6, 7, 8, 18.

[1 DEATH may dissolve my body now,
And bear my spirit home ;
Why do my minutes move so slow,
Nor my salvation come ?

2 With heav'nly weapons I have fought
The battles of the Lord,
Finish'd my course, and kept the faith,
And wait the sure reward.]

3 God has laid up in heav'n for me
A crown which cannot fade ;
The righteous Judge at that great day
Shall place it on my head.

4 Nor hath the King of grace decreed
This prize for me alone ;
But all that love, and long to see
Th' appearance of his Son.

5 Jesus, the Lord, shall guard me safe
From ev'ry ill design :
And to his heav'nly kingdom keep
This feeble soul of mine.

6 God is my everlasting aid,
And hell shall rage in vain ;
To him be highest glory paid,
And endless praise. Amen.

XXVIII. The triumph of Christ over the enemies of his church, Isa. lxiii. 1, 2, 3, &c.

1 WHAT mighty man, or mighty God,
Comes travelling in state

Along the Idumean road,
Away from Bozra's gate !

- 2 The glory of his robes proclaim
 'Tis some victorious king :
 " 'Tis I, the Just, the Almighty One,
 " That your salvation bring."
- 3 Why, mighty Lord, thy saints enquire,
 Why thine apparel's red ?
And all thy vesture stain'd like those
 Who in the wine-press tread ?
- 4 " I by myself have trod the press,
 " And crush'd my foes alone :
 " My wrath has struck the rebels dead,
 " My fury stamp'd them down.
- 5 " 'Tis Edom's blood that dyes my robes
 " With joyful scarlet stains ;
 " The triumph that my raiment wears
 " Sprung from their bleeding veins.
- 6 " Thus shall the nations be destroy'd,
 " That dare insult my saints ;
 " I have an arm t'avenge their wrongs,
 " An ear for their complaints."

XXIX. The second part ; Or, The ruin of Antichrist,
ver. 4, 5, 6, 7.

- " I LIFT my banner, saith the Lord,
 " Where Antichrist has stood ;
 " The city of my gospel foes
 " Shall be a field of blood.
- 2 " My heart has studied just revenge,
 " And now the day appears,
 " The day of my redeem'd is come,
 " To wipe away their tears.

- 3 " Quite weary is my patience grown,
 " And bids my fury go :
 " Swift as the lightning it shall move,
 " And be as fatal too.
- 4 " I call for helpers, but in vain :
 " Then has my gospel none ?
 " Well, mine own arm has might enough
 " To crush my foes alone.
- 5 " Slaughter, and my devouring sword
 " Shall walk the streets around,
 " Babel shall reel beneath my stroke,
 " And stagger to the ground."
- 6 Thy honours, O victorious King !
 Thyne own right hand shall raise,
 While we thy awful vengeance sing,
 And our deliv'rer praise.

XXX. Prayer for deliverance answered, Isa. xxvi. 8, 20.

- 1 IN thine own ways, O God of love,
 We wait the visits of thy grace ;
 Our souls desire is to thy name,
 And the remembrance of thy face.
- 2 My thoughts are searching, Lord, for thee ;
 'Mongst the black shades of lonesome night,
 My earnest cries salute the skies
 Before the dawn restore the light.
- 3 Look how rebellious men deride
 The tender patience of my God ;
 But they shall see thy lifted hand,
 And feel the scourges of thy rod.
- 4 Hark ! the Eternal rends the sky:
 A mighty voice before him goes,

- A voice of music to his friends,
But threat'ning thunder to his foes.
- 5 Come, children, to your Father's arms
Hide in the chambers of my grace,
'Till the fierce storms be overblown,
And my revenging fury cease.
- 6 My sword shall boast its thousands slain,
And drink the blood of haughty kings,
While heav'nly peace around my flock
Stretches its soft and shady wings.

XXXI. [Referred to the first psalm.]

XXXII. Strength from heaven, Isa. xl. 27, 28, 29, 30.

- 1 WHENCE do our mournful thoughts arise!
And where's our courage fled?
Has restless sin and raging hell
Struck all our comforts dead?
- 2 Have we forgot th' Almighty name
That form'd the earth and sea?
And can an all-creating arm
Grow weary or decay?
- 3 Treasures of everlasting might
In our Jehovah dwell;
He gives the conquest to the weak,
And treads their foes to hell.
- 4 Mere mortal pow'r shall fade and die,
And youthful vigour cease;
But we that wait upon the Lord,
Shall feel our strength increase.
- 5 The saints shall mount on eagles wings,
And taste the promis'd bliss,
'Till their unwearied feet arrive
Where perfect pleasure is.

XXXIII. XXXIV. XXXV. XXXVI. XXXVII.

XXXVIII. [Referred to Psal. cxxxi. cxxxiv. lxviii.
lxxiii. xc. and lxxxiv.

XXXIX. God's tender care of his church, Isa. xlix. 13,
14, &c.

- 1 NOW shall my inward joys arise,
And burst into a song;
Almighty love inspires my heart,
And pleasures tune my tongue.
- 2 God on his thirsty Zion hill
Some mercy-drops has thrown,
And solemn oaths hath bound his love
To show'r salvation down.
- 3 Why do we then indulge our fears,
Suspicious and complaints?
Is he a God, and shall his grace
Grow weary of his saints?
- 4 Can a kind woman e'er forget
The Infant of her womb,
And 'mongst a thousand tender thoughts
Her suckling have no room?
- 5 Yet, saith the Lord, should nature change,
And mothers monsters prove,
Sion still dwells upon the heart
Of everlasting love.
- 6 Deep on the palms of both my hands
I have engrav'd her name;
My hands shall raise her ruin'd walls,
And build her broken frame.

XL. The business and blessedness of glorified saints, Rev.
vii. 13, 14, 15, &c.

- 1 WHAT happy men, or angels, these,
That all their robes are spotless white?

Whence did this glorious troop arrive

At the pure realms of heav'nly light ?

- 2 From tort'ring racks, and burning fires,
And seas of their own blood they came ;
And nobler blood has wash'd their robes,
Flowing from Christ the dying Lamb.
- 3 Now they approach th' Almighty throne
With loud hosannas night and day,
Sweet anthems to the Great Three One
Measure their bless'd eternity.
- 4 No more shall hunger pain their souls ;
He bids their parching thirst be gone,
And spreads the shadow of his wings,
To screen them from the scorching sun.
- 5 The Lamb, that fills the middle throne,
Shall shade around his milder beams ;
There shall they feast on his rich love,
And drink full joys from living streams.
- 6 Thus shall their mighty bliss renew
Thro' the vast round of endless years,
And the soft hand of sov'reign grace
Heals all their wounds, and wipes their tears.

XLI. The same : Or, The martyrs glorified, Rev.
vii. 13, &c.

1 THE glorious minds how bright they shine !

Whence all their bright array ?

How came they to the happy seats

Of everlasting day ?

- 2 From tort'ring pains, to endless joys,
On fiery wheels they rode,
And strangely wash'd their garments white
In Jesus' dying blood.

- 3 Now they approach a spotless God,
And bow before his throne;
Their warbling harps and sacred songs
Adore the holy One.
- 4 The unveil'd glories of his face
Amongst his saints reside,
While the rich treasures of his grace
Sees all their wants supply'd.
- 5 Tormenting thirst shall leave their souls,
And hunger flee as fast;
The fruit of life's immortal tree
Shall be their sweet repast.
- 6 The Lamb shall lead his heav'nly flock
Where living fountains rise,
And love divine shall wipe away
The sorrows of their eyes.

XLII. Divine wrath and mercy, Nahum i, 1.
2, 3, &c.

- 1 ADORE and tremble, for our God
Is a consuming fire; [Heb. xii. 29.]
His jealous eyes his wrath inflame,
And raise his veng'ance higher.
- 2 Almighty veng'ance, how it burns!
How bright his fury glows!
Vast magazines of plagues and storms
Lye treasur'd for his foes.
- 3 Those heaps of wrath, by slow degrees,
Are forc'd into a flame,
But kindled, oh! how fierce they blaze!
And rend all nature's frame.
- 4 At his approach the mountains flee,
And seek a wat'ry grave;

The frighted sea makes haste away,
And shrinks up ev'ry wave.

5 Through the wide air the weighty rocks
Are swift as hail-stones hurl'd :
Who dares engage his fiery rage,
That shakes the solid world ?

6 Yet, mighty God ! thy sov'reign grace
Sits regent on the throne,
The refuge of thy chosen race
When wrath comes rushing down.

7 Thy hand shall on rebellious kings
A fiery tempest pour,
While we beneath thy shelt'ring wings
Thy just revenge adore.

XLIII. [Referred to the 100th psalm.]

XLIV. [Referred to the 133d psalm.]

XLV. The last judgment, Rev. xxi. 5, 6, 7, 8-----.

1 SEE where the great incarnate God
Fills a majestic throne,
While from the skies his awful voice
Bears the last judgment down.

[2 " I am the first, and I the last,
" Through endless years the same ;
" I AM is my memorial still,
" And my eternal name.

3 " Such favours as a God can give,
" My royal grace bestows ;
" Ye thirsty souls, come taste the streams
" Where life and pleasure flows.]

[4 " The saint that triumphs o'er his sins,
" I'll own him for a son ;

- “ The whole creation shall reward
 “ The conquests he has won.
- 5 “ But bloody hands and hearts unclean,
 “ And all the lying race,
 “ The faithless and the scoffing crew,
 “ That spurn at offer'd grace ;
- 6 “ They shall be taken from my sight,
 “ Bound fast in iron chains,
 “ And headlong plung'd into the lake
 “ Where fire and darkness reigns.”]
- 7 O may I stand before the Lamb,
 When earth and seas are fled !
 And hear the judge pronounce my name
 With blessings on my head ;
- 8 May I with those for ever dwell,
 Who here were my delight,
 While sinners banish'd down to hell,
 No more offend my sight,

XLVI. and XLVII. [Referred to Psal. cxlviii.
 and 3.]

XLVIII. The Christian race, Isa. xl. 28, 29, 30, 31.

- 1 A WAKE our souls, (away our fears,
 Let ev'ry trembling thought be gone)
 Awake, and run the heav'nly race,
 And put a cheerful courage on.
- 2 True, 'tis a strait and thorny road,
 And mortal spirits tire and faint ;
 But they forget the mighty God,
 That feeds the strength of ev'ry saint.
- 3 The mighty God, whose matchless pow'r
 Is ever new and ever young,

And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.

4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
Our souls shall drink a fresh supply,
While such as trust their native strength
Shall melt away, and drop, and die.

5 Swift as the eagle cuts the air,
We'll mount aloft to thine abode ;
On wings of love our souls shall fly,
Nor tire amidst the heav'nly road.

XLIX. The works of Moses and the Lamb, Rev.
xv. 3.

1 HOW strong thine arm is, mighty God,
Who would not fear thy name ?
Jesus, how sweet thy graces are !
Who would not love the Lamb ?

2 He has done more than Moses did,
Our Prophet and our King ;
From bonds of hell he freed our souls,
And taught our lips to sing.

3 In the Red-sea by Moses' hand
Th' Egyptian host was drown'd ;
But his own blood hides all our sins,
And guilt no more is found.

4 When through the desert Israel went,
With manna they were fed ;
Our Lord invites us to his flesh,
And calls it living bread.

5 Moses beheld the promis'd land,
Yet never reach'd the place ;
But Christ shall bring his followers home,
To see his Father's face.

- 6 Then shall our love and joy be full,
And feel a warmer flame,
And sweeter voices tune the song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

L. The song of Zacharias, and the message of John the Baptist: or, Light and salvation by Jesus Christ, Luke i. 68, &c. John i. 29, 32.

- 1 NOW be the God of Israel blest'd,
Who makes his truth appear;
His mighty hand fulfils his word,
And all the oaths he sware.

- 2 Now he bedews old David's root
With blessings from the skies;
He makes the branch of promise grow,
The promis'd horn arise.

- [3 John was the prophet of the Lord,
To go before his face,
The herald which our Saviour God
Sent to prepare his ways.

- 4 He makes the great salvation known,
He speaks of pardon'd sins;
While grace divine, and heav'nly love,
In its own glory shines.

- 5 "Behold the Lamb of God (he cries)
"That takes our guilt away:
"I saw the Spirit o'er his head
"On his baptizing day.]

- 6 "Be ev'ry vale exalted high,
"Sink ev'ry mountain low;
"The proud must stoop, and humble sou's
"Shall his salvation know.

- 7 "The Heathen realms with Israel's land
"Shall join in sweet accord:

" And all that's born of man shall see
 " The glory of the Lord.

- 8 " Behold the morning-star arise,
 " Ye that in darkness sit;
 " He marks the path that leads to peace,
 " And guides our doubtful feet."

LI. Persevering grace, Jude 24, 25.

1 TO God the only wife,
 Our Saviour and our King.

Let all the saints below the skies
 Their humble praises bring.

2 'Tis his almighty love,
 His counsel and his care,
 Preserves us safe from sin and death,
 And ev'ry hurtful snare.

3 He will present our souls
 Unblemish'd and compleat,
 Before the glory of his face,
 With joys divinely great.

4 Then all the chosen seed
 Shall meet around the throne,
 Shall bless the conduct of his grace,
 And make his wonders known

5 To our Redeemer God
 Wisdom and power belongs,
 Immortal crowns of majesty,
 And everlasting songs.

LII. Baptism, Matt. xxviii. 19: Acts ii. 38.

1 TWAS the commission of our Lord,
 Go, Teach the nations and baptize,

- The nations have receiv'd the word
Since he ascended to the skies.
- 2 He sits upon the eternal hills,
With grace and pardon in his hands,
And sends his cov'nant with the seals,
To bless the distant British lands.
- 3 Repent and be baptiz'd, he saith,
For the remission of your sins;
And thus our sense assists our faith,
And shews us what his gospel means.
- 4 Our soul he washes in his blood,
As water makes the body clean;
And the good Spirit from our God
Descends like purifying rain.
- 5 Thus we engage our souls to Thee
And seal our cov'nant with the Lord;
O may the Great Eternal Three
In heav'n our solemn vows record!

LIII. The holy scriptures, Heb. i. r. 2 Tim. iii. 15, 16.
Psal. cxlvii. 19, 20.

- 1 GOD, who in various methods told
His mind and will to saints of old,
Sent his own Son, with truth and grace,
To teach us in these latter days.
- 2 Our nation reads the written word,
That book of life, that sure record;
The bright inheritance of heav'n
Is by the sweet conveyance giv'n.
- 3 God's kindest thoughts are here express'd,
Able to make us wise and bless'd;
The doctrines are divinely true.
Fit for reproof and comfort too.

- 4 Ye British isles, who read his love
In long epistles from above,
(He hath not sent his sacred word
To ev'ry land.) Praise ye the Lord.

LIV. Electing grace: Or, Saints below'd in Christ,
Eph. i. 3, &c.

- 1 JESUS, we bless thy Father's name;
Thy God and ours are both the same:
What heav'nly blessings from his throne
Flow down to sinners through his Son!

- 2 Christ be my first elect, he said,
Then chose our souls in Christ our Head,
Before he gave the mountains birth,
Or laid foundations for the earth.

- 3 Thus did eternal love begin
To raise us up from death and sin;
Our characters were then decreed;
Blameless in love, a holy seed.

- 4 Predestinated to be sons,
Born by degrees, but chose at once;
A new regenerated race,
To praise the glory of his grace.

- 5 With Christ our Lord we share a part
In the affections of his heart;
Nor shall our souls be thence remov'd
Till he forgets his first belov'd.

LV. Hezekiah's song: Or, Sickness and recovery, Isa.
xxxviii. 9. &c.

- 1 W H E N we are rais'd from deep distress,
Our God deserves a song;
We take the pattern of our praise
From Hezekiah's tongue.

- 2 The gates of the devouring grave
Are open'd wide in vain,
If he that holds the keys of death
Commands them fast again.
- 3 Pains of the flesh are wont t' abuse
Our minds with slavish fears;
*Our days are past, and we shall lose
The remnant of our years.*
- 4 We chatter with a swallow's voice,
Or like a dove we mourn,
With bitterness instead of joys,
Afflicted and forlorn.
- 5 Jehovah speaks the healing word,
And no disease withstands:
Fevers and plagues obey the Lord,
And fly at his commands.
- 6 If half the strings of life should break,
He can our frame restore:
He casts our sins behind his back,
And they are found no more.

LVI. The song of Moses and the Lamb: or, Babylon falling, Rev. xv. 3. and xvi. 19. and xvii. 6

- 1 WE sing the glories of thy love,
We sound thy dreadful name;
The Christian church unites the songs
Of Moses and the Lamb.
- 2 Great God! how wondrous are thy works
Of veng'ance, and of grace!
Thou King of saints, Almighty Lord,
How just and true thy ways!
- 3 Who dares refuse to fear thy name,
Or Worship at thy throne?

Thy judgments speak thine holiness
Through all the nations known.

4 Great Babylon, that rules the earth.
Drunk with the martyrs blood,
Her crimes shall speedily awake
The fury of our God.

5 The cup of wrath is ready mix'd,
And she must drink the dregs;
Strong is the Lord, her sov'reign Judge,
And shall fulfil the plagues.

LVII. Original sin: or, The first and second Adam,
Rom. v. 12, &c. Psal. li, 5. Job xiv. 4.

1 BACKWARD, with humble shame, we look
On our original;
How is our nature dash'd and broke
In our first father's fall!

2 To all that's good averse and blind,
But prone to all that's ill;
What dreadful darkness veils our mind!
How obstinate our will!

3 Conceive'd in sin (O wretched state)
Before we draw our breath;
The first young pulse begins to beat
Iniquity and death.

4 How strong in our degen'rate blood
The old corruption reigns,
And mingling with the crooked flood,
Wanders through all our veins!

5 Wild and unwholesome as the root
Will all the branches be;
How can we hope for living fruit
From such a deadly tree?

6 What mortal pow'r from things unclean
Can pure productions bring?
Who can command a vital stream
From an infected spring?]

7 Yet, mighty God, thy wond'rous love
Can make our nature clean,
While Christ and grace prevail above
The tempter, death and sin.

8 The second Adam shall restore
The ruins of the first;
Hosanna to that sov'reign pow'r,
That new-creates our dust!

LVIII. The devil vanquish'd: or Michael's war with the dragon, Rev. xii. 7.

1 LET mortal tongues attempt to sing
The wars of heav'n, when Michael stood
Chief general of th' eternal King,
And fought the battles of our God.

2 Against the dragon and his host
The armies of the Lord prevail:
In vain they rage, in vain they boast,
Their courage sinks, theirs weapons fail.

3 Down to the earth was Satan thrown,
Down to the earth his legions fell;
Then was the trump of triumph blown,
And shook the dreadful deeps of hell.

4 Now is the hour of darkness past,
Christ has assum'd his reigning pow'r;
Behold the great accuser cast
Down from the skies, to rise no more.

5 'Twas by thy blood, immortal Lamb,
Thine armies trod the tempter down;

'Twas by thy word and powerful name
'They gain'd the battle and renown.

- 6 Rejoice, ye heavens ; let ev'ry star
Shine with new glories round the sky :
Saints, while ye sing the heav'nly war,
Raife your deliv'rer's name on high.

LIX. Babylon fallen, Rev. xviii. 20, 21.

- 1 IN Gabriel's hand a mighty stone
Lies a fair type of Babylon :
*Prophets rejoice, and all ye saints,
God shall avenge your long complaints.*

- 2 He said, and dreadful as he stood,
He sunk the milstone in the flood ;
*Thus terribly shall Babel fall,
Thus and no more be found at all.*

LX. *The Virgin Mary's song : or, The promised Messiah
born*, Luke i. 46, &c.

- 1 OUR souls shall magnify the Lord,
In God the Saviour we rejoice :
While we repeat the Virgin's song,
May the same Spirit tune our voice,

- [2 The Highest saw her low estate,
And mighty things his hand hath done ;
His overshadowing power and grace
Makes her the mother of his Son.

- 3 Let ev'ry nation call her blest'd,
And endless years prolong her fame ;
But God alone must be ador'd ;
Holy and rev'rend is his name.]

- 4 To those that fear and trust the Lord,
His mercy stands for ever sure :

- From age to age his promise lives,
And the performance is secure.
- 5 He spake to Abra'm and his seed,
In thee shall all the earth be bless'd :
The mem'ry of that ancient word
Lay long in his eternal breast.
- 6 But now no more shall Israel wait,
No more the Gentiles ly forlorn :
Lo, the desire of nations comes ;
Behold the promis'd seed is born !

LXI. Christ our High-priest and King ; and coming to judgment, Rev. i. 5, 6, 7.

- 1 NOW to the Lord, that makes us know
The wonders of his dying love.
Be humble honours paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above.
- 2 'Tis He that cleans'd our foulest sins,
And wash'd us in his richest blood ;
'Tis He that makes us priests and kings,
And brings us rebels near to God.
- 3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our superior King,
Be everlasting power confess'd,
And ev'ry tongue his glory sing.
- 4 Behold, on flying clouds he comes,
And ev'ry eye shall see him move ;
Though with our sins we pierc'd him once,
Then he displays his pard'ning love.
- 5 The unbelieving world shall wail,
While we rejoice to see the day.
Come, Lord ; nor let thy promise fail,
Nor let thy chariots long delay.

LXII. Christ Jesus the Lamb of God worshipped by all the creation, Rev. v. 11, 12, 14.

1 COME let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 *Worthy the Lamb that dy'd, they cry,
To be exalted thus:*
Worthy the Lamb, our lips reply,
For he was slain for us.

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honour and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.

4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas,
Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thine endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

LXIII. *Christ's humiliation and exaltation, Rev. 5.
12.*

1 WHAT equal honours shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing,
Are far inferior to thy name?

2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of life that groan'd and dy'd;
F

Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his Almighty Father's side.

3 Pow'r and dominion are his due,
Who stood condemn'd at Pilate's bar :
Wisdom belongs to Jesus too,
Tho' he was charg'd with madness here.

4 All riches are his native right,
Yet he sustain'd amazing loss;
To him ascribe eternal might,
Who left his weakness on the cross.

5 Honour immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn ;
While glory shines around his head,
And a bright crown without a thorn.

6 Blessings for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men :
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And ev'ry creature say Amen.

LXIV. Adoption, 1 John iii. 1, &c. Gal. vi. 6.

1 BEhold what wond'rous grace
The Father has bestow'd
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God !

2 'Tis no surprising thing,
That we should be unknown ;
The Jewish world knew not their King,
God's everlasting Son :

3 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made ;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our head.

4 A hope so much divine
May trials well endure,
May purge our souls from sense and sin,
As Christ the Lord is pure.

5 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit like a dove,
To rest upon my heart.

6 We would no longer ly
Like slaves beneath the throne;
My faith shall Abba Father cry,
And thou the kindred own.

LXV. The kingdoms of the world become the kingdoms of the Lord : Or, The day of judgment, Rev. xi. 15.

1 LET the sev'nth angel sound on high,
Let shouts be heard thro' all the sky;
Kings of the earth, with glad accord,
Give up your kingdoms to the Lord.

2 Almighty God, thy pow'r assume,
Who wast, and art, and art to come:
Jesus the Lamb who once was slain,
For ever live, for ever reign!

3 The angry nations fret and roar,
That they can slay the saints no more;
On wings of vengeance flies our God
To pay the long arrears of blood.

4 Now must the rising dead appear;
Now the decisive sentence hear;
Now the dear martyrs of the Lord
Receive an infinite reward.

LXVI. Christ the King at his table, Solom. Song i.
2, 3, 4, 5, 12, 13, 17.

- 1 LET him embrace my soul, and prove
Mine int'rest in his heav'nly love;
The voice that tells me, Thou art mine,
Exceeds the blessings of the vine.
- 2 On thee th' anointing spirit came,
And spreads the favour of thy name;
That oil of gladness and of grace
Draws virgin souls to meet thy face.
- 3 Jesus, allure me by thy charms,
My soul shall fly into thine arms!
Our wand'ring feet thy favours bring
To the fair chambers of the King.
- [4 Wonder and pleasure tune our voice,
To speak thy praises and our joys:
Our mem'ry keeps this love of thine
Beyond the taste of richest wine.]
- 5 Though in ourselves deform'd we are,
And black as Kedar tents appear,
Yet, when we put thy beauties on,
Fair as the courts of Solomon.
- [6 While at his table sits the King,
He loves to see us smile and sing:
Our graces are our best perfume,
And breathe like spikenard round the room.]
- 7 As myrrh new bleeding from the tree,
Such is a dying Christ to me;
And while he makes my soul his guest,
My bosom, Lord, shall be my rest.
- [8 No beams of cedar or of fir,
Can with thy courts on earth compare;

And here we wait until thy love
Raife us to nobler feats above.]

LXVII. Seeking the pastures of Christ, the Shepherd,
Solomon's Song i. 7.

- 1 THOU, whom my soul admires above
All earthly joy and earthly love,
Tell me, dear shepherd, let me know
Where doth thy sweetest pasture grow?
- 2 Where is the shadow of that rock
That from the sun defends thy flock?
Fain would I feed among thy sheep,
Among them rest, among them sleep.
- 3 Why should thy bride appear like one
That turns aside to paths unknown!
My constant feet would never rove,
Would never seek another love.
- [4 The footsteps of thy flock I see:
Thy sweetest pastures here they be:
A wond'rous feast thy love prepares [tears.
Bought with thy wounds, and groans and
- 5 His dearest flesh he makes my food,
And bids me drink his richest blood:
Here to these hills my soul will come,
'Till my beloved lead me home.]

LXVIII. The banquet of love, Solomon's Song ii. 1,
2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7.

- 1 BEhold the rose of Sharon here,
The lily which the vallies bear:
Behold the tree of life, that gives
Refreshing fruit and healing leaves.

- 2 Amongst the thorns so lilies shine ;
 Amongst wild gourds the noble vine ;
 So in mine eyes my Saviour proves,
 Amidst a thousand meaner loves.
- 3 Beneath his cooling shade I sat,
 To shield me from the burning heat :
 Of heav'nly fruit he spreads a feast,
 To feed my eyes, and please my taste.
- [4 Kindly he brought me to the place
 Where stands the banquet of his grace ;
 He saw me faint, and o'er my head
 The banner of his love he spread.
- 5 With living bread, and gen'rous wine,
 He cheers this sinking heart of mine ;
 And op'ning his own heart to me,
 He shows his thoughts how kind they be.]
- 6 O never let my Lord depart,
 Ly down and rest upon my heart ;
 I charge my sins not once to move,
 Nor stir, nor wake, nor grieve my love.

LXIX. Christ appearing to his church, and seeking her company, Solomon's Song ii. 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13.

- 1 THE voice of my Beloved sounds
 Over the rocks and rising grounds ;
 O'er hills of guilt, and seas of grief,
 He leaps, he flies to my relief.
- 2 Now through the veil of flesh I see,
 With eyes of love he looks at me ;
 Now in the gospel's clearest glass
 He shews the beauties of his face.
- 3 Gently he draws my heart along,
 Both with his beauties and his tongue,

*Rise, faith my lord, make haste away,
No mortal joys are worth thy stay.*

4 *The Jewish wint'ry state is gone,
The mists are fled, the spring comes on,
The sacred turtle-dove we hear,
Proclaim the new, the joyful year.*

5 *Th' immortal vine of heav'nly root
Blossoms and buds, and gives her fruit :
Lo, we are come to taste the wine ;
Our souls rejoice and bless the vine.*

6 *And when we hear our Jesus say,
Rise up my love, and haste away,
Our hearts would fain out-fly the wind,
And leave all earthy loves behind.*

LXX. Christ inviting, and the church answering the invitation, Solomon's Song ii. 14. 16, 17.

[1 HARK ! the Redeemer, from on high,
Sweetly invites his fav'rites nigh ;
From caves of darkness, and of doubt,
He gently speaks, and calls us out.

2 *My dove, who hidest in the rock,
Thine heart almost with sorrow broke,
Lift up thy face, forget thy fear,
And let thy voice delight mine ear.*

3 *Thy voice to me sounds ever sweet ;
My graces in thy count'nance meet ;
Though the vain world thy face despise,
'Tis bright and comely in mine eyes.*

4 *Dear Lord, our thankful heart receives.
The hope thine invitation gives :
To thee our joyful lips shall raise
The voice of prayer and of praise.]*

- [5 I am my love's, and he is mine ;
Our hearts, our hopes, our passions join ,
Nor let a motion, nor a word,
Nor thought arise to grieve my Lord.
- 6 My soul to pastures fair he leads ;
Amongst the lilies where he feeds ;
Amongst the saints (whose robes are white
Wash'd in his blood) is his delight.
- 7 'Till the day break, and shadows flee,
'Till the sweet dawning light I see,
Thine eyes to me-ward often turn,
Nor let my soul in darkness mourn.
- 8 Be like a hart on mountains green,
Leap o'er the hills of fear and sin ;
Nor guilt, nor unbelief divide
My love, my Saviour, from my side.]

LXXI. Christ found in the street, and brought to the church, Sol. Song iii. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5.

- 1 OFTEN I seek my Lord by night,
Jesus, my love, my soul's delight ;
With warm desire, and restless thought,
I seek him oft, but find him not.
- 2 Then I arise, and search the street,
'Till I my Lord, my Saviour meet ;
I ask the watchmen of the night,
Where did you see my soul's delight ?
- 3 Sometimes I find him in the way,
Directed by a heav'nly ray ;
I leap for joy to see his face,
And hold him fast in my embrace.
- [4 I bring him to my mother's home,
Nor does my Lord refuse to come.]

To Sion's sacred chambers, where
My soul first drew the vital air.

He gives me there his bleeding heart,
Pierc'd for my sake with deadly smart ;
I give my soul to him, and there
Our loves their mutual tokens share.]

I charge you all, ye earthly toys,
Approach not to disturb my joys,
Nor sin, nor hell, come near my heart,
Nor cause my Saviour to depart.

LXXII. The coronation of Christ, and espousals of the church, Sol. Song iii. 2.

DAUGHTERS of Sion, come, behold
The crown of honour and of gold,
Which the glad church, with joys unknown,
Plac'd on the head of Solomon.

Jesus, thou everlasting King,
Accept the tribute which we bring ;
Accept the well deserv'd renown,
And wear our praises as thy crown.

Let ev'ry act of worship be
Like our espousals, Lord, to thee ;
Like the dear hour, when from above
We first receiv'd thy pledge of love.

The gladness of that happy day !
Our hearts would wish it long to stay ;
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor comfort sink, nor love grow cold.

Each following minute as it flies,
Increase thy praise, improve our joys,
'Till we are rais'd to sing thy name
At the great supper of the Lamb.

- 6 O that the months would roll away,
And bring the coronation day!
The King of grace shall fill the throne,
With all his Father's glories on.

LXXIII. The church's beauty in the eyes of Christ,
Sol. Song iv. 1, 10, 11, 7, 9, 8.

- 1 KIND is the speech of Christ our Lord,
Affection sounds in ev'ry word;
Lo, thou art fair, my love, he cries,
Not the young doves have sweeter eyes.

- 2 Sweet are thy lips, thy pleasing voice
Salutes mine ear with secret joys;
No spice so much delights the smell,
Nor milk nor honey taste so well.

- 3 Thou art all fair, my bride, to me,
I will behold no spot in thee,
What mighty wonders love performs,
And puts a comeliness on worms?

- 4 Defil'd and loathsome as we are,
He makes us white, and calls us fair;
Adorns us with that heav'nly dress,
His graces and his right'ousness.

- 5 My sister, and my spouse, he cries,
Bound to my heart by various ties,
Thy pow'rful love my heart detains
In strong delight and pleasing chains.

- 6 He calls me from the leopard's den,
From this wild world of beasts and men,
To Sion where his glories are;
Not Lebanon is half so fair.

- 7 Nor dens of prey, nor flow'ry plains,
Nor earthly joys, nor earthly pains,

Shall hold my feet, or force my stay,
When Christ invites my soul away.

LXXIV. The church the garden of Christ, Sol. Song
iv. 12, 13, 15, and -v. 1.

1 WE are a garden wall'd around,
Chosen and made peculiar ground ;
A little spot, inclos'd by grace,
Out of the world's wide wilderness.

2 Like trees of myrrh and spice we stand,
Planted by God the Father's hand ;
And all his springs in Sion flow,
To make the young plantation grow.

3 Awake, O heav'nly wind, and come,
Blow on this garden of perfume ;
Spirit divine, descend and breathe
A gracious gale of plants beneath.

4 Make our best spices flow abroad,
To entertain our Saviour God :
And faith, and love, and joy appear,
And ev'ry grace be active here.

5 Let my beloved come and taste
His pleasant fruits at his own feast :
I come, my spouse, I come, he cries,
With love and pleasure in his eyes.

6 Our Lord into his garden comes,
Well pleas'd to smell our poor perfumes,
And calls us to a feast divine,
Sweeter than honey, milk, or wine.

7 Eat of the tree of life, my friends,
The blessings that my Father sends :
Your taste shall all my dainties prove,
And drink abundance of my love.

- 8 Jesus, we will frequent thy board,
And sing the bounties of our Lord,
But the rich food on which we live
Demands more praise than tongues can give.]

LXXV. The description of Christ the Beloved, Sol.
Song v. 9, 10, 11, 12, 14, 15, 16.

1 THE wond'ring world enquires to know
Why I should love my Jesus so :
What are his charms, say they, above
The objects of a mortal love ?

2 Yes, my Beloved, to my sight
Shews a sweet mixture, red and white :
All human beauties, all divine,
In my Beloved meet and shine.

3 White is his soul, from blemish free ;
Red with the blood he shed for me ;
The fairest of ten thousand fairs ;
A sun amongst ten thousand stars.

[4 His head the finest gold excels ;
There wisdom in perfection dwells,
And glory like a crown adorns
Those temples once beset with thorns.

5 Compassions in his heart are found,
Hard by the signals of his wound :
His sacred side no more shall bear
The cruel scourge, the piercing spear.]

¶ 6 His hands are fairer to behold
Than diamonds set in rings of gold ;
Those heav'nly hands that on the tree
Were nail'd, and torn, and bled for me.

7 Though once he bow'd his feeble knees,
Loaded with sins and agonies,

Now on the throne of his command
His legs like marble pillars stand.]

[8 His eyes are majesty and love,
The eagle temper'd with the dove;
No more shall trickling sorrows roll
Through those dear windows of his soul.]

9 His mouth that pour'd out long complaints,
Now smiles and cheers his fainting faints:
His countenance more graceful is
Than Lebanon with all its trees.

10 All over glorious is my Lord,
Must be belov'd and yet ador'd
His worth, if all the nations knew,
Sure the whole earth would love him too.

LXXVI. Christ dwells in heaven, but visits on earth,
Sol. Song vi. 1, 2, 3, 12.

1 WHEN strangers stand and hear me tell
What beauties in my Saviour dwell:
Where he is gone they fain would know,
That they may seek and love him too.

2 My best beloved keeps his throne
On hills of light, in worlds unknown:
But he descends and shews his face
In the young gardens of his grace.

[3 In vineyards planted by his hand,
Where fruitful trees in order stand;
He feeds among the spicy beds,
Where lilies show their spotless heads.

4 He has engross'd my warmest love,
No earthly charms my soul can move;
I have a mansion in his heart,
Nor death, nor hell shall make us part.]

15 He takes my soul ere I'm aware,
And shows me where his glories are;
No chariot of Amminadib
The heav'nly rapture can describe.

6 O may my spirit daily rise
On wings of faith above the skies,
'Till death shall make my last remove,
To dwell for ever with my love.]

LXXVII. The love of Christ to the church, in his language to her, and provisions for her, Sol. Song vii. 5, 6, 9, 12, 13.

1 NOW in the gall'ries of his grace
Appears the king, and thus he says,
How fair my saints are in my sight,
My love how pleasant for delight?

2 Kind is thy language, sov'reign Lord,
There's heav'nly grace in ev'ry word;
From that dear mouth a stream divine
Flows sweeter than the choicest wine.

3 Such wond'rous love awakes the lip
Of saints that were almost asleep,
To speak the praises of thy name,
And makes our cold affections flame.

4 These are the joys he lets us know
In fields and villages below;
Gives us a relish of his love,
But keeps his noblest feast above.

5 In paradise within the gates,
An higher entertainment waits;
Fruits new and old laid up in store,
Where we shall feed, but thirst no more.

LXXVIII. The strength of Christ's love, and the soul's jealousy of her own, Sol. Song viii. 5, 6, 7, 13, 14.

- 1 WHO is this fair one in distress?
 That travels from the wilderness?
 And press'd with sorrows and with sins,
 On her beloved Lord she leans.
- 2 This is the spouse of Christ our God,
 Bought with the treasures of his blood;
 And her request, and her complaint,
 Is but the voice of ev'ry saint.]
- 3 "O let my name engraven stand,
 "Both on thy heart and on thy hand:
 "Seal me upon thine arm, and wear
 "That pledge of love for ever there.
- 4 "Stronger than death thy love is known,
 "Which floods of wrath could never drown;
 "And hell and earth in vain combine,
 "To quench a fire so much divine.
- 5 "But I am jealous of my heart,
 "Lest it should once from thee depart;
 "Then let thy name be well impress'd,
 "As a fair signet on my breast.
- 6 "Till thou hast brought me to thy home,
 "Where fears and doubts can never come,
 "Thy count'nance let me often see,
 "And often thou shalt hear from me.
- 7 "Come, my beloved, haste away,
 "Cut short the hours of thy delay;
 "Fly like a youthful hart or roe,
 "Over the hills where spices grow."

LXXIX. A morning hymn, Psal. xix. 5, 8. and lxxiii.
24, 25.

1. GOD of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies.
2. From the fair chambers of the East
The circuit of his race begins,
And without weariness or rest
Round the whole earth he flies and shines.
3. Oh, like the sun, may I fulfil
Th' appointed duties of the day,
With ready mind and active will
March on and keep my heav'nly way.
4. But I shall rove and lose the race,
If God, my sun, shall disappear,
And leave me in this world's maze,
To follow ev'ry wand'ring star.
5. Lord, thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlight'ning our beclouded eyes:
Thy threatning's just, thy promise sure,
Thy gospel makes the simple wise.
6. Give me thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to thy bliss;
All my desires and hopes beside,
Are faint and cold compar'd with this.

LXXX. An evening hymn, Psal. iv. 8. and iii. 5, 6.
and cxliiii. 8.

1. THUS far the Lord has led me on,
Thus far his pow'r prolongs my days,
And ev'ry evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

- 2 Much of my time is run to waste,
And I perhaps am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past;
He gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep,
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.
- 4 In vain the sons of earth and hell
Tell me a thousand frightful things;
My God in safety makes me dwell
Beneath the shadow of his wings.
- 5 Faith in his name forbids my fear:
O may thy presence ne'er depart!
And in the morning make me hear
The love and kindness of thy heart.
- 6 Thus when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

LXXXI. A song for morning and evening, Lam. iii.
23. Isa. xlv. 7.

1 MY God! how endless is thy love;
Thy gifts are ev'ry ev'ning new:
And morning mercies from above
Gently distil like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
Great guardian of my sleeping hours;
Thy sov'reign word receives the light,
And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my pow'rs to thy command,
To thee I consecrate my days:

Perpetual blessings from thine hand
Demand perpetual songs of praise.

LXXXII. God far above creatures : Or, man vain and mortal, Job iv. 17,—21.

1 SHALL the vile race of flesh and blood
Contend with their Creator God ?

Shall mortal worms presume to be
More holy, wise, or just, than he ?

2 Behold, he puts his trust in none
Of all the spirits round his throne ;
Their natures, when compar'd with his,
Are neither holy, just, nor wise.

3 But how much meaner things are they
Who spring from dust, and dwell in clay !
Touch'd by the finger of thy wrath,
We faint and vanish like the moth.

4 From night to-day, from day to night,
We die by thousands in thy sight ;
Bury'd in dust whole nations ly,
Like a forgotten vanity.

5 Almighty Power, to thee we bow ;
How frail are we ! how glorious thou !
No more the sons of earth shall dare
With an eternal God compare.

LXXXIII. Afflictions and death under providence, Job v. 6, 7, 8.

1 NOT from the dust affliction grows,
Nor troubles rise by chance ;
Yet we are born to cares and woes ;
A sad inheritance !

2 As sparks break out of burning coals,
And still are upwards borne ;

- So grief is rooted in our souls,
And man grows up to mourn :
- 3 Yet with my God I leave my cause,
And trust his promis'd grace ;
He rules me by his well known laws
Of love and righteousness.
- 4 Not all the pains that e'er I bore
Shall spoil my future peace,
For death and hell can do no more
Than what my Father please.

LXXXIV. Salvation, righteousness, and strength in Christ, Isa. xlv. 21.—25.

- 1 JEHOVAH speaks, let Israel hear,
Let all the earth rejoice and fear,
While God's eternal Son proclaims
His sov'reign honours and his names.
- 2 "I am the last, and I the first,
"The Saviour God, and God the just :
"There's none besides pretends to shew
"Such justice and salvation too.
- 3 "Ye that in shades of darkness dwell,
"Just on the verge of death and hell,
"Look up to me from distant lands,
"Light, life, and heav'n are in my hands.
- 4 "I by my holy name have sworn,
"Nor shall the word in vain return ;
"To me shall all things bend the knee,
"And ev'ry tongue shall swear to me.]
- 5 "In me alone shall men confess
"Lies all their strength and righteousness :
"But such as dare despise my name,
"I'll clothe 'em with eternal shame.

- 6 "In me, the Lord, shall all the feed
 "Of Isra'l from their sins be freed,
 "And by their shining graces prove
 "Their int'rest in my pard'ning love."

LXXXV. The same.

- 1 THE Lord on high proclaims
 His Godhead from his throne;
Mercy and justice are the names
By which I will be known.
- 2 Ye dying souls, that sit
In darkness and distress,
Look from the borders of the pit
To my recov'ring grace.
- 3 Sinners shall hear the sound:
 Their thankful tongues shall own,
Our righteousness and strength, is found
In thee, the Lord, alone.
- 4 In thee shall Israel trust,
 And see their guilt forgiv'n;
 God will pronounce the sinners just,
 And takes the faints to heav'n.

LXXXVI. God holy, just, and sovereign; Job ix. 2, 10.

- 1 HOW should the sons of Adam's race
 Be pure before their God!
 If he contend in righteousness,
 We fall beneath his rod.
- 2 To vindicate my words and thoughts,
 I'll make no more pretence;
 Not one of all my thousand faults
 Can bear a just defence.

- 3 Strong is his arm, his heart is wise ;
 What vain presumers dare
 Against their Maker's hand to rise
 Or 'tempt th' unequal war ?
- [4 Mountains by his Almighty wrath
 From their old seats are torn ;
 He shakes the earth from South to North,
 And all the pillars mourn.
- 5 He bids the sun forbear to rise,
 Th' obedient sun forbears ;
 His hand with sackcloth spreads the skies,
 And seals up all the stars.
- 6 He walks upon the stormy sea,
 Flies on the stormy wind ;
 There's none can trace his wond'rous way,
 Or his dark footsteps find.]

LXXXVII. God dwells with the humble and penitent,
Isa. lvii. 15, 16.

- 1 THUS saith the high and lofty one,
 " I sit upon my holy throne ;
 " My name is God, I dwell on high,
 " Dwell in my own eternity.
- 2 " But I descend to worlds below,
 " On earth I have a mansion too ;
 " The humble spirit and contrite
 " Is an abode of my delight.
- 3 " The humble soul my words revive ;
 " I bid the mourning sinner live ;
 " Heal all the broken hearts I find,
 " And ease the sorrows of the mind.
- [4 " When I contend against their sin,
 " I make them know how vile they've been ;

" But should my wrath for ever smoke,
 " Their souls would sink beneath the stroke."

- 5 O may thy pard'ning grace be nigh,
 Left we should faint, despair and die !
 Thus shall our better thoughts approve
 The methods of thy chast'ning love.]

LXXXVIII. Life the day of grace and of hope, Eccl.
 ix. 4, 5, 6, 10.

- 1 LIFE is the time to serve the Lord,
 The time t'insure the great reward,
 And while the lamp holds out to burn,
 The vilest sinner may return.

- [2 Life is the hour that God has giv'n
 To 'scape from hell, and fly to heav'n ;
 The day of grace, and mortals may
 Secure the blessings of the day.]

- 3 The living know that they must die,
 But all the dead forgotten lie ;
 Their mem'ry and their sense is gone,
 Alike unknowing and unknown.

- [4 Their hatred and their love is lost,
 Their envy buried in the dust ;
 They have no share in all that's done
 Beneath the circuit of the sun.]

- 5 Then what my thoughts design to do,
 My hands with all your might pursue,
 Since no device, nor work is found,
 Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.

- 6 There are no acts of pardon past
 In the cold grave, to which we haste ;
 But darkness, death, and long despair,
 Reign in eternal silence there.

LXXXIX. Youth and judgment, Eccl. xi. 9.

- 1 YE sons of Adam, vain and young,
Indulge your eyes, indulge your tongue,
Taste the delights your souls desire,
And give a loose to all your fire.
- 2 Pursue the pleasures you design,
And cheer your hearts with songs and wine :
Enjoy the day of mirth, but know
There is a day of judgment too.
- 3 God from on high beholds your thoughts,
His book records your secret faults ;
The works of darkness you have done,
Must all appear before the sun.
- 4 'The veng'ance to your follies due,
Should strike your hearts with terror thro';
How will ye stand before his face,
Or answer for his injur'd grace ?
- 5 Almighty God, turn off their eyes
From these alluring vanities ;
And let the thunder of thy word
Awake their souls to fear the Lord.

XC. The same.

- 1 LO, the young tribes of Adam rise,
And through all nature rove,
Fulfil the wishes of their eyes,
And taste the joys they love.
- 2 They give a loose to wild desires ;
But let the sinners know
The strict account that God requires
Of all the works they do.

3 The Judge prepares his throne on high,
The frighted earth and seas
Avoid the fury of his eye,
And flee before his face.

4 How shall I bear that dreadful day,
And stand the fiery test?
I give all mortal joys away,
To be for ever blest.

XCI. Advice to youth: or, Old age and death in an uncovered state, Eccl. xii. 1, 7. Isa. lxxv. 20.

1 NOW in the heat of youthful blood
Remember your Creator God:
Behold, the months come hast'ning on,
When you shall say, My joys are gone.

2 Behold, the aged sinner goes,
Laden with guilt and heavy woes,
Down to the regions of the dead,
With endless curses on his head.

3 The dust returns to dust again;
The soul, in agonies of pain,
Ascends to God; not there to dwell,
But hears her doom, and sinks to hell.

4 Eternal King, I fear thy name,
Teach me to know how frail I am;
And when my soul must hence remove,
Give me a mansion in thy love.

XCII. Christ the wisdom of God, Prov. viii. 1, 22,—32.

1 SHALL wisdom cry aloud,
And not her speech be heard?
The voice of God's eternal word,
Deserves it no regard?

- 2 " I was his chief delight,
 " His everlasting Son,
 " Before the first of all his works
 " Creation was begun.
- [3 " Before the flying clouds,
 " Before the solid land,
 " Before the fields, before the flood,
 " I dwelt at his right hand.
- 4 " When he ador'd the skies,
 " And built them, I was there,
 " To order when the sun should rise,
 " And marshal ev'ry star.
- 5 " When he pour'd out the sea,
 " And spread the flowing deep,
 " I gave the flood a firm decree
 " In its own bounds to keep.]
- [6 " Upon the empty air
 " The earth was balanc'd well ;
 " With joy I saw the mansion where
 " The sons of men should dwell.
- 7 " My busy thoughts at first
 " On their salvation ran,
 " Ere sin was born, or Adam's dust
 " Was fashion'd to a man.
- 8 " Then come, receive my grace,
 " Ye children, and be wise ;
 " Happy the man that keeps my ways,
 " The man that shuns them dies."

XCIII. Christ, or Wisdom, obeyed or resisted. Prov.
 viii. 34,——36.

1 THUS faith the wisdom of the Lord,
 " Bless'd is the man that hears my word ;

- “ Keeps daily watch before my gates,
 “ And at my feet for mercy waits.
- 2 “ The soul that seeks me shall obtain “ Immortal wealth and heav’nly gain;
 “ Immortal life is his reward,
 “ Life, and the favour of the Lord.
- 3 “ But the vile wretch that flies from me;
 “ Doth his own soul an injury :
 “ Fools that against my grace rebel
 “ Seek death, and love the road to hell.

XCIV. Justification by faith, not by works : or, The law condemns, grace justifies, Rom. iii. 19,—22.

- 1 VAIN are the hopes the sons of men
 On their own works have built;
 Their hearts by nature are unclean,
 And all their actions guilt.
- 2 Let Jew and Gentile stop their mouths
 Without a murm’ring word,
 And the whole race of Adam stand
 Guilty before the Lord.
- 3 In vain we ask God’s righteous law
 To justify us now,
 Since to convince and to condemn,
 Is all the law can do.
- 4 Jesus, how glorious is thy grace,
 When in thy name we trust !
 Our faith receives a right’ousness
 That makes the sinner just.

XCV. Regeneration, John i. 13. and iii. 3. &c.

- 1 NOT all the outward forms on earth,
 Nor rites that God has giv’n,

- Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth,
Can raise a soul to heav'n.
- 2 The sov'reign will of God alone
Creates us heirs of grace ;
Born in the image of his Son,
A new peculiar race.
- 3 The Spirit, like some heav'nly wind,
Blows on the sons of flesh,
New-models all the carnal mind,
And forms the man afresh.
- 4 Our quicken'd souls awake, and rise
From the long sleep of death ;
On heav'nly things we fix our eyes,
And praise employs our breath.

XCVI. Election excludes boasting, 1 Cor. i. 26,—31.

- 1 BUT few among the carnal wise,
But few of noble race,
Obtain the favour of thine eyes,
Almighty King of grace.
- 2 He takes the men of meanest name
For sons and heirs of God :
And thus he pours abundant shame
On honourable blood.
- 3 He calls the fool, and makes him know
The myst'ries of his grace,
To bring aspiring wisdom low,
And all its pride abase.
- 4 Nature has all its glories lost,
When brought before his throne ;
No flesh shall in his presence boast,
But in the Lord alone.

XCVII. Christ our wisdom, righteousness, &c. 1 Cor.
i. 30.

- 1 BURY'D in shadows of the night,
We ly till Christ restores the light ;
Wisdom descends to heal the blind,
And chase the darkness of the mind.
- 2 Our guilty souls are drown'd in tears,
'Till his atoning blood appears ;
Then we awake from deep distress,
And sing, The Lord our righteousness.
- 3 Our very frame is mix'd with sin,
His Spirit makes our natures clean ;
Such virtues from his suff'rings flow,
At once to cleanse and pardon too.
- 4 Jesus beholds where Satan reigns,
Binding his slaves in heavy chains,
He sets the pris'ners free, and breaks
The iron bondage from our necks.
- 5 Poor helpless worms in thee possess
Grace, wisdom, pow'r, and right'ousness :
Thou art our mighty All, and we
Give our whole selves, O Lord, to thee.

XCVIII. The same.

- 1 HOW heavy is the night
That hangs upon our eyes,
'Till Christ with his reviving light
Over our souls arise ?
- 2 Our guilty spirits dread
To meet the wrath of heav'n,
But in his righteousness array'd
We see our sins forgiv'n.

- 3 Unholy and impure
Are all our thoughts and ways,
His hands infected nature cure
With sanctifying grace.
- 4 The pow'rs of hell agree
To hold our souls in vain;
He sets the sons of bondage free,
And breaks the cursed chain.
- 5 Lord, we adore thy ways
To bring us near to God,
Thy sov'reign pow'r, thy healing grace,
And thine atoning blood.

XCIX. Stones made children of Abraham : or, Grace not conveyed by religious parents, Mat. iii. 9.

- 1 VAIN are the hopes that rebels place
Upon their birth and blood,
Descended from a pious race,
(Their fathers now with God.)
- 2 He from the caves of earth and hell
Can take the hardest stones,
And fill the house of Abrah'm well
With new-created sons.
- 3 Such wond'rous pow'r he doth possess
Who form'd our mortal frame,
Who call'd the world from emptiness,
The world obeyed and came.

C. Believe and be saved, John iii. 16, 17, 18.

- 1 NOT to condemn the sons of men
Did Christ the Son of God ppear :
No weapons in his hands are seen,
No flaming sword, nor thunder there

- 2 Such was the pity of our God,
 He lov'd the race of men so well,
 He sent his Son to bear our load
 Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
- 3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word,
 Trust in his mighty name, and live;
 A thousand joys his lips afford,
 His hands a thousand blessings give.
- 4 But vengeance and damnation lies
 On rebels who refuse the grace;
 Who God's eternal Son despise,
 The hottest hell shall be their place.

CI. Joys in heaven for a repenting sinner, Luke xv. 7, 10.

- 1 WHO can describe the joys that rise
 Through all the courts of paradise,
 To see a prodigal return,
 To see an heir of glory born?
- 2 With joy the Father doth approve
 The fruit of his eternal love;
 The Son with joy looks down, and sees
 The purchase of his agonies.
- 3 The Spirit takes delight to view
 The holy soul he form'd anew;
 And saints and angels join to sing
 The growing empire of their King.

CII. The beatitudes, Mat. v. 2,—12,

- [1 BLESS'D are the humble souls, that see
 Their emptiness and poverty;
 Treasures of grace to them are giv'n,
 And crowns of joy laid up in heav'n.

- 2 Bless'd are the men of broken heart,
Who mourn for sin with inward smart ;
The blood of Christ divinely flows,
A healing balm for all their woes.
- 3 Bless'd are the meek, who stand afar
From rage and passion, noise, and war ;
God will secure their happy state,
And plead their cause against the great.
- 4 Bless'd are the souls that thirst for grace,
Hunger and long for righteousness ;
They shall be well supply'd and fed
With living streams and living bread.
- 5 Bless'd are the men, whose bowels move
And melt with sympathy and love ;
From Christ the Lord shall they obtain
Like sympathy and love again.
- 6 Bless'd are the pure, whose hearts are clean
From the defiling pow'rs of sin ;
With endless pleasure they shall see
A God of spotless purity.
- 7 Bless'd are the men of peaceful life,
Who quench the coals of growing strife ;
They shall be call'd the heirs of bliss,
The sons of God, the God of peace.
- 8 Bless'd are the suff'rers, who partake
Of pain and shame for Jesus' sake ;
Their souls shall triumph in the Lord,
Glory and joy are their reward.]

CHIII. Not ashamed of the gospel. 2 Tim. i, 12.

- 1 I'M not ashamed to own my Lord
Or to defend his cause,
Maintain the honour of his word,
The glory of his cross.

2 Jesus my God ! I know his name,
His name is all my trust ;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.

3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
'Till the decisive hour.

4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place.

CIV. A state of nature and grace, 1 Cor. vi. 10, 11.

1 NOT the malicious or profane,
The wanton or the proud,
Nor thieves, nor stand'ers, shall obtain
The kingdom of our God.

2 Surprising grace ! And such were we
By nature and by sin,
Heirs of immortal misery,
Unholy and unclean.

3 But we are wash'd in Jesus' blood,
We're pardon'd through his name ;
And the good spirit of our God
Has sanctify'd our frame.

4 O for a persevering pow'r
To keep thy just commands !
We would defile our hearts no more,
No more pollute our hands.

CV. Heaven invisible and holy, 1 Cor. ii. 9, 10.

Rev. xxi. 27.

NOR eye hath seen, nor ear has heard,
Nor sense nor reason known,
What joys the father has prepar'd
For those that love the Son.

2 But the good Spirit of the Lord
Reveals a heav'n to come ;
The beams of glory in his word
Allure and guide us home.

4 Pure are the joys above the sky,
And all the region peace ;
No wanton lips, nor envious eye,
Can see or taste the bliss.

4 Those holy gates for ever bar
Pollution, sin, and shame ;
None shall obtain admittance there,
But followers of the Lamb.

5 He keeps the Father's book of life,
There all their names are found ;
The hypocrite in vain shall strive
To tread the heav'nly ground.

CVI. Dead to sin by the cross of Christ, Rom. vi. 1,
2, 6.

1 SHALL we go on to sin,
Because thy grace abounds,
Or crucify the Lord again,
And open all his wounds ?

2 Forbid it, mighty God !
Nor let it e'er be said,
That we, whose sins are crucify'd,
Should raise them from the dead.

- 3 We will be slaves no more,
 Since Christ has made us free,
 Has nail'd our tyrants to his cross,
 And bought our liberty.

CVII. The fall and recovery of man : Or, Christ and Satan at enmity, Gen. iii. 1, 15, 17. Gal. iv. 4. Col. ii. 15.

- 1 DECEIV'D by subtle snares of hell,
Adam, our head, our father, fell ;
 When Satan, in the serpent hid,
 Propos'd the fruit that God forbid.
- 2 Death was the threat'ning : Death began
 To take possession of the man ;
 His unborn race receiv'd the wound,
 And heavy curses smote the ground.
- 3 But Satan found a worse reward :
 Thus saith the veng'ance of the Lord,
Let ever lasting hatred be
Betwixt the woman's seed and thee.
- 4 The woman's seed shall be my Son,
He shall destroy what thou hast done ;
Shall break, thy head, and only feel
Thy malice raging at his heel.
- [5 He spake ; and bid four thousand years
 Roll on ; at length his Son appears ;
 Angels with joy descend to earth,
 And sing the young Redeemer's birth.
- 6 Lo, by the sons of hell he dies ;
 But as he hung 'twixt earth and skies,
 He gave their prince a fatal blow,
 And triumph'd o'er the pow'rs below.]

CVIII. Christ unseen and unbelov'd, 1 Pet. i. 8.

- 1 NOT with our mortal eyes
Have we beheld the Lord,
Yet we rejoice to hear his name,
And love him in his word.
- 2 On earth we want the sight
Of our Redeemer's face :
Yet, Lord, our inmost thoughts delight
To dwell upon thy grace.
- 3 And when we taste thy love,
Our joys divinely grow
Unspeakable, like those above,
And heav'n begins below.

CIX. *The value of Christ and his righteousness, Phil.
iii. 7, 8, 9.*

- 1 NO more, my God, I boast no more
Of all the duties I have done ;
I quit the hopes I held before
To trust the merits of thy Son.
- 2 Now for the love I bear his name,
What was my gain, I count my loss ;
My former pride I call my shame,
And nail my glory to his cross.
- 3 Yes, and I must, and will esteem
All things but loss for Jesus' sake ;
O may my soul be found in him,
And of his righteousness partake !
- 4 The best obedience of my hands
Dares not appear before thy throne ;
But faith can answer thy demands,
By pleading what my Lord has done.

CX. Death and immediate glory, 2 Cor. v. 1, 5,——8.

- 1 THERE is a house, not made with hands,
Eternal, and on high,
And here my spirit waiting stands
'Till God shall bid it fly.
- 2 Shortly this prison of my clay
Must be dissolv'd, and fall;
Then, O my soul, with joy obey
Thy heav'nly Father's call,
- 3 'Tis he, by his almighty grace,
That forms thee fit for heav'n;
And as an earnest of the place,
Has his own Spirit giv'n.
- 4 We walk by faith of joys to come,
Faith lives upon his word;
But while the body is our home,
We're absent from the Lord.
- 5 'Tis pleasant to believe thy grace,
But we had rather see;
We would be absent from the flesh,
And present, Lord, with thee.

CXI. Salvation by grace, Titus iii. 3,——7.

- [1 LORD, we confess our num'rous faults,
How great our guilt has been;
Foolish and vain were all our thoughts,
And all our lives were sin.
- 2 But, O my soul, for ever praise,
For ever love his name,
Who turns thy feet from dang'rous ways
Of folly, sin, and shame.]
- [3 'Tis not by works of righteousness
Which our own hands have done;

But we are sav'd by sov'reign grace,
Abounding through his Son,]

4 'Tis from the mercy of our God

That all our hopes begin;

'Tis by the water and the blood

Our souls are wash'd from sin.

5 'Tis through the purchase of his death

Who hung upon the tree,

The Spirit is sent down to breathe

On such dry bones as we.

6 Rais'd from the dead, we live anew

And justify'd by grace,

We shall appear in glory too,

And see our Father's face.

CXII. The brazen serpent: or, Looking to Jesus, John
iii. 14,—16.

1 SO did the Hebrew prophet raise

The brazen serpent high;

The wounded felt immediate ease,

The camp forbore to die.

2 Look upward in the dying hour,

And live, the prophet cries;

But Christ performs a nobler cure,

When faith lifts up her eyes.

3 High on the cross the Saviour hung,

High in the heav'ns he reigns;

Here sinners, by th' old serpent stung,

Look, and forget their pains.

4 When God's own Son is lifted up,

A dying world revives;

The Jew beholds the glorious hope,

Th' expiring Gentile lives.

CXIII. Abraham's blessing on the Gentiles, Gen xvii.

7. Rom. xv. 8, Mark x. 14.

- 1 HOW large the promise ! how divine,
To Abrah'm and his seed !
I'll be a God to thee and thine,
Supplying all their need.
- 2 The words of his extensive love
From age to age endure ;
The angel of the cov'nant proves,
And seals the blessing sure.
- 3 Jesus the ancient faith confirms,
To our great fathers giv'n ;
He takes young children to his arms,
And calls them heirs of heav'n.
- 4 Our God, how faithful are his ways !
His love endures the same ;
Nor from the promise of his grace
Blots out the children's name.

CXIV. The same, Rom. xi. 16, 17.

- 1 GENTILES by nature, we belong
To the wild olive wood ;
Grace took us from the barren tree,
And grafts us in the good.
- 2 With the same blessings grace endows
The Gentile and the Jew ;
If pure and holy be the root,
Such are the branches too.
- 3 Then let the children of the saints
Be dedicate to God ;
Pour out thy spirit on them, Lord,
And wash them in thy blood.

Thus to the parents and their seed
Shall thy salvation come,
And num'rous households meet at last
In one eternal home.

CXV. Conviction of sin by the law, Rom. vii. 8, '9.
14, 24.

LORD, how secure my conscience was,
And felt no inward dread !
I was alive without the law,
And thought my sins were dead.

2 My hopes of heav'n were firm and bright ;
But since the precept came
With a convincing pow'r and light,
I find how vile I am.

3 My guilt appear'd but small before,
Till terribly I saw,
How perfect, holy, just, and pure
Was thine eternal law.

4 Then felt my soul the heavy load,
My sins reviv'd again,
I had provok'd a dreadful God,
And all my hopes were slain.]

5 I'm like a helpless captive fold,
Under the pow'r of sin ;
I cannot do the good I would,
Nor keep my conscience clean.

6 My God, I cry with ev'ry breath,
For some kind pow'r to save,
To break the yoke of sin and death,
And thus redeem the slave.

CXVI. Love to God and our neighbour, Matth. xxii.

37.—40.

- 1 " THUS saith the first, the great command,
 " Let all my inward pow'rs unite
 " To love thy Maker, and thy God,
 " With utmost vigour and delight.
- 2 " Then shall thy neighbour next in place
 " Share thine affection and esteem,
 " And let thy kindness to thyself
 " Measure and rule thy love to him."
- 3 This is the sense that Moses spoke,
 This did the prophets preach and prove;
 For want of this the law is broke,
 And the whole law's fulfill'd by love.
- 4 But oh ! how base our passions are !
 How cold our charity and zeal !
 Lord, fill our souls with heav'nly fire,
 Or we shall ne'er perform thy will.

CXVII. Election sovereign and free, Rom. ix, 21,

22, 23, 24.

- [1 BEHOLD the potter and the clay,
 He forms his vessels as he please :
 Such is our God, and such are we,
 The subjects of his high decrees.
- 2 Doth not the workman's power extend
 O'er all the mass, which part to chuse,
 And mould it for a nobler end,
 And which to leave for viler use ?]
- 3 May not the sov'reign Lord on high
 Dispense his favours as he will,
 Chuse some to life, while others die,
 And yet be just and gracious still ?

- [4 What if, to make his terror known,
He lets his patience long endure,
Suff'ring vile rebels to go on,
And seal their own destruction sure?
- 5 What if he means to show his grace,
And his electing love employs
To mark out some of mortal race,
And forms them fit for heav'nly joys!]
- 6 Shall man reply against the Lord,
And call his Maker's ways unjust,
The thunder of whose dreadful word
Can crush a thousand worlds to dust.
- 7 But, O my soul, if truth so bright
Should dazzle and confound thy sight,
Yet still his written will obey,
And wait the great decisive day.
- 8 Then shall he make his justice known,
And the whole world before his throne,
With joy, or terror, shall confess
The glory of his righteousness.

CXVIII. Moses and Christ: or, Sin against the law and gospel, John i. 17. Heb. lii. 3. 5, 6, and x. 28, 29.

- 1 THE law by Moses came,
But peace, and truth, and love,
Were brought by Christ (a nobler name)
Descending from above.
- 2 Amidst the house of God
Their different works were done;
Moses a faithful servant stood,
But Christ a faithful Son.
- 3 Then to his new commands
Be strict obedience paid:

O'er all his Father's house he stands
The Sov'reign and the Head.

4 The man that durst despise
The law that Moses brought;
Behold! how terribly he dies
For his presumptuous fault.

5 But sorer vengeance falls
On that rebellious race,
Who hate to hear when Jesus calls,
And dare resist his grace.

CXIX. *The different success of the gospel, 1 Cor. i.
23, 24. 2 Cor. ii. 16. 1 Cor. iii. 6, 7.*

1 CHRIST and his cross is all our theme,
The myst'ries that we speak
Are scandal in the Jews esteem,
And folly to the Greek :

2 But souls enlight'ned from above
With joy receive the word;
They see what wisdom, pow'r, and love,
Shines in their dying Lord.

3 The vital favour of his name
Restores their fainting breath;
But unbelief perverts the same
To guilt, despair, and death.

4 'Till God diffuse his graces down,
Like showers of heav'nly rain,
In vain Apollos sows the ground,
And Paul may plant in vain.

CXX. Faith of things unseen, Heb. xi. 1, 3, 8, 12.

1 FAITH is the brightest evidence
Of things beyond our sight,

- Breaks thro' the clouds of flesh and sense,
And dwells in heav'nly light.
- 2 It sets times past in present view,
Brings distant prospects home,
Of things a thousand years ago,
Or thousand years to come.
- 3 By faith we know the worlds were made
By God's almighty word;
Abrah'm to unknown countries led,
By faith obey'd the Lord.
- 4 He fought a city fair and high,
Built by th' eternal hands;
And faith assures us, though we die,
That heav'nly building stands.

CXXI. Children devoted to God, Gen. xvii. 7, 10. Acts
xvi. 14, 15, 33.

(For those who practise Infant-Baptism.)

- 1 THUS faith the mercy of the Lord,
I'll be a God to thee;
I'll bless thy num'rous race, and they Shall be a seed for me.
- 2 Abrah'm believ'd the promis'd grace,
And gave his sons to God;
But water seals the blessing now,
That once was seal'd with blood.
- 3 Thus Lydia sanctify'd her house,
When she receiv'd the word;
Thus the believing jailor gave
His household to the Lord.
- 4 Thus later saints, eternal King,
Thine ancient truth embrace;

To thee their infant offspring bring,
And humbly claim thy grace.

CXXII. Believers buried with Christ in baptism, Rom. vi. 3, 4, &c.

- 1 DO we not know that solemn word,
That we are buried with the Lord,
Baptiz'd into his death, and then
Put off the body of our sin?
- 2 Our souls receive diviner breath,
Rais'd from corruption, guilt, and death;
So from the grave did Christ arise,
And lives to God above the skies.
- 3 No more let sin or Satan reign
Over our mortal flesh again;
The various lusts we serv'd before
Shall have dominion now no more.

CXXIII. The repenting prodigal, Luke xv. 13.

- 1 BEHOLD the wretch, whose lust and wine
Had wasted his estate,
He begs a share among the swine,
To taste the husks they eat!
- 2 *I die with hunger here, he cries,
I starve in foreign lands;
My father's house has large supplies,
And bounteous are his hands.*
- 3 *I'll go, and with a mournful tongue,
Fall down before his face;
Father, I've done thy justice wrong,
Nor can deserve thy grace.*
- 4 He said, and hasten'd to his home,
To seek his Father's love;

- The Father saw the rebel come,
And all his bowels move.
- 5 He ran, and fell upon his neck,
Embrac'd, and kiss'd his son;
The rebel's heart with sorrow brake,
For follies he had done.
- 6 Take off his cloaths of shame and sin,
(The Father gives command)
Dress him in garments white and clean,
With rings adorn his hand.
- 7 A day of feasting I ordain,
Let mirth and joy abound;
My son was dead and lives again,
Was lost, and now is found.

CXXIV. The first and second Adam, Rom. v. 12,
&c.

- 1 DEEP in the dust before thy throne
Our guilt and our disgrace we own;
Great God! we own th' unhappy name
Whence sprung our nature and our shame.
- 2 Adam the sinner: At his fall,
Death, like a conqu'ror, seiz'd us all;
A thousand new-born babes are dead,
By fatal union to their head.
- 3 But whilst our spirits fill'd with awe,
Behold the terrors of thy law,
We sing the honours of thy grace,
That sent to save our ruin'd race.
- 4 We sing thine everlasting Son,
Who join'd our nature to his own;
Adam the second from the dust
Raises the ruins of the first.

- [5 By the rebellion of one man,
Thro' all his seed the mischief ran;
And by one man's obedience now
Are all his seed made righteous too.
- 6 Where sin did reign, and death abound,
There have the sons of Adam found,
Abounding life; there glorious grace
Reigns thro' the Lord our righteousness.]

CXXV. Christ's compassion to the weak and tempted,
Heb. iv. 16. and v. 7. Mat. xii. 20.

- 1 WITH joy we meditate the grace
Of our High Priest above;
His heart is made of tenderness,
His bowels melt with love.
- 2 Touch'd with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he has felt the same.
- 3 But spotless, innocent, and pure
The great Redeemer stood,
While Satan's fiery darts he bore,
And did resist to blood.
- 4 He in the days of feeble flesh
Pour'd out his cries and tears,
And in his measure feels afresh
What ev'ry member bears.
- [5 He'll never quench the smoking flax,
But raise it to a flame;
The bruised reed he never breaks,
Nor scorns the meanest name.]
- 6 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and his pow'r,

We shall obtain deliv'ring grace
In the distressing hour.

CXXVI. Charity and uncharitableness, Rom. xiv. 17,
19. 1 Cor. x. 32.

- 1 NOT diff'rent food, or diff'rent dress,
Compose the kingdoms of the Lord,
But peace, and joy, and righteousness,
Faith, and obedience to his word.
- 2 When weaker Christians we despise,
We do the gospel mighty wrong;
For God, the gracious and the wise,
Receives the feeble with the strong.
- 3 Let pride and wrath be banish'd hence,
Meekness and love our souls pursue:
Nor shall our practice give offence
To saints, the Gentile or the Jew.

CXXVII. Christ's invitation to sinners: or, Humility and pride, Matth. xi. 28,—30.

- 1 “COME hither all ye weary souls,
“Ye heavy laden sinners come;
“I'll give you rest from all your toils,
“And raise you to my heav'nly home.
- 2 “They shall find rest that learn of me;
“I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
“But passion rages like the sea,
“And pride is restless as the wind.
- 3 “Bless'd is the man whose shoulders take “My yoke, and bear it with delight;
“My yoke is easy to his neck,
“My grace shall make the burden light.”

- 4 Jesus, we come at thy command,
 With faith, and hope, and humble zeal,
 Reſign our ſpirits to thy hand,
 To mould and guide us at thy will.

CXXVIII. *The apoſtles commiſſion: Or, The goſpel at-teſted by miracles, Mark xvi. 15, &c. Matt. xxviii.
 18, &c.*

- 1 “ GO preach my goſpel, ſaith the Lord, “ Bid the whole earth my grace receive:
 “ He ſhall be ſav’d that truſts my word;
 “ He ſhall be damn’d that won’t believe.
- [2 “ I’ll make your great commiſſion known,
 “ And ye ſhall prove my goſpel true,
 “ By all the works that I have done,
 “ By all the wonders ye ſhall do.
- 3 “ Go heal the ſick, go raiſe the dead,
 “ Go caſt out devils in my name;
 “ Nor let my prophets be afraid,
 “ Tho’ Greeks reproach, and Jews blaſpheme;]
- 4 “ Teach all the nations my commands,
 “ I’m with you ’till the world ſhall end;
 “ All pow’r is truſted in my hands,
 “ I can deſtroy, and I defend.”
- 5 *He ſpoke, and light ſhone round his head,
 On a bright cloud to heaven he rode;
 They to the fartheſt nations ſpread
 The grace of their aſcended God.*

CXXIX. Submission and deliverance: or, Abraham ef-ſering his ſon, Gen. xxii. 6, &c.

- 1 SAINTS, at your heav’nly Father’s word,
 Give up your comforts to the Lord;
 He ſhall reſtore what you reſign,
 Or grant you bleſſings more divine.

2 So Abrah'm, with obedient hand,
Led forth his son at God's command;
The wood, the fire, the knife he took,
His arm prepar'd the dreadful stroke.

3 Abrah'm, forbear, the angel cry'd,
Thy faith is known, thy love is try'd;
Thy son shall live, and in thy seed
Shall the whole earth be blest'd indeed.

4 Just in the last distressing hour
The Lord displays deliv'ring pow'r;
The mount of danger is the place
Where we shall see surprizing grace.

CXXX. Love and hatred, Phil. ii. 2. Eph. iv. 30, &c.

1 NOW, by the bowels of my God,
His sharp distress, his sore complaints,
By his last groans, his dying blood,
I charge my soul to love the saints.

2 Clamour, and wrath, and war, be gone,
Envy and spite for ever cease;
Let bitter words no more be known
Amongst the saints, the sons of peace.

3 The Spirit, like a peaceful dove,
Flies from the realms of noise and strife;
Why should we vex and grieve his love,
Who seals our souls to heav'nly life?

4 Tender and kind be all our thoughts,
Through all our lives let mercy run:
So God forgives our num'rous faults
For the dear sake of Christ his Son.

K

CXXXI. The pharisee and publican, Luke xviii. 10, &c.

- 1 BEHOLD how sinners disagree,
The publican and pharisee :
One doth his right'ousness proclaim,
The other own his guilt and shame.
- 2 This man at humble distance stands,
And cries for grace with lifted hands ;
That boldly rises near the throne,
And talks of duties he has done.
- 3 The Lord their diff'rent language knows,
And diff'rent answers he bestows ;
The humble soul with grace he crowns,
Whilst on the proud his anger frowns.
- 4 Dear Father, let me never be
Join'd with the boasting pharisee ;
I have no merits of my own,
But plead the sufferings of thy Son.

CXXXII. Holiness and grace, Tit. ii. 10,—13.

- SO let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess ;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.
- 2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honours of our Saviour God ;
When the salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the pow'r of sin.
- 3 Our flesh and sense must be deny'd,
Passion and envy, lust and pride ;
Whilst justice, temp'rance, truth and love,
Our inward piety approve.

- 4 Religion bears our spirits up
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearance of the Lord,
And faith stands leaning on his word.

CXXXIII. Love and charity, 1 Cor. xiii. 2,—7, 19.

- 1 LET Pharisees of high esteem
Their faith and zeal declare ;
All their religion is a dream,
If love be wanting there.
- 2 Love suffers long with patient eye,
Nor is provok'd in haste ;
She lets the present injury die,
And long forgets the past.
- [3 Malice and rage, those fires of hell,
She quenches with her tongue ;
Hopes, and believes, and thinks no ill,
'Trough she endure the wrong.
- 4 She nor desires, nor seeks to know
The scandals of the time :
Nor looks with pride on those below,
Nor envies those that climb.]
- 5 She lays her own advantage by,
To seek her neighbours good ;
So God's own Son came down to die,
And bought our lives with blood.
- 6 Love is the grace that keeps her pow'r
In all the realms above ;
There faith and hope are known no more,
But saints for ever love.

CXXXIV. Religion vain without love, 1 Cor. xiii.
1, 2, 3.

- 1 HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found
Like tinkling brags, an empty sound.
- 2 Were I inspir'd to preach and tell
All that is done in heav'n and hell,
Or, could my faith the world remove,
Still I am nothing without love.
- 3 Should I distribute all my store
To feed the bowels of the poor,
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name,
- 4 If love to God, and love to men
Be absent, all my hopes are vain:
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
'The works of love can e'er fulfil.

CXXXV. The love of Christ shed abroad in the heart,
Eph. iii. 16, &c.

- 1 COME, dearest Lord, descend and dwell
By faith and love in ev'ry breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that cannot be express'd.
- 2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlarged souls possess,
And learn the height, and breadth, and length
Of thine unmeasurable grace.
- 3 Now to the God, whose pow'r can do
More than our thoughts or wishes know,
Be everlasting honours done
By all the church, thro' Christ his Son.

CXXXVI. Sincerity and hypocrisy: or, Formality in worship, John iv. 24. Psal. cxxxix. 23, 24.

- 1 GOD is a Spirit just and wise,
He sees our inmost mind;
In vain to heav'n we raise our cries,
And leave our souls behind.
- 2 Nothing but truth before his throne
With honour can appear;
The painted hypocrites are known
Through the disguise they wear.
- 3 Their lifted eyes salute the skies,
Their bending knees the ground;
But God abhors the sacrifice,
Where not the heart is found.
- 4 Lord search my thoughts, and try my ways,
And make my heart sincere:
Then shall I stand before thy face,
And find acceptance there.

CXXXVII. Salvation by grace in Christ, 2 Tim i. 9. 10.

- 1 NOW to the pow'r of God supreme
Be everlasting honours giv'n,
He saves from hell, (we bless his name),
He calls our wand'ring feet to heav'n.
- 2 Not for our duties or deserts,
But of his own abundant grace,
He works salvation in our hearts,
And forms a people for his praise.
- 3 'Twas his own purpose that begun
To rescue rebels doom'd to die:
He gave us grace in Christ his Son
Before he spread the starry sky.

- 4 Jesus, the Lord appears at last,
And makes his Father's counsels known :
Declares the great transactions past,
And brings immortal blessings down.
- 5 He dies, and in that dreadful night,
Did all the pow'rs of hell destroy ;
Rising he brought our heav'n to light,
And took possession of the joy.

CXXXVIII. Saints in the hands of Christ, John x.
28, 29.

- 1 FIRM as the earth thy gospel stands,
My Lord, my hope, my trust ;
If I am found in Jesus' hands,
My soul can ne'er be lost.
- 2 His honour is engag'd to save
The meanest of his sheep :
All that his heav'nly Father gave
His hands securely keep.
- 3 Nor death nor hell shall e'er remove
His fav'rites from his breast ;
In the dear bosom of his love
They must for ever rest.

CXXXIX, Hope in the covenant : or, God's promise and and truth unchangeable, Heb. vi. 17.—19.

- 1 HOW oft hath sin and Satan strove
To rend my soul from thee, my God ?
But everlasting is thy love,
And Jesus seals it with his blood.
- 2 The oath and promise of the Lord
Join to confirm the wond'rous grace ;

- Eternal Pow'r confirms the word,
And fills all heav'n with endless praise:
- 3 Amidst temptations sharp and long,
My soul to this dear refuge flies;
Hope is my anchor firm and strong,
While tempests blow and billows rise.
- 4 The gospel bears my spirit up;
A faithful and unchanging God
Lays the foundation for my hope
In oaths, and promises, and blood.

CXL. A Living and a dead faith; collected from several Scriptures

- 1 MISTAKEN souls! that dream of heav'n,
And make their empty boast
Of inward joys, and sins forgiv'n,
While they are slaves to lust.
- 2 Vain are our fancies, airy flights,
If faith be cold and dead:
None but a living faith unites
To Christ the living head.
- 3 'Tis faith that changes all the heart;
'Tis faith that works by love;
That bids all sinful joys depart,
And lifts the thoughts above.
- 4 'Tis faith that conquers earth and hell,
By a celestial pow'r;
This is the grace that shall prevail
In the decisive hour.
- [5 Faith must obey her Father's will,
As well as trust his grace:
A pard'ning God is jealous still
For his own holiness.

- 6 When from the curse he sets us free,
 He makes our natures clean;
 Nor would he send his Son to be
 The minister of sin.
- 7 His Spirit purifies our frame,
 And seals our peace with God:
Jesus, and his salvation came
 By water and by blood.]

CXLI. The humiliation and exaltation of Christ, Isa.
 liii. 1,—5. 10,—12.

- 1 WHO has believ'd thy word,
 Or thy salvation known?
 Reveal thine arm, Almighty Lord,
 And glorify thy Son.
- 2 The Jews esteem'd him here
 Too mean for their belief;
 Sorrows his chief acquaintance were,
 And his companions grief.
- 3 They turn'd their eyes away,
 And treated him with scorn;
 But 'twas their grief upon him lay,
 Their sorrows he has borne.
- 4 'Twas for the stubborn Jews,
 And Gentiles, then unknown,
 The God of justice pleas'd to bruise
 His best beloved Son.
- But I'll prolong his days,
 " And make his kingdom stand;
 " My pleasure (saith the God of grace)
 Shall prosper in his hand.
- (6 " His joyful soul shall see
 " The purchase of his pain,

" And by his knowledge justify

" The guilty sons of men.]

[7 " Then thousand captive slaves,

" Releas'd from death and sin,

" Shall quit their prisons and their graves,

" And own his pow'r divine.]

[8 Heav'n shall advance my Son

" To joys that earth deny'd ;

" Who saw the follies men had done,

" And bore their sins, and dy'd."]

CXLII. The same, Isa. liii, 6,—9,—12.

1 LIKE sheep we went astray,
And broke the fold of God,
Each wand'ring in a diff'rent way,
But all the downward road.

2 How dreadful was the hour
When God our wand'rings laid,
And did at once his vengeance pour
Upon the Shepherd's head !

3 How glorious was the grace,
When Christ sustain'd the stroke !
His life and blood the Shepherd pays
A ransom for the flock.

4 His honour and his breath
Were taken both away ;
Join'd with the wicked in his death,
And made as vile as they.

5 But God shall raise his head
O'er all the sons of men,
And make him see a num'rous seed
To recompense his pain.

6 *I'll give him (saith the Lord)
A portion with the strong ;
He shall possess, a large reward,
And hold his honours long.*

CXLIII. Characters of the children of God, from several scriptures.

1 SO new-born babes desire the breast,
To feed, and grow, and thrive ;
So saints with joy the gospel taste,
And by the gospel live.

[2 With inward gust their heart approves
All that the world relates ;
They love the men their Father loves,
And hate the works he hates.]

[3 Not all the flatt'ring baits on earth
Can make them slaves to lust :
They can't forget their heav'nly birth,
Nor grovel in the dust.

4 Not all the chains that tyrants use
Shall bind their souls to vice ;
Faith, like a conqu'ror can produce
A thousand victories.]

[5 Grace, like an uncorrupted seed,
Abides and reigns within ;
Immortal principles forbid
The sons of God to sin.]

[6 Not by the terrors of a slave
Do they perform his will,
But, with the noblest pow'rs they have,
His sweet commands fulfil.]

7 They find access at ev'ry hour
To God within the veil ;

Hence they derive a quick'ning pow'r,
And joys that never fail.

8 O happy souls ! O glorious state
Of overflowing grace !

To dwell so near their Father's seat,
And see his lovely face !

9 Lord, I address thy heavenly throne ;

Call me a child of thine ;

Send down the spirit of thy Son

To form my heart divine.

10 There shed thy choicest loves abroad,

And make my comforts strong ;

Then shall I say, My Father God,

With an unwav'ring tongue.

CXLIV. The witnessing and sealing spirit, Rom. viii.

14, 16. Eph. i. 13, 14.

1 WHY should the children of a King
Go mourning all their days ?

Great Comforter, descend and bring

Some tokens of thy grace.

2 Dost thou not dwell in all the saints,

And seal the heirs of heaven ?

When wilt thou banish my complaints,

And show my sins forgiven ?

3 Assure my conscience of her part

In the Redeemer's blood,

And bear thy witness with my heart,

That I am born of God.

4 Thou art the earnest of his love,

The pledge of joys to come ;

And thy soft wings, celestial Dove,

Will safe convey me home.

CXLV. Christ and Aaron, taken from Heb. vii. and ix.

- 1 JESUS, in thee our eyes behold
A thousand glories more
Than the rich gems and polish'd gold
The sons of Aaron wore.
- 2 They first their own burnt-off'rings brought
To purge themselves from sin;
Thy life was pure, without a spot,
And all thy nature clean.
- [3 Fresh blood, as constant as the day,
Was on their altar spilt;
But thy one off'ring takes away
For ever all our guilt.]
- [4 Their priesthood ran thro' several hands,
For mortal was their race;
Thy never-changing office stands
Eternal as thy days.]
- [5 Once in the circuit of a year,
With blood, but not his own,
Aaron within the veil appears,
Before the golden throne.
- 6 But Christ, by his own pow'rful blood,
Ascends above the skies,
And, in the presence of our God,
Shews his own sacrifice.]
- 7 Jesus, the King of glory, reigns
On Sion's heav'nly hill;
Looks like a lamb that has been slain,
And wears his priesthood still.
- 8 He ever lives, to intercede
Before his Father's face:

Give him, my soul, thy cause to plead,
Nor doubt thy Father's grace.

CXLVI. Characters of Christ, borrowed from inanimate things in scripture.

1 GO worship at Immanuel's feet,
See in his face what wonders meet !
Earth is too narrow to express
His worth, his glory, or his grace.

[2 The whole creation can afford
But some faint shadows of my Lord :
Nature, to make his beauties known,
Must mingle colours not her own.]

[3 Is he compar'd to wine or bread ?
Dear Lord, our souls would thus be fed ;
That flesh, that dying blood of thine,
Is bread of life, is heav'nly wine.]

[4 Is he a tree ? The world receives
Salvation from his healing leaves :
That righteous branch, that fruitful bough,
Is David's root and offspring too.]

[5 Is he a rose ? Not Sharon yields
Such fragrancy in all her fields :
Or if the lily he assume,
The vallies bless the rich perfume.]

[6 Is he a vine ? His heav'nly root
Supplies the boughs with life and fruit ;
O let a lasting union join
My soul to Christ the living vine !]

[7 Is he the head ? Each member lives,
And owns the vital pow'rs he gives ;
The saints below, and saints above,
Join'd by his Spirit and his love.]

- [8 Is he a fountain ? There I bathe,
And heal the plague of sin and death :
These waters all my soul renew,
And cleanse my spotted garments too.]
- [9 Is he a fire ? He'll purge my dross :
But the true gold sustains no loss :
Like a refiner shall he sit,
And tread the refuse with his feet.]
- [10 Is he a rock ? How firm he proves !
The rock of ages never moves ;
Yet the sweet streams that from him flow
Attend us all the desert thro'.]
- [11 Is he a way ? He leads to God,
The path is drawn in lines of blood ;
There would I walk with hope and zeal,
'Till I arrive at Sion's hill.]
- [12 Is he a door ? I'll enter in ;
Behold the pastures large and green ;
A paradise divinely fair,
None but the sheep have freedom there.]
- [13 Is he design'd a corner stone,
For men to build their heav'n upon ?
I'll make him my foundation too,
Nor fear the plots of hell below.
- [14 Is he a temple ? I adore
Th' indwelling majesty and pow'r :
And still to his most holy place
Whene'er I pray, I turn my face.]
- [15 Is he a star ? He breaks the night,
Piercing the shades with dawning light :
I know his glories from afar,
I know the bright, the morning-star.]

[16 Is he a sun ? His beams are grace,
His course is joy and righteousness :
Nations rejoice when he appears
To chase their clouds, and dry their tears.]

17 O let me climb these higher skies,
Where storms and darkness never rise !
There he displays his pow'rs abroad,
And shines, and reigns th' incarnate God.

18 Nor earth, nor seas, nor sun, nor stars,
Nor heav'n his full resemblance bears ;
His beauties we can never trace,
'Till we behold him face to face.

CXLVII. The names and titles of Christ, from several scriptures.

[1 'TIS from the treasures of his word
I borrow titles for my Lord ;
Nor art, nor nature, can supply
Sufficient forms of majesty.]

2 Bright image of the Father's face,
Shining with undiminish'd rays ;
'Th' eternal God's eternal Son,
The heir and partner of his throne.

3 The King of Kings, the Lord most high,
Writes his own name upon his thigh,
He wears a garment dipt in blood,
And breaks the nations with his rod.

4 Where grace can neither melt nor move,
The lamb resents his injur'd love,
Awakes his wrath without delay,
And Judah's lion tears the prey.

- 5 But when for works of peace he comes,
 What winning titles he assumes :
 Light of the world, and life of men ;
 Nor bears these characters in vain.
- 6 With tender pity in his heart
 He acts the Mediator's part ;
 A friend and brother he appears,
 And well fulfils the name he wears.
- 7 At length the Judge his throne ascends,
 Divides the rebels from his friends,
 And saints in full fruition prove
 His rich variety of love.

CXLVIII. The same as the cxlviiith Psalm.

[1 WITH cheerful voice I sing
 The titles of my Lord,
 And borrow all the names
 Of honour from his word ;
 Nature and art
 Can ne'er supply
 Sufficient forms
 Of majesty.]

2 In Jesus we behold
 His Father's glorious face
 Shining for ever bright
 With mild and lovely rays :
 Th' eternal God's
 Eternal Son
 Inherits and
 Partakes the throne.

3 The sov'reign King of kings,
 The Lord of Lords most high,
 Writes his own name upon
 His garment and his thigh.

His name is call'd
The word of God ;
He rules the earth
With iron rod.

- 4 Where promises and grace
Can neither melt nor move,
The angry Lamb resents
The injuries of his love ;
Awakes his wrath
Without delay,
As lions roar,
And tear the pray.

- 5 But when for works of peace
The great Redeemer comes,
What gentle characters,
What titles he assumes !
Light of the world,
And life of men !
Nor will he bear
Those names in vain.

- 6 Immense compassion reigns
In our Immanuel's heart,
When he descends to act
A Mediator's part.
He is a friend,
And brother too ;
Divinely kind,
Divinely true.

- 7 At length the Lord, the Judge,
His awful throne ascends,
And drives the rebels far
From favourites and friends.
Then shall the saints
Completely prove

The heights and depths
Of all his love.

CXLIX. The offices of Christ, from several scriptures.

1 JOIN all the names of love and pow'r
That ever men or angels bore,
All are too mean to speak his worth,
Or set Immanuel's glory forth.

2 But O what condescending ways
He takes to teach his heav'nly grace?
My eyes with joy and wonder see
What forms of love he bare to me.

[3 The Angel of the cov'nant stands
With his commission in his hands,
Sent from his Father's milder throne
To make the great salvation known.

4 Great Prophet, let me bless thy name:
By thee the joyful tidings came
Of wrath appeas'd, of sins forgiv'n,
Of hell subdu'd, and peace with heav'n.

5 My bright example, and my guide,
I would be walking near thy side;
O let me never run astray,
Nor follow the forbidden way!]

6 I love my Shepherd, he shall keep
My wand'ring soul amongst his sheep;
He feeds his flocks, he calls their names,
And in his bosom bears the lambs.

[7 My Surety undertakes my cause,
Answering his Father's broken laws;
Behold my soul at freedom set,
My Surety paid the dreadful debt.

8 Jesus, my great High-priest, has dy'd,
I seek no sacrifice beside;

- His blood did once for all atone,
And now it pleads before the throne.
- 9 My Advocate appears on high,
The Father lays his thunder by;
Not all that hell or earth can say
Shall turn my Father's heart away.
- 10 My Lord, my Conqu'ror, and my King,
Thy sceptre and thy sword I sing;
Thine is the vict'ry, and I fit
A joyful subject at thy feet.
- 11 Aspire, my soul, to glorious deeds,
The Captain of Salvation leads:
March on, nor fear to win the day,
Tho' death and hell, obstruct the way.]
- 12 Should death and hell, and pow'rs unknown,
Put all their forms of mischief on,
I shall be safe; for Christ displays
Salvation in more sov'reign ways.

CL. The same as the cxlviiiith Psalm.

- 1 JOIN all the glorious names
Of wisdom, love, and pow'r,
That ever mortals knew,
That angels ever bore:
All are too mean
To speak his worth,
Too mean to set
My Saviour forth.
- 2 But, O what gentle terms,
What condescending ways
Doth our Redeemer use,
To teach his heav'nly grace
Mine eyes with joy
And wonder see

What forms of love
He bears to me.

- [3 Array'd in mortal flesh,
He like an angel stands,
And holds the promises
And pardons in his hands ;
Commision'd from
His Father's throne,
To make his grace
To mortals known.
- 4 Great Prophet of my God,
My tongue would blefs thy name ;
By thee the joyful news
Of our salvation came ;
The joyful news
Of fins forgiv'n,
Of hell subdu'd
And peace with heav'n.
- 5 Be thou my counsellor,
My pattern, and my guide ;
And thro' this defart land
Still keep me near thy fide.
O let my feet
Ne'er run aftray,
Nor rove, nor seek
The crooked way !
- 6 I love my Shepherd's voice,
His watchful eyes shall keep
My wan'dring foul among
The thousands of his fheep ;
He feeds his flock,
He calls their names,
His bofom bears
The tender lambs.

- 7 To this dear Surety's hand
Will I commit my cause;
He answers and fulfils
His Father's broken laws.
Behold my soul
At freedom set!
My surety paid
The dreadful debt.
- 8 Jesus, my great High-Priest,
Offer'd his blood and dy'd;
My guilty conscience seeks
No sacrifice beside.
His pow'rful blood
Did once atone;
And now it pleads
Before the throne.
- 9 My Advocate appears
For my defence on high;
The Father bows his ears,
And lays his thunder by.
Not all that hell
Or sin can say
Shall turn his heart,
His love away.]
- [10 My dear almighty Lord,
My Conqu'ror, and my King,
Thy sceptre, and thy sword,
Thy reigning grace I sing.
'Thine is the pow'r;
Behold I fit
In willing bonds
Beneath thy feet.]
- [11 Now let my soul arise,
And tread the tempter down;
My Captain leads me forth
To conquest and a crown.

A feeble faint
Shall win the day,
'Tho' death and hell
Obstruct the way.]

- 12 Should all the hosts of death,
And pow'rs of hell unknown,
Put their most dreadful forms
Of rage and mischief on;
I shall be safe,
For Christ displays
Superior power
And guardian grace.

THE END OF THE FIRST BOOK.

H Y M N S

AND

SPIRITUAL SONGS.

COMPOSED ON DIVINE SUBJECTS.

B O O K I I .

I. A song in praise to God from Great-Britain.

1 NATURE with all her pow'rs shall sing
God the Creator and the King ;
Nor air, nor earth, nor skies, nor seas,
Deny the tribute of their praise.

[2 Begin to make his glories known,
Ye seraphs, that sit near his throne ;
Tune your harps high, and spread the sound
To the creation's utmost bound.]

[3 All mortal things of meaner frame,
Exert your force and own his name ;
Whilst with our souls, and with our voice,
We sing his honours and our joys.]

[4 To him be sacred all we have,
From the young cradle and the grave :
Our lips shall his loud wonders tell,
And ev'ry word a miracle.]

[5 This northern isle, our native land,
Lies safe in the Almighty's hand :

- Our foes of victory dream in vain,
And wear the captivating chain.
- 6 He builds and guards the British throne,
And makes it gracious like his own :
Makes our successive princes kind,
And gives our dangers to the wind.]
- 7 Raise monumental praises high
To him that thunders through the sky,
And with an awful nod or frown
Shakes an aspiring tyrant down.
- [8 Pillars of lasting brass proclaim
The triumphs of th' eternal name :
While trembling nations read from far
The honours of the God of war.]
- 9 Thus let our flaming zeal employ
Our loftiest thoughts and loudest songs ;
Britain, pronounce with warmest joy
Hosanna from ten thousand tongues.
- 10 Yet, mighty God, our feeble frame
Attempts in vain to reach thy name ;
The strongest notes that angels raise,
Faint in the worship and the praise.

II. The death of a sinner.

- 1 MY thoughts on awful subjects roll,
Damnation, and the dead ;
What horrors seize the guilty soul
Upon a dying bed.
- 2 Ling'ring about these mortal shores
She makes a long delay,
'Till, like a flood, with rapid force,
Death sweeps the wretch away.

- 3 Then swift and dreadful she descends
Down to the fiery coast,
Amongst abominable fiends,
Herself a frightful ghost.
- 4 There endless crowds of sinners lie,
And darkness makes their chains;
Tortur'd with keen despair they cry,
Yet wait for fiercer pains.
- 5 Not all their anguish and their blood
For their old guilt atones,
Nor the compassion of a God
Shall hearken to their groans.
- 6 Amazing grace, that kept my breath,
Nor bid my soul remove,
'Till I had learn'd my Saviour's death,
And well insur'd his love!

III. The death and burial of a saint.

- 1 WHY do we mourn departing friends?
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends
To call them to his arms.
- 2 Are we not tending upward too
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more slow
To keep us from our love.
- 3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And left a long perfume.
- 4 The graves of all his saints he bless'd,
And soften'd every bed:

Where should the dying members rest,
But with the dying head?

- 5 Thence he arose, ascended high,
And shew'd our feet the way:
Up to the Lord our flesh shall fly,
At the great rising day.
- 6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise;
Awake, ye nations, under ground,
Ye saints ascend the skies.

IV. Salvation in the cross.

- 1 HERE, at thy cross, my dying God,
I lay my soul beneath thy love,
Beneath the droppings of thy blood,
Jesus, nor shall it e'er remove.
- 2 Not all that tyrants think or say,
With rage and light'ning in their eyes,
Nor hell shall fright my heart away,
Should hell with all its legions rise.
- 3 Should worlds conspire to drive me thence,
Moveless and firm this heart should ly;
Resolv'd (for that's my last defence)
If I must perish, there to die.
- 4 But speak, my Lord, and calm my fear;
Am I not safe beneath thy shade?
Thy vengeance will not strike me here,
Nor Satan dares my soul invade.
- 5 Yes, I'm secure beneath thy blood,
And all my foes shall lose their aim:
Hosannah to my dying God,
And my best honours to his name

V. Longing to praise Christ better.

LORD, when my thoughts with wonder roll
O'er the sharp sorrows of my soul,
And read my Maker's broken laws,
Repair'd and honour'd by thy cross.

2 When I behold death, hell, and sin,
Vanquish'd by that dear blood of thine,
And see the Man that groan'd and dy'd
Sit glorious by his Father's side :

3 My passions rise and soar above,
I'm wing'd with faith and fir'd with love ;
Fain would I reach eternal things,
And learn the notes that Gabriel sings.

4 But my heart fails, my tongue complains,
For want of their immortal strains ;
And in such humble notes as these
Must fall below thy victories.

5 Well, the kind minute must appear
When we shall leave these bodies here ;
These clogs of clay, and mount on high,
To join the songs above the sky :

VI. A morning song.

ONCE more, my soul, the rising day
Salutes thy waking eyes ;
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To him that rolls the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats,
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heav'n on which he sits,
To turn the seasons round.

- 3 'Tis he supports my mortal frame,
 My tongue shall speak his praise;
 My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
 And yet his wrath delays.
- [4 On a poor worm thy pow'r might tread,
 And I could ne'er withstand:
 Thy justice might have crush'd me dead,
 But mercy held thine hand.]
- 5 A thousand wretched souls are fled
 Since the last setting sun,
 And yet thou length'nest out my thread,
 And yet my moments run.]
- 6 Dear God, let all my hours be thine,
 Whilst I enjoy the light;
 Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
 And bring a pleasant night.

VII. An evening song.

- [1 DREAD Sov'reign, let my ev'ning song
 Like holy incense rise;
 Assist the off'rings of my tongue
 To reach the lofty skies.]
- 2 Through all the dangers of the day
 Thy hand was still my guard,
 And still to drive my wants away
 Thy mercy stood prepar'd;]
- 3 Perpetual blessings from above
 Incompass me around;
 But O how few returns of love,
 Hath my Creator found!
- 4 What have I done for him that dy'd
 To save my wretched soul?
 How are my follies multiply'd,
 Fast as my minutes roll!

- 5 Lord, with this guilty heart of mine
To thy dear cross I flee,
And to thy grace my soul resign,
To be renew'd by thee.
- 6 Sprinkled afresh with pard'ning blood
I lay me down to rest,
As in th' embraces of my God,
Or on my Saviour's breast.

VIII. An hymn for morning or evening.

HOSANNA, with a cheerful sound,
To God's upholding hand;
Ten thousand snares attend us round,
And yet secure we stand.

2 That was a most amazing power
That rais'd us with a word,
And ev'ry day and ev'ry hour
We lean upon the Lord.

3 The ev'ning rests our weary head,
And angels guard the room;
We wake, and we admire the bed
That was not made our tomb.

4 The rising morning can't assure
That we shall end the day;
For death stands ready at the door
To seize our lives away.

5 Our breath is forfeited by sin
To God's revenging law:
We own thy grace, immortal King,
In ev'ry gasp we draw.

6 God is our sun, whose daily light
Our joy and safety brings;

Our feeble flesh lies safe at night
Beneath his shady wings.

IX. Godly sorrow arising from the sufferings of Christ.

1. A LAS ! and did my Saviour bleed !
And did my Sov'reign die ?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I ?

2 Thy body slain, sweet Jesus, thine,
And bath'd in its own blood,
While all expos'd to wrath divine,
The glorious sufferer stood !

3 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groan'd upon the tree ?
Amazing pity ! Grace unknown !
And love beyond degree !

4 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When God the mighty Maker dy'd
For man the creature's sin.

5 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears,
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my heart to tears.

6 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe :
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

X. Parting with carnal joys.

1. MY soul forsakes all vain delight,
And bids the world farewell,
Base as the dirt beneath my feet,
And mischievous as hell.

- 2 No longer will I ask your love,
Nor seek your friendship more;
The happiness that I approve
Is not within your pow'r.
- 3 There's nothing round this spacious earth
That suits my large desire;
To boundless joy and solid mirth
My nobler thoughts aspire.
- 4 Where pleasure rolls its living flood
From sin and dross refin'd,
Still springing from the throne of God,
And fit to cheer the mind.
- 5 Th' almighty Ruler of the sphere,
The glorious and the great,
Brings his own all-sufficiency there
To make our bliss complete.]
- 6 Had I the pinions of a dove,
I'd climb the heav'nly road;
There sits my Saviour drest in love,
And there my smiling God.

XI. The same.

- 1 I Send the joys of earth away,
Away ye tempters of the mind,
False as the smooth deceitful sea,
And empty as the whistling wind.
- 2 Your streams were floating me along
Down to the gulf of black despair;
And whilst I listen'd to your song,
Your streams had e'en convey'd me there.
- 3 Lord, I adore thy matchless grace,
That warn'd me of that dark abyss,
That drew me from those treach'rous seas,
And bid me seek superior bliss.

- 4 Now to the shining realms above
 I stretch my hands and glance mine eyes :
 O for the pinions of a dove,
 To bear me to the upper skies !
- 5 There from the bosom of my God
 Oceans of endless pleasures roll ;
 There will I fix my last abode,
 And drown the sorrows of my soul.

XII. Christ is the substance of the Levitical priesthood.

- 1 THE true Messiah now appears,
 The types are all withdrawn :
 So fly the shadows and the stars
 Before the rising dawn.
- 2 No smoking sweets, nor bleeding lambs,
 Nor kid, nor bullocks slain ;
 Incense and spice of costly names
 Would all be burnt in vain.
- 3 Aaron must lay his robes away,
 His mitre, and his vest,
 When God himself comes down to be
 The off'ring and the priest.
- 4 He took our mortal flesh, to show,
 The wonders of his love ;
 For us he paid his life below,
 And prays for us above.
- 5 Father, he cries, forgive their sins,
For I myself have dy'd ;
 And then he shows his open'd veins,
 And pleads his wounded side.

XIII. The creation, preservation, dissolution, and restoration of this world.

- 1 SING to the Lord that built the skies,
The Lord that rear'd this stately frame ;
Let half the nations sound his praise,
And lands unknown repeat his name.
- 2 He form'd the seas, and form'd the hills,
Made ev'ry drop and ev'ry dust,
Nature and time with all their wheels,
And push'd them into motion first.
- 3 Now, from his high imperial throne,
He looks far down upon the spheres ;
He bids the shining orbs roll on,
And round he turns the hasty years.
- 4 Thus shall this moving engine last,
Till all his faints are gather'd in :
Then for the trumpet's dreadful blast
To shake it all to dust again!
- 5 Yet, when the sound shall tear the skies,
And lightning tear the globe below,
Saints you may lift your joyful eyes,
There's a new heav'n and earth for you.

XIV. The Lord's day : Or, Delight in ordinances.

- 1 WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise ;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes !
- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his faints to-day ;
Here we may sit, and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.

3 One day amidst the place
Where my dear God hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of pleasurable sin.

4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit, and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

XV. The enjoyment of Christ: Or, Delight in worship.

1 FAR from my thoughts, vain world be gone,
Let my religious hours alone;
Fain would my eyes my Saviour see,
I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire:
Come, my dear Jesus, from above,
And feed my soul with heav'nly love.

3 The trees of life immortal stand
In flour'ishing rows at thy right hand,
And in sweet murmurs by their side,
Rivers of bliss perpetual glide.

4 Haste then, but with a smiling face,
And spread a table of thy grace:
Bring down a taste of truth divine,
And cheer my heart with sacred wine.]

5 Bless'd Jesus, what delicious fare!
How sweet thy entertainments are!
Never did angels taste above
Redeeming grace, and dying love.

6 Hail, great Immanuel, all divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest one,
That eyes have seen or angels known.

XVI. Part the second.

- 7 LORD what a heav'n of saving grace
Shines thro' the beauties of thy face,
And lights our passions to a flame!
Lord, how we love thy charming name!
- 8 When I can say my God is mine,
When I can feel thy glories shine,
I tread the world beneath my feet,
And all the world calls good or great.
- 9 While such a scene of sacred joys
Our raptur'd eyes and souls employs,
Here we could sit, and gaze away
A long, an everlasting day.
- 10 Well, we shall quickly pass the night
To the fair coasts of perfect light:
Then shall our joyful senses rove
O'er the dear object of our love.
- [11 There shall we drink full draughts of bliss,
And pluck new life from heav'nly trees!
Yet now and then, dear Lord, bestow,
A drop of heav'n on worms below.
- 12 Send comforts down from thy right hand,
While we pass thro' this barren land,
And in thy temple let us see
A glimpse of love, a glimpse of thee.]

XVII. God's eternity.

- 1 RISE, rise my soul, and leave the ground,
Stretch all my thoughts abroad,
And rouse up ev'ry tuneful sound,
To praise th' eternal God.

- 2 Long ere the lofty skies were spread,
Jehovah fill'd his throne :
 Or Adam form'd, or angels made,
 The Maker liv'd alone.
- 3 His boundless years can ne'er decrease,
 But still maintain their prime :
Eternity's his dwelling place,
 And ever is his name.
- 4 While like a tide our minutes flow,
 The present and the past,
 He fills his own immortal NOW,
 And sees our ages waste.
- 5 The sea and sky must perish too,
 And vast destruction come,
 The creatures, look, how old they grow,
 And wait their fiery doom !
- 6 Well, let the sea shrink all away,
 And flame melt down the skies,
 My God shall live an endless day,
 When th' old creation dies.

XVIII. The ministry of angels.

- 1 HIGH on a hill of dazzling light,
 The King of glory spreads his seat,
 And troops of angels, stretch'd for flight,
 Stand waiting round his awful feet.
- 2 * Go, saith the Lord, my Gabriel, go,
 Salute the virgin's fruitful womb ;
 † Make haste, ye cherubs, down below,
 Sing and proclaim the Saviour come.
- 3 † Here a bright squadron leaves the skies,
 And thick around Elisha stands ;

* Luke i. 26. † Luke ii. 13. † 2 Kings vi. 17.

Anon a heav'nly soldier flies,
|| And breaks the chains from Peter's hands.

4 Thy winged troops, O God of hosts,
Wait on thy wand'ring church below ;
Here we are failing to thy coasts,
Let angels be our convoy too.

5 § Are they not all thy servants, Lord ?
At thy command they go and come :
With cheerful haste obey thy word,
And guard thy children to their home.

XIX. Our frail bodies, and God our preserver.

1 LET others boast how strong they be,
Nor death, nor danger fear ;
But we'll confess, O Lord, to thee,
What feeble things we are.

2 Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
And flourish bright and gay ;
A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land,
And fades the grass away.

3 Our life contains a thousand springs,
And dies if one be gone :
Strange ! that a harp of thousand strings,
Should keep in tune so long.

4 But 'tis our God supports our frame,
The God that built us first ;
Salvation to th' Almighty name
That rear'd us from the dust.

5 He spoke, and straight our hearts and brains
In all their motions rose.

N

|| Acts xii. 7. § Heb. i. ult.

*Let blood, said he, flow round the veins,
And round the veins it flows.*

- 6 While we have breath, or use our tongues,
Our Maker we'll adore ;
His Spirit moves our heaving lungs,
Or they would breathe no more.]

XX. Backslidings and returns : Or, the inconstancy of our love.

- 1 WHY is my heart so far from thee,
My God, my chief delight ?
Why are my thoughts no more by day,
With thee, no more by night ?

- [2 Why should my foolish passions rove ?
Where can such sweetness be,
As I have tasted in thy love,
As I have found in thee ?

- 3 When my forgetful soul renews
The favour of thy grace,
My heart presumes I cannot lose
The relish all my days.

- 4 But ere one fleeting hour is past,
The flatter'ing world employs
Some sensual bait to seize my taste,
And to pollute my joys.

- [5 Trifles of nature, or of art,
With fair deceitful charms,
Intrude into my thoughtless heart,
And thrust me from thy arms.]

- 6 Then I repent, and vex my soul,
That I should leave thee so ;
Where will those wild affections roll
That let a Saviour go ?

[7 Sin's promis'd joys are turn'd to pain,
And I am drown'd in grief;
But my dear Lord returns again,
He flies to my relief:

8 Seizing my soul with sweet surprise,
He draws with loving bands;
Divine compassion in his eyes,
And pardon in his hands.]

[9 Wretch that I am, to wander thus
In chace of false delight!
Let me be fasten'd to thy cross,
Rather than lose thy fight.]

[10 Make haste my soul to reach the goal,
And bring my heart to rest
On the dear centre of my soul,
My God, my Saviour's breast]

XXI. A song of praise to God the Redeemer.

1 LET the old heathens tune their song
Of great Diana and of Jove;
But the sweet theme that moves my tongue,
Is my Redeemer and his love.

2 Behold, a God descends and dies,
To save my soul from gaping hell;
How black the gulph where Satan lies,
Yawn'd to receive me when I fell!

3 How justice frown'd, and vengeance stood
To drive me down to endless pain!
But the great Son propos'd his blood,
And heav'nly wrath grew mild again.

4 Infinite Lover, gracious Lord,
To thee be endless honours giv'n;

Thy wond'rous name shall be ador'd,
Round the wide earth, and wider heav'n.

XXII. With God is terrible majesty.

- 1 TERRIBLE God, that reign'st on high,
How awful is thy thund'ring hand!
Thy fiery bolts, how fierce they fly!
Nor can all earth or hell withstand.
- 2 This the old rebel angels knew,
And Satan fell beneath thy frown:
Thine arrows struck the traitor through,
And weighty vengeance sunk him down.
- 3 This Sodom felt, and feels it still,
And roars beneath th' eternal load:
*With endless burnings who can dwell,
Or bear the fury of a God?*
- 4 Tremble, ye sinners, and submit,
Throw down your arms before his throne,
Bend your heads low beneath his feet,
Or his strong hand shall crush you down.
- 5 And ye, blest'd saints, that love him too,
With rev'rence bow before his name;
Thus all his heav'nly servants do:
God is a bright and burning flame.

XXIII. The sight of God and Christ in heaven.

- 1 DESCEND from heav'n, immortal Dove,
Stoop down and bear us on thy wings,
And mount and bear us far above
The reach of these inferior things.
- 2 Beyond, beyond this lower sky,
Up where eternal ages roll,

- Where solid pleasures never die,
And fruits immortal feast the soul.
- 3 O for a sight, a pleasing sight
Of our Almighty Father's throne !
There sits our Saviour crown'd with light,
Cloath'd in a body like our own.
- 4 Adoring saints around him stand,
And thrones and pow'rs before him fall ;
The God shines gracious thro' the man,
And sheds sweet glories on them all !
- 5 O what amazing joys they feel,
While to their golden harps they sing,
And sit on ev'ry heav'nly hill,
And spread the triumphs of their King !
- 6 When shall the day, dear Lord, appear,
That I shall mount to dwell above,
And stand and bow amongst 'em there;
And view thy face, and sing, and love ?

XXIV. The evil of sin visible in the fall of angels and men.

- 1 WHEN the great Builder arch'd the skies,
And form'd all nature with a word,
The joyful cherubs tun'd his praise,
And ev'ry bending throne ador'd.
- 2 High in the midst of all the throng
Satan, a tall archangel, sat,
* Amongst the morning stars he sung,
'Till sin destroy'd his heav'nly state.
- [3 'Twas sin that hurl'd him from his throne ;
Gro'ling in fire the rebel lies :
† *How art thou sunk in darkness down,
Son of the morning, from the skies !*

N 3

Job xxxviii. 7. † Isa. xiv. 12.

- 4 And thus our two first parents stood,
 'Till sin defil'd the happy place;
 They lost their garden and their God,
 And ruin'd all their unborn race.
- [5 So sprung the plague from Adam's bow'r,
 And spread destruction all abroad;
 Sin, the curst name! that in one hour,
 Spoil'd six days labour of a God.]
- 6 Tremble, my soul, and mourn for grief,
 That such a foe should seize thy breast;
 Fly to thy Lord for quick relief;
 Oh! may he slay this treach'rous guest.
- 7 Then to thy throne, victorious King,
 Then to thy throne our shouts shall rise,
 Thine everlasting arm we sing,
 For sin, the monster, bleeds and dies.

XXV. Complaining of spiritual sloth.

- 1 MY drowsy pow'rs, why sleep ye so?
 Awake, my sluggish soul!
 Nothing has half thy work to do,
 Yet nothing's half so dull.
- 2 The little ants for one poor grain
 Labour, and tug, and strive;
 Yet we, who have a heav'n t' obtain,
 How negligent we live!
- 3 We, for whose sake all nature stands,
 And stars their courses move;
 We, for whose guard, the angel-bands
 Come flying from above;
- 4 We, for whom God the Son came down,
 And labour'd for our good;

How careless to secure that crown
He purchas'd with his blood !

5 Lord, shall we lie so sluggish still,
And never act our parts !
Come, holy Dove, from th' heav'nly hill,
And sit and warm our hearts.

6 Then shall our active spirits move,
Upward our souls shall rise :
With hands of faith, and wings of love,
We'll fly and take the prize.

XXVI. God invisible.

1 LORD, we are blind, we mortals blind,
We can't behold thy bright abode ;
O 'tis beyond a creature-mind,
To glance a thought half way to God.

2 Infinite leagues beyond the sky
The great Eternal reigns alone,
Where neither wings nor souls can fly,
Nor angels climb the toplest throne.

3 The Lord of glory builds his seat
Of gems insufferably bright,
And lays beneath his sacred feet
Substantial beams of gloomy night.

4 Yet, glorious Lord, thy gracious eyes
Look through and cheer us from above ;
Beyond our praise thy grandeur flies,
Yet we adore, and yet we love.

XXVII. Praise ye him all ye his angels, Psalm cxlviii. 2.

1 GOD ! the eternal awful name,
That the whole heav'nly army fears,
That shakes the wide creation's frame,
And Satan trembles when he hears.

- 2 Like flames of fire his servants are,
And light surrounds his dwelling-place;
But, O ye fiery flames, declare
The brighter glories of his face.
- 3 'Tis not for such poor worms as we
To speak so infinite a thing;
But your immortal eyes survey
The beauties of your sov'reign King.
- 4 Tell how he shews his smiling face,
And cloaths all heav'n in bright array;
Triumph and joy run through the place,
And songs eternal as the day.
- 5 Speak (for you feel his burning love)
What zeal it spreads thro' all your frame;
That sacred fire dwells all above,
For we on earth have lost the name.
- 6 Sing of his pow'r and justice too,
That infinite right-hand of his,
That vanquish'd Satan and his crew,
And thunder-drove them down from bliss.]
- 7 What mighty storms of poison'd darts
Were hurl'd upon the rebels there!
What deadly jav'lins nail'd their hearts
Fast to the racks of wild despair !]
- 8 Shout to your King, you heav'nly host,
You that beheld the sinking foe;
Firmly ye stood, when they were lost;
Praise the rich grace that kept ye so.]
- 9 Proclaim his wonders from the skies,
Let ev'ry distant nation hear;
And while you sound his lofty praise,
Let humble mortals bow and fear.

XXVIII: Death and eternity.

- 1 STOOP down, my thoughts, that use to rise,
Converse a while with death:
Think how a gasping mortal lies,
And pants away his breath.
- 2 His quiv'ring lips hang feebly down,
His pulse's faint and few,
Then, speechless with a doleful groan,
He bids the world adieu.
- 3 But, oh, the soul that never dies!
At once it leaves the clay!
Ye thoughts, pursue it where it flies,
And track its wondrous way.
- 4 Up to the courts where angels dwell,
It mounts triumphant there;
Or devils plunge it down to hell,
In infinite despair.
- 5 And must my body faint and die!
And must this soul remove?
Oh, for some guardian angel nigh,
To bear it safe above!
- 6 Jesus, to thy dear faithful hand
My naked soul I trust;
And my flesh waits for thy command,
To drop into my dust.

XXIX. Redemption by price and power.

- 1 JESUS, with all thy saints above,
My tongue would bear her part,
Would sound aloud thy saving love,
And sing thy bleeding heart.

- 2 Bless'd be the Lamb, my dearest Lord,
Who bought me with his blood,
And quench'd his Father's flaming sword
In his own vital flood.
- 3 The Lamb that freed my captive soul
From Satan's heavy chains,
And sent the lion down to howl
Where hell and horror reigns.
- 4 All glory to the dying Lamb
And never-ceasing praise,
While angels live to know his name,
Or saints to feel his grace.

XXX. Heavenly joy on earth.

- [1 COME, we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.
- 2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banish'd from the place!
Religion never was design'd
To make our pleasures less.]
- 3 Let those refuse to sing
That never knew our God;
But fav'rites of the heav'nly King
May speak their joys abroad.
- [4 The God that rules on high,
And thunders when he please,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And manages the seas.]
- 5 This awful God is ours,
Our Father, and our Love;
He shall send down his heav'nly pow'rs
To carry us above.

- 6 There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in.
- 7 Yes, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing bliss,
Should endless joys create.
- [8 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below,
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.]
- [9 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heav'nly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.
- 10 Then let our songs abound,
And ev'ry tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.]

XXXI. Christ's presence makes death easy.

- 1 WHY should we start and fear to die?
What tim'rous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.
- 2 The pains, the groans, and dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
Still we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.
- 3 Oh! if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless thro' death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she pass'd.

- 4 Jesus can make a dying bed
 Feel soft as downy pillows are,
 While on his breast I lean my head,
 And breathe my life out sweetly there.

XXXII. Frailty and folly.

- 1 HOW short and hasty is our life !
 How vast our souls affairs !
 Yet senseless mortals vainly strive
 To lavish out their years.
- 2 Our days run thoughtlessly along,
 Without a moment's stay :
 Just like a story, or a song,
 We pass our lives away.
- 3 God from on high invites us home,
 But we march heedless on,
 And ever hast'ning to the tomb,
 Stoop downwards as we run.
- 4 How we deserve the deepest hell,
 That slight the joys above !
 What chains of vengeance should we feel
 That break such cords of love !
- 5 Draw us, O God, with sov'reign grace,
 And lift our thoughts on high,
 That we may end this mortal race,
 And see salvation nigh.

XXXIII. The blessed society in heaven.

- 1 RAISE thee, my soul, fly up and run
 Through ev'ry heav'nly street,
 And say, There's nought below the sun
 That's worthy of thy feet.

- [2 Thus will we mount on sacred wings,
And tread the courts above :
Nor earth, nor all her mightiest things,
Shall tempt our meanest love.]
- 3 There on a high majestic throne
Th' almighty Father reigns,
And sheds his glorious goodness down
On all the blissful plains.
- 4 Bright, like a sun, the Saviour sits,
And spreads eternal noon ;
No ev'nings there, nor gloomy nights,
To want the feeble moon.
- 5 Amidst these ever-shining skies
Behold the sacred Dove,
While banish'd sin and sorrow flies
From all th' realms of love.
- 6 The glorious tenants of the place
Stand bending round the throne ;
And saints and seraphs sing and praise
The infinite Three-One.
- [7 But, oh, what beams of heav'nly grace
Transport them all the while !
Ten thousand smiles from Jesus' face,
And love in ev'ry smile !]
- 8 Jesus, and when shalt that dear day,
That joyful hour appear,
When I shall leave this house of clay,
To dwell amongst them there ?

XXXIV. Breathing after the Holy Spirit : Or, Fervency of devotion desired.

1 COME, Holy Spirit, heav'nly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning pow'rs,

O

- Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.
- 2 Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys :
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.
- 3 In vain we tune our formal songs,
In vain we strive to rise ;
Hosannahs languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.
- 4 Dear Lord ! and shall we ever lie
At this poor dying rate ?
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great ?
- 5 Come, holy Spirit, heav'nly Dove,
With all thy quick'ning pow'rs,
Come shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

XXXV. Praise to God for creation and redemption.

- 1 LET them neglect thy glory, Lord,
Who never knew thy grace :
But our loud song shall still record
The wonders of thy praise.
- 2 We raise our shouts, O God, to thee,
And send them to thy throne ;
All glory to th' UNITED THREE,
The undivided ONE.
- 3 'Twas he (and we'll adore his name)
That form'd us by a word ;
'Tis he restores our ruin'd frame :
Salvation to the Lord !

- 4 Hosannah ! let the earth and skies
Repeat the joyful sound ;
Rocks, hills, and vales, reflect the voice
In one eternal round.

XXXVI Christ's intercession.

- 1 WELL, the Redeemer's gone,
T' appear before our God,
To sprinkle o'er the flaming throne
With his atoning blood.
- 2 No fiery vengeance now,
No burning wrath comes down ;
If justice calls for sinners blood,
The Saviour shews his own.
- 3 Before his Father's eye
Our humble suit he moves ;
The Father lays his thunder by,
And looks, and smiles, and loves.
- 4 Now may our joyful tongues
Our Maker's honours sing :
Jesus, the priest, receives our songs,
And bears them to the King.
- 5 We bow before his face,
And sound his glories high,
" Hosannah to the God of grace
" That lays his thunder by.]
- 6 " On earth thy mercy reigns,
" And triumphs all above ;"
But, Lord, how weak our mortal strains
To speak immortal love !
- 7 How jarring and how low
Are all the notes we sing !

Sweet Saviour, tune our songs anew,
And they shall please the King.]

XXXVII. The same.

1 LIFT up your eyes to th' heav'nly seat
Where your Redeemer stays :
Kind intercessor, there he sits,
And loves, and pleads, and prays.

2 'Twas well, my soul, he dy'd for thee,
And shed his vital blood,
Appeas'd stern justice on the tree,
And then arose to God.

3 Petitions now, and praise may rise,
And saints their off'rings bring,
The priest, with his own sacrifice,
Presents them to the King.

[4 Let Papists trust what names they please,
Their saints and angels boast ;
We've no such advocates as these,
Nor pray to th' heav'nly host.]

5 Jesus alone shall bear my cries
Up to his Father's throne :
He (dearest Lord) perfumes my sighs,
And sweetens ev'ry groan.

[6 Ten thousand praises to the King,
Hosanna in the highest ;
Ten thousand thanks our spirits bring
To God and to his Christ.]

XXXVIII. Love to God.

1 HAPPY the heart where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast :
Love is the brightest of the train,
And strengthens all the rest.

- 2 Knowledge, alas ! 'tis all in vain,
And all in vain our fear ;
Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
If love be absent there.
- 3 'Tis love that makes our cheerful feet
In swift obedience move :
The devils know, and tremble too,
But Satan cannot love.
- 4 This is the grace that lives and sings
When faith and hope shall cease ;
'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings
In the sweet realms of bliss.
- 5 Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
The wings of love bear us away
To see our smiling God.

XX XIX. The shortness and misery of life.

- 1 OUR days, alas ! our mortal days
Are short and wretched too ;
Evil and few *, the Patriarch says,
And well the Patriarch knew.
- 2 'Tis but at best a narrow bound
That heav'n allows to men,
And pains and sins run through the round
Of threescore years and ten.
- 3 Well, if ye must be sad and few,
Run on my days, in haste ;
Moments of sin, and months of woe,
Ye cannot fly too fast.
- 4 Let heav'nly love prepare my soul,
And call her to the skies,

O 3

* Gen. xlvii. 9.

Where years of long salvation roll,
And glory never dies.

XL. Our comfort in the covenant made with Christ.

- 1 OUR God, how firm his promise stands,
Ev'n when he hides his face !
He trusts in our Redeemer's hands
His glory and his grace.
- 2 Then why, my soul, these sad complaints,
Since Christ and we are one ?
Thy God is faithful to his saints,
Is faithful to his Son.
- 3 Beneath his smiles my heart has liv'd,
And part of heav'n possess'd ;
I praise his name for grace receiv'd,
And trust him for the rest.

XLI. A sight of God mortifies us to the world.

- [1] UP to the fields where angels lie,
And living waters gently roll ;
Fain would my thoughts leap out and fly,
But sin hangs heavy on my soul.
- 2 Thy wond'rous blood, dear dying Christ,
Can make this world of guilt remove :
And thou canst bear me where thou fly'st,
On thy kind wings, celestial Dove
- 3 O might I once mount up and see
The glories of th' eternal skies,
What little things these worlds would be !
How despicable to my eyes !
- 4 Had I a glance of thee, my God,
Kingdoms and men would vanish soon,

- Vanish, as though I saw them not,
As a dim candle dies at noon.
- 5 Then they might fight, and rage and rave,
I should perceive the noise no more
Than we can hear a shaking leaf
While rattling thunders round us roar.
- 6 Great All in All, eternal King,
Let me but view thy lovely face,
And all my pow'rs shall bow and sing
Thine endless grandeur, and thy grace.

XLII. Delight in God.

- 1 MY God, what endless pleasures dwell
Above at thy right hand !
The courts below how amiable !
Where all thy graces stand !
- 2 The swallow near thy temple lies,
And chirps a cheerful note ;
The lark mounts upward toward thy skies,
And tunes her warbling throat.
- 3 And we, when in thy presence, Lord,
We shout with joyful tongues :
Or, sitting round our Father's board,
We crown the feast with songs.
- 4 While Jesus shines with quick'ning grace,
We sing and mount on high ;
But if a frown becloud his face,
We faint, and tire, and die.
- [5 Just as we see the lonesome dove
Bemoan her widow'd state,
Wand'ring, she flies through all the grove,
And mourns her loving mate.

- 6 Just so our thoughts from thing to thing,
 In restless circles rove;
 Just so we droop, and hang the wing,
 When Jesus hides his love.]

XLIII. Christ's sufferings and glory.

- 1 NOW for a tune of lofty praise
 To great Jehovah's equal Son!
 Awake, my voice, in heav'nly lays,
 Tell the loud wonders he hath done.
- 2 Sing, how he left the worlds of light,
 And the bright robes he wore above;
 How swift and joyful was his flight
 On wings of everlasting love.
- [3 Down to this base, this sinful earth,
 He came to raise our nature high;
 He came to atone almighty wrath;
Jesus the God was born to die.]
- [4 Hell and its lions roar'd around,
 His precious blood the monster spilt;
 While weighty sorrows press'd him down,
 Large as the loads of all our guilt.]
- 5 Deep in the shades of gloomy death
 Th' Almighty Captive pris'ner lay;
 Th' Almighty Captive left the earth,
 And rose to everlasting day.
- 6 Lift up your eyes, ye sons of light,
 Up to his throne of shining grace;
 See what immortal glories fit
 Round the sweet beauties of his face!
- 7 Amongst a thousand harps and songs
Jesus the God exalted reigns,
 His sacred name fills all their tongues,
 And echoes thro' the heav'nly plains.

XLIV. Hell: or, The vengeance of God.

- 1 WITH holy fear, and humble song,
The dreadful God our souls adore;
Rev'rence and awe becomes the tongue
That speaks the terrors of his pow'r.
- 2 Far in the deep where darkness dwell,
The land of horror and despair,
Justice has built a dismal hell,
And laid her stores of veng'ance there.
- [3 Eternal plagues, and heavy chains,
Tormenting racks, and fiery coals,
And darts t' inflict immortal pains,
Dy'd in the blood of damned souls.
- 4 There Satan the first sinner lies,
And roars, and bites his iron bands;
In vain the rebel strives to rise,
Crush'd with the weight of both thy hands.]
- 5 There guilty ghosts of Adam's race
Shriek out, and howl beneath thy rod;
Once they could scorn a Saviour's grace,
But they incens'd a dreadful God.
- 6 Tremble, my soul, and kiss the Son:
Sinner, obey thy Saviour's call;
Else your damnation hastens on,
And hell gapes wide to wait your fall.

XLV. God's condescension to our worship.

- 1 THY favours, Lord, surprise our souls;
Will the Eternal dwell with us?
What canst thou find beneath the poles,
To tempt thy chariot downward thus?

- 2 Still might he fill his starry throne,
And please his ears with Gabriel's songs;
But th' heav'nly Majesty comes down,
And bows to hearken to our tongues.
- 3 Great God! what poor returns we pay
For love so infinite as thine!
Words are but air, and tongues but clay;
But thy compassion's all divine.

XLVI. God's condescension to human affairs.

- 1 UP to the Lord, that reigns on high,
And views the nation from afar,
Let everlasting praises fly,
And tell how large his bounties are.
- [2 He that can shake the worlds he made,
Or with his word or with his rod;
His goodness how amazing great!
And what a condescending God!]
- [3 God that must stoop to view the skies,
And bow to see what angels do,
Down to our earth he casts his eyes,
And bends his footsteps downward too.]
- 4 He over-rules all mortal things,
And manages our mean affairs;
On humble souls the King of kings
Bestows his counsels and his cares.
- 5 Our sorrows and our tears we pour
Into the bosom of our God;
He hears us in the mournful hour,
And help us bear the heavy load.
- 6 In vain might lofty princes try
Such condescension to perform;
For worms were never rais'd so high
Above their meanest fellow-worm.

- 7 Oh! could our thankful hearts devise
A tribute equal to thy grace;
'To the third heav'n our songs should rise,
And teach the golden harps thy praise.

XLVII. Glory and grace in the person of Christ.

- 1 NOW to the Lord a noble song!
Awake, my soul; awake, my tongue;
Hosanna to th' eternal name,
And all his boundless love proclaim.
- 2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,
The brightest image of his grace;
God, in the person of his Son,
Has all his mightiest works outdone.
- 3 The spacious earth, and spreading flood,
Proclaim the wise and pow'rful God,
And thy rich glories from afar
Sparkle in ev'ry rolling star.
- 4 But in his looks a glory stands,
The noblest labour of thine hands:
The pleasing lustre of his eyes
Outshines the wonders of the skies.
- 5 Grace! tis a sweet, a charming theme;
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name!
Ye angels dwell upon the sound;
Ye heav'ns reflect it to the ground.
- 6 Oh, may I live to reach the place
Where he unveils his lovely face!
Where all his beauties you behold,
And sing his name to harps of Gold!

XLVIII. Love to the creatures is dangerous.

1 HOW vain are all things here below !
 How false, and yet how fair !
 Each pleasure hath its poison too ?
 And ev'ry sweet a snare.

2 The brightest things below the sky
 Give but a flatt'ring light ;
 We should suspect some danger nigh,
 Where we possess delight.

3 Our dearest joys, and dearest friends,
 The partners of our blood,
 How they divide our wav'ring minds,
 And leave but half for God !

4 The fondness of a creature's love
 How strong it strikes the sense !
 Thither the warm affections move,
 Nor can we call 'em thence.

5 Dear Saviour, let thy beauties be
 My soul's eternal food ;
 And grace command my heart away
 From all created good.

XLIX. Moses dying in the embraces of God.

1 DEATH cannot make our souls afraid,
 If God be with us there :
 We may walk through the darkest shade,
 And never yield to fear.

2 I could renounce my all below,
 If my Creator bid ;
 And run, if I were call'd to go,
 And die as Moses did.

- 3 Might I but climb to Pisgah's top,
And view the promis'd land,
My flesh itself would long to drop,
And pray for the command.
- 4 Clasp'd in my heav'nly Father's arms,
I would forget my breath,
And lose my life among the charms
Of so divine a death.

L. Comforts under sorrows and pains.

- 1 NOW let the Lord my Saviour smile,
And shew my name upon his heart;
I would forget my pains a-while,
And in the pleasure lose the smart.
- 2 But oh ! it swells my sorrows high,
To see my Jesus frown ;
My spirits sink, my comforts die,
And all the springs of life are down.
- 3 Yet why, my soul, why these complaints ?
Still while he frowns, his bowels move ;
Still on his heart he bears his saints,
And feels their sorrows, and his love.
- 4 My name is printed on his breast,
His book of life contains my name :
I'd rather have it there impress'd,
Than in the bright records of fame.
- 5 When the last fire burns all things here,
These letters shall securely stand,
And in the Lamb's fair book appear,
Writ by th' eternal Father's hand.
- 6 Now shall my minutes smoothly run,
Whilst here I wait my Father's will ;

My rising and my setting sun
Roll gently up and down the hill.

LI. God the Son equal with the Father.

- 1 BRIGHT King of glory ! dreadful God !
Our spirits bow before thy seat ;
To thee we lift an humble thought,
And worship at thine awful feet.
- [2 Thy pow'r hath form'd, thy wisdom sways
All nature with a sov'reign word :
And the bright world of stars obeys
The will of their superior Lord.]
- [3 Mercy and truth unite in one,
And smiling sit at thy right hand :
Eternal justice guards thy throne,
And vengeance waits thy dread command.]
- 4 A thousand seraphs strong and bright
Stand round the glorious Deity ;
But who, amongst the sons of light,
Pretends comparison with thee ?
- 5 Yet there is one of human frame,
Jesus, array'd in flesh and blood,
Thinks it no robbery to claim
A full equality with God.
- 6 Their glory shines with equal beams ;
Their essence is for ever one,
Tho' they are known by diff'rent names,
The Father God, and God the Son.
- 7 Then let the name of Christ our King
With equal honours be ador'd ;
His praise let ev'ry angel sing,
And all the nations own the Lord.

LII. Death dreadful, or delightful.

- 1 DEATH! 'tis a melancholy day
To those that have no God,
When the poor soul is forc'd away
To seek her last abode.
- 2 In vain to heav'n she lifts her eyes,
But guilt, a heavy chain,
Still drags her downward from the skies,
To darkness, fire, and pain.
- 3 Awake and mourn, ye heirs of hell,
Let stubborn sinners fear:
You must be driv'n from earth, and dwell
A long For ever there.
- 4 See how the pit gapes wide for you,
And flashes in your face;
And thou, my soul, look downwards too,
And sing recover'ing grace.
- 5 He is a God of sov'reign love,
That promis'd heav'n to me,
And taught my thoughts to soar above,
Where happy spirits be.
- 6 Prepare me, Lord, for thy right hand,
Then come the joyful day;
Come, death, and some celestial band,
To bear my soul away.

LIII. The pilgrimage of the saints: Or, Earth and heaven.

- 1 LORD! what a wretched land is this,
That yields us no supply,
No chearing fruits, no wholesome trees,
Nor streams of living joy?

- 2 But pricking thorns thro' all the ground,
And mortal poisons grow,
And all the rivers that are found
With dang'rous waters flow.
- 3 Yet the dear path to thine abode
Lies through this horrid land:
Lord! we would keep the heav'nly road,
And run at thy command.
- [4 Our souls shall tread the desert through
With undiverted feet;
And faith and flaming zeal subdue
The terrors that we meet.]
- [5 A thousand savage beasts of prey
Around the forest roam;
But Judab's Lion guards the way,
And guides the strangers home.]
- [6 Long nights and darkness dwelt below
With scarce a twinkling ray;
But the bright world to which we go
Is everlasting day.]
- [7 By glimm'ring hopes, and gloomy fears
We trace the sacred road,
Thro' dismal deeps, and dang'rous snares,
We make our way to God.]
- 8 Our journey is a thorny maze,
But we march upward still;
Forget these troubles of thy ways,
And reach at Zion's hill.
- [9 See the kind angels at the gates,
Inviting us to come!
There Jesus, the forerunner, waits
To welcome trav'lers home!]
- 10 There on a green and flow'ry mount,
Our weary souls shall sit,

And with transporting joys recount
The labours of our feet.

[11 No vain discourse shall fill our tongue,
Nor trifles vex our ear ;
Infinite grace shall fill our song,
And God rejoice to hear.]

12 Eternal glories to the King
That brought us safely through ;
Our tongue shall never cease to sing,
And endless praise renew.

LIV. God's presence is light in darkness.

1 MY God, the spring of all my joys,
The life of my delights,
The glory of my brightest days,
And comfort of my nights !

2 In darkest shades if he appear,
My dawning is begun !
He is my soul's sweet morning star,
And he my rising sun.

3 The op'ning heav'ns around me shine
With beams of sacred bliss,
While Jesus shews his heart is mine,
And whispers, I am his.

4 My soul would leave this heavy clay
At that transporting word,
Run up with joy the shining way,
T' embrace my dearest Lord.

5 Fearless of hell and ghastly death,
I'd break through ev'ry foe ;
The wings of love, and arms of faith,
Should bear me conqu'ror through.

LV. Frail life, and succeeding eternity.

- 1 THEE we adore, eternal name,
 And humbly own to thee,
 How feeble is our mortal frame,
 What dying worms are we !
- [2 Our wasting lives grow shorter still,
 As months and days increase ;
 And ev'ry beating pulse we tell,
 Leaves but the number less.
- 3 The year rolls round, and steals away
 The breath that first it gave ;
 Whate'er we do, where-e'er we be,
 We're trav'ling to the grave.]
- 4 Dangers stand thick thro' all the ground,
 To push us to the tomb,
 And fierce diseases wait around,
 To hurry mortals home.
- 5 Good God ! on what a slender thread
 Hang everlasting things !
 Th' eternal states of all the dead
 Upon life's feeble strings.
- 6 Infinite joy, or endless woe,
 Attends on ev'ry breath ;
 And yet how unconcern'd we go
 Upon the brink of death !
- 7 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense,
 To walk this dang'rous road ;
 And if our souls are hurried hence,
 May they be found with God.

LVI. The misery of being without God in this world or, Vain prosperity.

- 1 NO, I shall envy them no more,
 Who grow profanely great,

- Tho' they increafe their golden ſtore,
And riſe to wond'rous height.
- 2 They taſte of all the joys that grow
Upon this earthly clod :
Well, they may ſearch the creature thro',
For they have ne'er a God.
- 3 Shake off the thoughts of dying too,
And think your life your own ;
But death comes haſt'ning on to you,
'To mow your glory down.
- 4 Yes, you muſt bow your ſtately head,
Away your ſpirit flies,
And no kind angel near your bed,
'To bear it to the ſkies.
- 5 Go now, and boaſt of all your ſtores,
And tell how bright you ſhine ;
Your heaps of glitt'ring duſt are yours,
And my Redeemer's mine.

LVII. The pleaſures of a good conſcience.

- 1 LORD, how ſecure and bleſſ'd are they
Who feel the joys of pardon'd fin !
Should ſtorms of earth ſhake earth and ſea,
Their minds have heav'n and peace within.
- 2 The day glides ſwiftly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love ;
And ſoft and ſilent as the ſhades
Their nightly minutes gently move.
- [3 Quick as their thoughts their joys come on,
But fly not half ſo ſwift away ;
Their ſouls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as ſummer ev'nings be.

- 4 How oft they look to th' heav'nly hills,
Where groves of living pleasure grow,
And longing hopes and cheerful smiles
Sit undisturb'd upon their brow.
- 5 They scorn to seek our golden toys,
But spend the day, and share the night,
In numb'ring o'er the richer joys
That heav'n prepares for their delight.
- 6 While wretched we, like worms and moles,
Ly grov'ling in the dust below ;
Almighty grace renews our souls,
And we'll aspire to glory too.

LVIII. The shortness of life, and the goodness of God.

- 1 TIME! what an empty vapour 'tis !
And days how swift they are !
Swift as an Indian arrow flies,
Or like a shooting star.
- [2 The present moments just appear,
Then slide away in haste,
That we can never say They're here :
But only say, They're past.]
- [3 Our life is ever on the wing,
And death is ever nigh ;
The moment when our lives begin,
We all begin to die.]
- 4 Yet, mighty God ! our fleeting days
Thy lasting favours share,
Yet with the bounties of thy grace
Thou load'st the rolling year.
- 5 'Tis sov'reign mercy finds us food,
And we are cloath'd with love ;
While grace stands pointing out the road,
That leads our souls above.

- 6 His goodness runs an endless round :
 All glory to the Lord !
 His mercy never knows a bound ;
 And be his name ador'd !
- 7 Thus we begin our lasting song :
 And when we close our eyes,
 Let the next age thy praise prolong
 'Till time and nature dies.

LIX. Paradise on earth.

- 1 GLORY to God that walks the sky,
 And sends his blessings thro' ;
 That tells his saints of joys on high,
 And gives a taste below.
- 2 Glory to God that stoops his throne,
 That dust and worms may see't,
 And brings a glimpse of glory down
 Around his sacred feet.
- 3 When Christ, with all his graces crown'd,
 Sheds his kind beams abroad,
 'Tis a young heav'n in earthly ground,
 And glory in the bud.
- 4 A blooming paradise of joy
 In this wild desert springs,
 And ev'ry sense I straight employ
 On sweet celestial things.
- 5 White lilies all around appear,
 And each his glory shows ;
 The rose of Sharon blossoms here,
 The fairest flow'r that blows.
- 6 Cheerful I feast on heav'nly fruit,
 And drink the pleasures down,
 Pleasures that flow hard by the foot
 Of the eternal throne.]

- 7 But ah ! how soon my joys decay,
How soon my sins arise,
And snatch'd the heav'nly scene away,
From these lamenting eyes !
- 8 When shall the time, dear Jefus, when
The shining day appear,
That I shall leave those clouds of sin,
And guilt and darkness here ?
- 9 Up to the fields above the skies
My hasty feet would go,
There everlasting flow'rs arise,
And joys unwith'ring grow.

LX. The truth of God the promiser : or, The promises are our security.

- 1 PRAISE, everlasting praise, be paid
To him that earth's foundation laid ;
Praise to the God whose strong decrees
Sway the creation as he please.
- 2 Praise to the goodness of the Lord,
Who rules his people by his word,
And there, as strong as his decrees,
He sets his kindest promises.
- (3 Firm are the words his prophets give,
Sweet words, on which his children live ;
Each of them is the voice of God,
Who spoke, and spread the skies abroad.
- 4 Each of them pow'ful as that sound
That bid the new-made world go round ;
And stronger than the solid poles
On which the wheel of nature rolls.)
- 5 Whence then should doubts and fears arise ?
Why trickling sorrows drown our eyes ?

Slowly, alas, our mind receives
The comforts that our Maker gives.

- 6 Oh, for a strong, a lasting faith !
To credit, what th' Almighty faith !
T' embrace the message of his Son,
And call the joys of heav'n our own.
- 7 Then should the earth's old pillars shake,
And all the wheels of nature break ;
Our steady souls should fear no more
Than solid rocks when billows roar.
- 8 Our everlasting hopes arise
Above the ruinable skies,
Where the eternal builder reigns,
And his own courts his pow'r sustains.

LXI. A thought of death and glory.

- 1 MY soul, come, meditate the day,
And think how near it stands,
When thou must quit this house of clay,
And fly to unknown lands.
- [2 And you, mine eyes, look down and view
The hollow gaping tomb ;
This gloomy prison waits for you,
Whene'er the summons come.]
- 3 Oh ! could we die with those that die,
And place us in their stead ;
Then would our spirits learn to fly,
And converse with the dead :
- 4 Then should we see the saints above
In their own glorious forms,
And wonder why our souls should love
To dwell with mortal worms :
- [5 How we should scorn these cloaths of flesh,
These fetters, and this load ;

And long for evening to undress,
That we may rest with God !]

- 6 We should almost forsake our clay
Before the summons come,
And pray and wish our souls away
To their eternal home.

LXII. *God the Thunderer : Or, The last judgment and hell **

1 SING to the Lord, ye heav'nly hosts,
And thou, O earth, adore :
Let death and hell thro' all their coasts
Stand trembling at his pow'r.

2 His sounding chariot shakes the sky,
He makes the clouds his throne ;
There all his stores of lightning ly,
'Till veng'ance darts them down.

3 His nostrils breathe out fiery streams,
And from his awful tongue
A sov'reign voice divides the flames,
And thunders roar along.

4 Think, O my soul, the dreadful day
When this incensed God
Shall rend the sky, and burn the sea,
And fling his wrath abroad !

5 What shall the wretch, the sinner do ?
He once defy'd the Lord :
But he shall dread the Thund'rer now,
And sink beneath his word.

6 Tempests of angry fire shall roll,
To blast the rebel worm,

* Made in a great sudden storm of thunder, August the 20th, 1697.

And beat upon his naked soul
In one eternal storm.

LXIII. A funeral thought.

- 1 HARK! from the tombs a doleful sound,
My ears attend the cry,
"Ye living men, come view the ground
"Where you must shortly ly.
- 2 "Princes, this clay must be your bed,
"In spite of all your tow'rs;
"The tall, the wise, the rev'rend head,
"Must ly as low as ours."
- 3 Great God! is this our certain doom?
And are we still secure!
Still walking downward to our tomb,
And yet prepare no more!
- 4 Grant us the pow'rs of quick'ning grace,
To fit our souls to fly;
Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
We'll rise above the sky.

LXIV. God the glory and the defence of Zion.

- 1 HAPPY the church, thou sacred place,
The seat of thy Creator's grace,
Thine holy courts are his abode;
Thou earthly palace of our God.
- 2 Thy walls are strength, and at thy gates
A guard of heav'nly warriors waits;
Nor shall thy deep foundations move,
Fix'd on his counsels and his love.
- 3 Thy foes in vain designs engage,
Against his throne in vain they rage;

Like rising waves with angry roar,
That dash and die upon the shore.

- 4 Then let our souls in Zion dwell,
Nor fear the wrath of Rome and hell :
His arms embrace this happy ground.
Like brazen bulwarks built around.

- 5 God is our shield, and God our sun ;
Swift as the fleeting moments run,
On us he sheds new beams of grace,
And we reflect his brightest praise.

LXV. The hopes of heav'n our support under trials on earth.

- 1 WHEN I can read my title clear
To mansions in the skies,
I bid farewell to ev'ry fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

- 2 Should earth against my soul engage,
And hellish darts be hurl'd,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.

- 3 Let cares like a wild deluge come,
And storms of sorrow fall ;
May I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heav'n, my all :

- 4 There shall I bathe my weary soul
In seas of heav'nly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

LXVI. A prospect of heaven makes death easy.

- 1 THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where saints immortal reign ;

- Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleasures banish pain.
- 2 There everlasting spring abides,
And never-with'ring flow'rs :
Death, like a narrow sea, divides
This heav'nly land from ours.
- [3 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
Stand dress'd in living green :
So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
While Jordan roll'd between.
- 4 But tim'rous mortals start and shrink,
To cross this narrow sea,
And linger, thiv'ring on the brink,
And fear to launch away.]
- 5 Oh ! could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unclouded eyes !
- 6 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,
Nor Jordan's streams, nor death's cold flood,
Should fright us from the shore.

LXVII. God's eternal dominion.

- 1 GREAT God ! how infinite art thou !
What worthless worms are we !
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.
- 2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
Ere seas or stars were made ;
Thou art the ever-living God,
Were all the nations dead.

- 3 Nature and time quite naked lay
 To thine immense survey,
 From the formation of the sky
 To the great burning-day.
- 4 Eternity, with all its years,
 Stands present in thy view ;
 To thee there's nothing old appears ;
 Great God ! there's nothing new.
- 5 Our lives thro' various scenes are drawn,
 And vex'd with trifling cares,
 While thine eternal thoughts move on
 Thine undisturb'd affairs.
- 6 Great God ! how infinite art thou !
 What worthless worms are we !
 Let the whole race of creatures bow,
 And pay their praise to thee.

LXVIII. The humble worship of heav'n.

- 1 FATHER, I long, I faint to see
 The place of thine abode ;
 I'd leave thy earthly courts and flee
 Up to thy seat, my God !
- 2 Here I behold thy distant face,
 And 'tis a pleasant sight ;
 But to abide in thine embrace,
 Is infinite delight.
- 3 I'd part with all the joys of sense,
 To gaze upon thy throne.
 Pleasure springs fresh for ever thence,
 Unspeakable, unknown.
- [4 There all the heav'nly hosts are seen,
 In shining ranks they move,
 And drink immortal vigour in
 With wonder, and with love.

- 5 Then at thy feet, with awful fear,
 Th' adoring armies fall :
 With joy they shrink to NOTHING there,
 Before th' eternal ALL.
- 6 There I would vie with all the host,
 In duty and in bliss ;
 While LESS THAN NOTHING I could boast,
 * And vanity confess.]
- 8 The more thy glories strike mine eyes,
 The humbler I shall ly ;
 Thus, while I sink, my joy shall rise
 Unmeasurably high.

LXIX. The faithfulness of God in the promises.

- 1 BEGIN, my tongue, some heav'nly theme
 And speak some boundless thing,
 The mighty works, or mightier name,
 Of our eternal King.
- 2 Tell of his wond'rous faithfulness,
 And sound his pow'r abroad,
 Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
 And the performing God.
- 3 Proclaim salvation from the Lord
For wretched dying men :
 His hand has writ the sacred word
 With an immortal pen.
- 4 Engrav'd as in eternal brass
 The mighty promise shines ;
 Nor can the pow'rs of darkness raze
 Those everlasting lines.]

Q₃

* Isa. xl. 17.

[5 He that can dash whole worlds to death,
And make them when he please,
He speaks, and that almighty breath
Fulfil his great decrees.

6 His very word of grace is strong
As that which built the skies ;
The voice that rolls the stars along
Speaks all the promises.

7 He said, Let the wide heav'n be spread,
And heav'n was stretch'd abroad ;
Abrah'm, I'll be thy God, he said,
And he was Abrah'm's God.

Oh, might I hear thine heav'nly tongue
But whisper, Thou art mine !
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

9 How would my leaping heart rejoice,
And think my heav'n secure !
I trust the All-creating voice,
And faith desires no more.]

LXX. God's dominion over the sea, Psal. cvii. 23.

1 GOD of the seas, thy thund'ring voice
Makes all the roaring waves rejoice !
And one soft word of thy command
Can sink them silent in the sand.

2 If but a Moses wave thy rod,
The sea divides and owns its God ;
The stormy floods their Maker knew,
And let his chosen armies through.

3 The scaly flocks amidst the sea
To thee, their Lord, a tribute pay ;
The meanest fish that swims the flood
Leaps up, and means a praise to God.

- [4 The larger monsters of the deep
On thy commands attendance keep;
By thy permission sport and play,
And cleave along their foaming way.
- 5 If God his voice of tempest rears,
Leviathan lies still, and fears:
Anon he lifts his nostrils high,
And spouts the ocean to the sky.]
- 6 How is thy glorious pow'r ador'd
Amidst these wat'ry nations, Lord!
Yet the bold men that trace the seas,
Bold men, refuse their Maker's praise.
- [7 What scenes of miracles they see,
And never tune a song to thee!
While on the flood they safely ride,
They curse the hand that smooths the tide.
- 8 Anon they plunge in wat'ry graves,
And some drink death among the waves,
Yet the surviving crew blaspheme,
Nor own the God that rescu'd them.
- 9 Oh, for some signal of thine hand!
Shake all the seas, Lord, shake the land:
Great Judge descend, least men deny
That there's a God that rules the sky.

LXXI. Praise to God from all creatures.

- 1 THE glories of my Maker, God,
My joyful voice shall sing,
And call the nations to adore
Their Former and their King.
- 2 'Twas his right-hand that shap'd our clay,
And wrought this human frame;

From the 70th to the 108th hymn, I hope the reader will forgive the neglect of rhyme in the first and third lines of the stanza.

- But from his own immediate breath
Our nobler spirits came.
- 3 We bring our mortal pow'rs to God,
And worship with our tongues ;
We claim some kindred with the skies,
And join th' angelic songs.
- 4 Let grov'ling beasts of ev'ry shape,
And fowls of ev'ry wing,
And rocks, and trees, and fires, and seas,
Their various tribute bring.
- 5 Ye planets, to his honour shine,
And wheels of nature roll,
Praise him in your unweary'd course
Around the steady pole.
- 6 The brightness of our Maker's name
The wide creation fills,
And his unbounded grandeur flies
Beyond the heav'nly hills.

LXXII. The Lord's day : Or, the resurrection of Christ.

- 1 BLESS'D morning, whose young dawning rays
Beheld our rising God ;
That saw him triumph o'er the dust,
And leave his dark abode.
- 2 In the cold prison of a tomb
The dead Redeemer lay,
Till the revolving skies had brought
The third, th' appointed day.
- 3 Hell and the grave unite their force
To hold our God in vain ;
The sleeping Conqueror arose,
And burst their feeble chain.

4 To thy great name, almighty Lord,
 These sacred hours we pay,
 And loud Hosannas shall proclaim
 The triumph of the day.

[5 Salvation and immortal praise
 To our victorious King ;
 Let heav'n, and earth, and rocks, and seas,
 With glad Hosannas ring.]

LXXIII. Doubts scattered : Or, Spiritual joys restored.

1 HENCE from my soul, sad thoughts, be gone,
 And leave me to my joys ;
 My tongue shall triumph in my God,
 And make a joyful noise.

2 Darkness and doubts had veil'd my mind,
 And drown'd my head in tears,
 'Till sov'reign grace, with shining rays,
 Dispell'd my gloomy fears.

3 Oh, what immortal joys I felt,
 And raptures all divine,
 When Jesus told me, I was his,
 And my beloved mine !

4 In vain the tempter frights my soul,
 And breaks my peace in vain ;
 One glimpse, dear Saviour, of thy face,
 Revives my joys again.

LXXIV. *Repentance from a sense of divine goodness : Or,
 A complaint of ingratitude.*

1 IS this the kind return,
 And these the thanks we owe,
 Thus to abuse eternal love,
 Whence all our blessings flow ?

2 To what a stubborn frame
Has sin reduc'd our mind !
What strange rebellious wretches we,
And God as strangely kind !

[3 On us he bids the sun
Shed his reviving rays ;
For us the skies the circles run,
To lengthen out our days.

4 The brutes obey their God,
And bow their necks to men ;
But we, more base, more brutish things,
Reject his easy reign.]

5 Turn, turn us, mighty God,
And mould our souls afresh ;
Break, sov'reign grace, these hearts of stone,
And give us hearts of flesh.

6 Let old ingratitude
Provoke our weeping eyes,
And hourly, as new mercies fall,
Let hourly thanks arise.

LXXV. Spiritual and eternal joy : Or, The beatific vision of Christ.

1 FROM thee, my God, my joys shall rise,
And run eternal rounds,
Beyond the limits of the skies,
And all created bounds.

2 The holy triumphs of my soul
Shall death itself out-brave,
Leave dull mortality behind,
And fly beyond the grave.

3 There where my blessed Jesus reigns
In heav'n's unmeasur'd space,

- I'll spend a long eternity
In pleasure and in praise.
- 4 Millions of years my wond'ring eyes
Shall o'er thy beauties rove,
And endless ages, I'll adore
The glories of thy love.
- [5 Sweet Jesus, every smile of thine
Shall fresh endearments bring,
And thousand tastes of new delight
From all thy graces spring.
- 6 Haste, my beloved, fetch my soul
Up to thy blest'd abode ;
Fly, for my spirit longs to see
My Saviour and my God.]

LXXVI. The resurrection and ascension of Christ.

- 1 HOSANNA to the Prince of light,
That cloath'd himself in clay ;
Enter'd the iron gates of death,
And tore the bars away.
- 2 Death is no more the king of dread
Since our Immanuel rose ;
He took the tyrant's sling away,
And spoil'd our hellish foes.
- 3 See how the Conqu'ror mounts aloft,
And to his Father flies,
With scars of honour in his flesh,
And triumph in his eyes.
- 4 There our exalted Saviour reigns,
And scatters blessings down ;
Our Jesus fills the middle seat
Of the celestial throne.

- [5 Raise your devotion, mortal tongues,
To reach his blest'd abode ;
Sweet be the accents of your songs
To our incarnate God.
- 6 Bright angels, strike your loudest strings,
Your sweetest voices raise ;
Let heav'n, and all created things,
Sound our Immanuel's praise.]

LXXVII. The Christian warfare.

- 1 STAND up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
And gird the gospel armour on ;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where thy great Captain Saviour's gone.
- 2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course,
But hell and sin are vanquish'd foes ;
Thy Jesus nail'd them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose.
- [3 What though the prince of darkness rage,
And waste the fury of his spite ?
Eternal chains confine him down
'To fiery deeps, and endless night.
- 4 What tho' thine inward lusts rebel ?
'Tis but a struggling gasp for life ;
The weapons of victorious grace
Shall slay thy sins and end the strife.]
- 5 Then let my soul march boldly on,
Press forward to the heav'nly gate,
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glitt'ring robes for conquerors wait.
- 6 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace,

While all the armies of the skies,
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

LXXVIII. Redemption by Christ.

1 WHEN the first parents of our race
Rebell'd, and lost their God,
And the infection of their sin
Had tainted all our blood :

2 Infinite pity touch'd the heart
Of the eternal Son,
Descending from the heav'nly court,
He left his Father's throne.

3 Aside the Prince of glory threw
His most divine array,
And wrapp'd his Godhead in a veil
Of our inferior clay.

4 His living pow'r, and dying love,
Redeem'd unhappy men,
And rais'd the ruins of our race
To life and God again.

5 To thee, dear Lord, our flesh and soul
We joyfully resign ;
Bless'd Jesus, take us for thy own,
For we are doubly thine.

6 Thine honour shall for ever be
The business of our days,
For ever shall our thankful tongues
Speak thy deserved praise.

LXXIX. Praise to the Redeemer.

1 PLUNG'D in a gulf of dark despair
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimm'ring day.

R

- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and (O amazing love!)
He ran to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining seats above
With joyful haste he fled,
Enter'd the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 He spoil'd the pow'rs of darkness thus,
And brake our iron chains;
Jesus has freed our captive souls
From everlasting pains.
- [5 In vain the baffled prince of hell
His cursed projects tries;
We that were doom'd his endless slaves,
Are rais'd above the skies.]
- 6 Oh! for this love, let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break,
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.
- [7 Yes, we will praise thee, dearest Lord,
Our souls are all on flame:
Hosanna round the spacious earth
To thine adored name.
- 8 Angels, assist our mighty joys,
Strike all your harps of gold;
But when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.]

LXXX. God's awful power and goodness.

1 OH! the almighty Lord!
How matchless is his pow'r!
Tremble, O earth, beneath his word,
While all the heav'ns adore.

- 2 Let proud imperious kings
Bow low before his throne !
Crouch to his feet, ye haughty things,
Or he shall tread you down.
- 3 Above the skies he reigns,
And with amazing blows
He deals insufferable pains
On his rebellious foes.
- 4 Yet, everlasting God,
We love to speak thy praise ;
Thy sceptre's equal to thy rod,
The sceptre of thy grace.
- 5 The arms of mighty love,
Defend our Sion well,
And heav'nly mercy walls us round
From Babylon and hell.
- 6 Salvation to the King
That sits enthron'd above :
Thus we adore the God of might,
And bless the God of love.

LXXXI. Our sin the cause of Christ's death.

- 1 AND now the scales have left mine eyes,
Now I begin to see :
Oh, the curs'd deeds my sins have done !
What murd'rous things they be !
- 2 Were these the traitors, dearest Lord,
That thy fair body tore ?
Monsters, that stain'd those heav'nly limbs
With floods of purple gore ?
- 3 Was it for crimes that I had done,
My dearest Lord was slain,

When justice seiz'd God's only Son,
And put his soul to pain ?

- 4 Forgive, my guilt, O Prince of peace,
I'll wound my God no more :
Hence from my heart, ye sins, be gone,
For Jefus I adore.

- 5 Furnish me, Lord, with heav'nly arms
From grace's magazine,
And I'll proclaim eternal war
With ev'ry darling sin.

LXXXII. Redemption and protection from spiritual enemies.

- 1 ARISE, my soul, my joyful pow'rs,
And triumph in my God :
Awake, my voice, and loud proclaim
His glorious grace abroad.

- 2 He rais'd me from the deeps of sin,
The gates of gaping hell,
And fix'd my standing more secure
Than 'twas before I fell.

- 3 The arms of everlasting love
Beneath my soul he plac'd,
And on the Rock of Ages set
My slipp'ry footsteps fast.

- 4 The city of my blest'd abode
Is wall'd around with grace ;
Salvation for a bulwark stands
To shield the sacred place.

- 5 Satan may vent his sharpest spite,
And all his legions roar ;
Almighty mercy guards my life,
And bounds his raging pow'r.

- 6 Arise, my soul, awake, my voice,
And tunes of pleasure sing;
Loud Hallelujahs shall address
My Saviour and my King.

LXXXIII. The passion and exaltation of Christ.

- 1 THUS faith the ruler of the skies,
Awake, my dreadful sword;
Awake, my wrath, and finite the Man,
My fellow, faith the Lord.
- 2 Vengeance receiv'd the dread command,
And, armed, down she flies;
Jesus submits t' his Father's hand,
And bows his head, and dies.
- 3 But, oh! the wisdom and the grace
That join with vengeance now!
He dies to save our guilty race,
And yet he rises too.
- 4 A person so divine was he
Who yielded to be slain,
That he could give his soul away,
And take his life again.
- 5 Live, glorious Lord; and reign on high,
Let ev'ry nation sing,
And angels sound, with endless joy,
The Saviour and the King.

LXXXIV. The same.

- 1 COME, all harmonious tongues,
Your noblest music bring;
'Tis Christ the everlasting God,
And Christ the Man, we sing.

2 Tell how he took our flesh,
To take away our guilt;
Sing the dear drops of sacred blood,
That hellish monsters spilt.

[3 Alas! the cruel spear
Went deep into his side,
And the rich flood of purple gore
Their murd'rous weapons dy'd.

[4 The waves of swelling grief
Did o'er his bosom roll,
And mountains of almighty wrath
Lay heavy on his soul.]

5 Down to the shades of death
He bow'd his awful head;
Yet he arose to live and reign
When death itself is dead.

6 No more the bloody spear,
The cross and nails no more;
For hell itself shakes at his name,
And all the heav'ns adore.

7 There the Redeemer sits,
High on the Father's throne;
The Father lays his vengeance by,
And smiles upon his Son.

8 There his full glories shine
With uncreated rays,
And bless his saints and angels eyes
To everlasting days.

LXXXV. Sufficiency of pardon.

1 WHY does your face, ye humble souls,
Those mournful colours wear?
What doubts are these that waste your faith,
And nourish your despair?

- 2 What though your num'rous sins exceed
The stars that fill the skies,
And, aiming at th' eternal throne,
Like pointed mountains rise.
- 3 What tho' your mighty guilt beyond
The wide creation swell,
And has its curs'd foundations laid
Low as the depths of hell?
- 4 See here an endless ocean flows
Of never-failing grace;
Behold a dying Saviour's veins
The sacred flood increase:
- 5 It rises high, and drowns the hills,
'T has neither shore nor bound:
Now, if we search to find our sins,
Our sins can ne'er be found.
- 6 Awake, our hearts, adore the grace
That buries all our faults,
And pard'ning blood, that swells above
Our follies, and our thoughts.

LXXXVI. Freedom from sin and misery in heaven.

- O UR sins, alas! how strong they be!
And, like a violent sea,
They break our duty, Lord, to thee.
And hurry us away.
- 2 The waves of trouble, how they rise!
How loud the tempests roar!
But death shall land our weary souls
Safe on the heav'nly shore.
- 3 There, to fulfil his sweet commands,
Our speedy feet shall move;
No sin shall clog our winged zeal,
Or cool our burning love.

- 4 There shall we fit and sing, and tell
The wonders of his grace,
'Till heav'nly raptures fire our hearts,
And smile in ev'ry face.
- 5 For ever his dear sacred name
Shall dwell upon our tongue,
And Jesus, and salvation be
The close of ev'ry song.

LXXXVII. The divine glories above our reason.

- 1 HOW wond'rous great, how glorious bright,
Must our Creator be,
Who dwells amidst the dazzling light,
Of vast infinity!
- 2 Our soaring spirits upward rise
Tow'rd thy celestial throne;
Fain would we see the blessed Three,
And the almighty One.
- 3 Our reason stretches all its wings,
And climbs above the skies;
But still how far beneath thy feet
Our grov'ling reason lies!
- [4 Lord, here we bend our humble souls,
And awfully adore:
For the weak pinions of our mind
Can stretch a thought no more.]
- 5 Thy glories infinitely rise
Above our lab'ring tongue;
In vain the highest seraph tries
To form an equal song.
- [6 In humble notes our faith adores
The great mysterious King,
While angels strain their nobler powers,
And sweep th' immortal string.]

LXXXVIII. Salvation.

- 1 Salvation ! Oh, the joyful sound ;
'Tis pleasure to our ears ;
A sov'reign balm for ev'ry wound,
And cordial for our fears.
- 2 Bury'd in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay ;
But we arise, by grace divine,
To see a heav'nly day.
- 3 Salvation ! let the echo fly
The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

LXXXIX. Christ's victory over Satan.

- 1 Hosanna to our conqu'ring King !
The prince of darkness flies,
His troops rush headlong down to hell,
Like lightning, from the skies.
- 2 There, bound in chains, the lions roar,
And fright the rescu'd sheep ;
But heavy bars confine their pow'r
And malice to the deep.
- 3 Hosanna to our conqu'ring King,
All hail, incarnate love !
Ten thousand songs and glories wait
To crown thy head above,
- 4 Thy vict'ries and thy deathless fame
Through the wide world shall run,
And everlasting ages sing
The triumphs thou hast won.

XC. Faith in Christ for pardon and sanctification.

- 1 HOW sad our state by nature is !
 Our sin how deep it stains !
 And Satan binds our captive minds
 Fast in his slavish chains.
- 2 But there's a voice of sov'reign grace
 Sounds from the sacred word ;
*Ho ! ye despairing sinners, come,
 And trust upon the Lord.*
- 3 My soul obeys th' almighty call,
 And runs to this relief ;
 I would believe thy promise, Lord ;
 Oh ! help my unbelief.
- [4 To the dear fountain of thy blood,
 Incarnate God, I fly ;
 Here let me wash my spotted soul
 From crimes of deepest dye.
- 5 Stretch out thine arm, victorious King,
 My reigning sins subdue ;
 Drive the old Dragon from his seat,
 With all his hellish crew.]
- 6 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
 On thy kind arms I fall :
 Be thou my strength and righteousness,
 My Jesus, and my All.

XCI. The glory of Christ in heaven.

- 1 OH, the delights, the heav'nly joys,
 The glories of the place,
 Where Jesus sheds the brightest beams
 Of his o'erflowing grace !

- 2 Sweet majesty, and awful love,
Sit smiling on his brow,
And all the glorious ranks above
At humble distance bow.
- [3 Princes to his imperial name
Bend their bright sceptres down;
Dominions, thrones, and pow'rs rejoice,
To see him wear the crown.
- 4 Archangels sound his lofty praise
Thro' ev'ry heav'nly street,
And lay their highest honours down
Submissive at his feet.
- 5 Those soft, those blessed feet of his,
That once rude iron tore,
High on a throne of light they stand,
And all the saints adore.
- 6 His head, the dear majestic head,
That cruel thorns did wound,
See what immortal glories shine,
And circle it around !]
- 7 This is the man, th' exalted man,
Whom we, unseen, adore ;
But when our eyes behold his face,
Our hearts shall love him more.
- [8 Lord, how our souls are all on fire
To see thy blest'd abode ;
Our tongues rejoice in tunes of praise
To our incarnate God !
- 9 And while our faith enjoys this sight
We long to leave our clay ;
And wish thy fiery chariots, Lord,
To fetch our souls away.]

XCII. The church saved, and her enemies disappointed.Composed the 5th of November, 1694.

1 SHOUT to the Lord, and let our joys
Through the whole nation run;
Ye British ikies, resound the noise
Beyond the rising sun.

2 Thee, mighty God, our souls admire,
Thee our glad voices sing,
And join with the celestial choir,
To praise th' eternal King.

3 Thy pow'r the whole creation rules,
And on the starry ikies,
Sits smiling at the weak designs
Thine envious foes devise.

4 Thy scorn derides their feeble rage,
And, with an awful frown,
Flings vast confusion on their plots,
And shakes their Babel down.

[5 Their secret fires in caverns lay,
And we the sacrifice:
But gloomy caverns strove in vain
To 'scape all-searching eyes.

6 Their dark designs were all reveal'd,
Their treasons all betray'd:
Praise to the Lord, that broke the snare
Their curst hands had laid.]

7 In vain the busy sons of hell
Still new rebellions try,
Their souls shall pine with envious rage,
And vex away, and die.

8 Almighty grace defends our land
From their malicious pow'r:

Let Britain, with united songs,
Almighty grace adore.

XCIII. God all, and in all, Psal. lxxiii. 25.

1 MY God, my life, my love,
To thee, to thee I call;
I cannot live, if thou remove,
For thou art all in all.

[2 Thy shining grace can cheer
This dungeon where I dwell:
'Tis paradise when thou art here;
If thou depart, 'tis hell.

3 The smilings of thy face,
How amiable they are!
'Tis heav'n to rest in thine embrace,
And no where else but there.]

4 To thee, and thee alone,
The angels owe their bliss;
They sit around thy gracious throne,
And dwell where Jesus is.

5 Not all the harps above
Can make a heav'nly place,
If God his residence remove,
Or but conceal his face.]

6 Nor earth, nor all the sky,
Can one delight afford;
No, not one drop of real joy,
Without thy presence, Lord.

7 Thou art the sea of love,
Where all my pleasures roll;
The circle where my passions move,
And centre of my soul.

[8 To thee my spirits fly
With infinite desire:

And yet, how far from thee I ly
Dear Jesus, raise me higher.]

XCIV. God my only happiness, Psal. lxxiii. 25.

1 MY God, my portion, and my love,
My everlasting All,
I've none but thee in heav'n above,
Or on this earthly ball.

[2 What empty things are all the skies,
And this inferior clod!
There's nothing here deserves my joys,
There's nothing like my God.]

[3 In vain the bright, the burning sun
Scatters his feeble light:
'Tis thy sweet beams create my noon;
If thou withdraw, 'tis night.

4 And whilst upon my restless bed
Among the shades I roll,
If my Redeemer shews his head,
'Tis morning with my soul.]

5 To thee we owe our wealth and friends,
And health, and safe abode:
Thanks to thy name for meaner things,
But they are not my God.

6 How vain a toy is glitt'ring wealth,
If once compar'd to thee!
Or what's my safety, or my health,
Or all my friends to me?

7 Were I possessor of the earth,
And call'd the stars my own;
Without thy graces, and thy self,
I were a wretch undone.

8 Let others stretch their arms like seas,
And grasp in all the shore,

Grant me the visits of thy face,
And I desire no more.

XCV. Look on him whom they pierced and mourn.

- 1 INFINITE grief! amazing woe!
Behold my bleeding Lord:
Hell and the Jews conspir'd his death,
And us'd the Roman sword.
- 2 Oh, the sharp pangs of smarting pain
My dear Redeemer bore,
When knotty whips, and ragged thorns,
His sacred body tore.
- 3 But knotty whips, and ragged thorns,
In vain do I accuse;
In vain I blame the Roman bands,
And the more spiteful Jews.
- 4 'Twere you, my sins, my cruel sins,
His chief tormentors were;
Each of my crimes became a nail,
And unbelief the spear.
- 5 'Twere you that pull'd the veng'ance down,
Upon his guiltless head;
Break, break, my heart, oh, burst mine eyes,
And let my sorrows bleed.
- 6 Strike, mighty grace, my flinty soul,
'Till melting waters flow,
And deep repentance drown mine eyes
In undissembled woe.

XCVI. Distinguishing love: or, Angels punished, and man saved.

- 1 DOWN headlong from the native skies
The rebel angels fell,

- And thunder-bolts of flaming wrath
Pursu'd them deep to hell.
- 2 Down from the top of earthly bliss
Rebellious man was hurl'd ;
And Jesus stoop'd beneath the grave,
To reach a sinking world.
- 3 Oh love of infinite degrees !
Unmeasurable grace !
Must heav'n's eternal Darling die,
To save a trait'rous race ?
- 4 Must angels sink for ever down,
And burn in quenchless fire,
While God forsakes his shining throne,
To raise us wretches higher ?
- 5 Oh, for his love, let earth and skies
With Hallelujas ring,
And the full choir of human tongues
All Hallelujas sing.

XCVII. The same.

- 1 FROM heav'n the sinning angels fell,
And wrath and darkness chain'd them down;
But man, vile man, forsook his bliss,
And mercy lifts him to a crown.
- 2 Amazing work of sov'reign grace,
That could distinguish rebels so !
Our guilty treasons call'd aloud
For everlasting fetters too.
- 3 To thee, to thee, almighty love,
Our souls, ourselves, our all we pay ;
Millions of tongues shall sound thy praise
On the bright hills of heav'nly day.

XCVIII. Hardness of heart complained of.

1 MY heart, how dreadful hard it is !
 How heavy here it lies ;
 Heavy and cold within my breast,
 Just like a rock of ice !

2 Sin, like a raging tyrant sits
 Upon this flinty throne,
 And ev'ry grace lies bury'd deep
 Beneath this heart of stone.

3 How seldom do I rise to God,
 Or taste the joys above !
 This mountain presses down my faith,
 And chills my flaming love.

4 When smiling mercy courts my soul
 With all its heav'nly charms,
 This stubborn, this relentless thing,
 Would thrust it from my arms.

5 Against the thunders of thy word
 Rebellious I have stood ;
 My heart, it shakes not at the wrath
 And terrors of a God.

6 Dear Saviour, steep this rock of mine
 In thine own crimson sea !
 None but a bath of blood divine
 Can melt a flint away.

XCIX. The book of God's decrees.

1 LET the whole race of creatures ly
 Abas'd before their God :
 Whate'er his sov'reign voice has form'd,
 He governs with a nod.

- [2 Ten thousand ages ere the skies
Were into motion brought :
All the long years and worlds to come
Stood present to his thought.
- 3 There's not a sparrow, or a worm,
But's found in his decrees ;
He raises monarchs to their throne,
And sinks them as he please.]
- 4 If light attends the course I run,
'Tis he provides those rays ;
And 'tis his hand that hides my sun,
If darkness clouds my days.
- 5 Yet I would not be much concern'd,
Nor vainly long to see
The volumes of his deep decrees,
What months are writ for me.
- 6 When he reveals the book of life,
Oh, may I read my name
Amongst the chosen of his love,
The followers of the Lamb !

C. The presence of Christ is the life of my soul.

- 1 HOW full of anguish is the thought,
How it distracts and tears my heart,
If God at last, my sov'reign Judge,
Should frown, and bid my soul Depart !
- 2 Lord when I quit this earthly stage,
Where shall I fly but to thy breast ?
For I have sought no other home ;
For I have learn'd no other rest.
- 3 I cannot live contented here,
Without some glimpses of thy face ;

And heav'n, without thy presence there,
Will be a dark and tiresome place.

4 When earthly cares engross the day,
And hold my thoughts aside from thee,
The shining hours of cheerful light
Are long and tedious years to me.

5 And if no ev'ning visit's paid
Between my Saviour and my soul,
How dull the night ! how sad the shade !
How mournfully the minutes roll !

6 This flesh of mine might learn as soon
To live, yet part with all my blood ;
To breathe, when vital air is gone,
Or thrive and grow without my food.

[7 Christ is my light, my life, my care,
My blessed hope, my heavenly prize ;
Dearer than all my passions are,
My limbs, my bowels, or my eyes.

8 The strings that twine about my heart,
Tortures and racks may tear them off ;
But they can never, never part
With their dear hold of Christ my love.]

[9 My God ! and can a humble child,
That loves thee with a flame so high,
Be ever from thy face exil'd,
Without the pity of thine eye ?

10 Impossible ! For thine own hands
Have ty'd my heart so fast to thee,
And in thy book the promise stands,
That where thou art, thy friends must be.]

CI. The world's three chief temptations.

1 WHEN in the light of faith divine
We look on things below,

Honour and gold, and sensual joy,
How vain and dang'rous too!

[2 Honour's a puff of noisy breath;
Yet men expose their blood,
And venture everlasting death,
To gain that airy good.

3 Whilst others starve the nobler mind,
And feed on shining dust,
They rob the serpent of his food,
T' indulge a fordid lust.]

4 The pleasures that allure our sense
Are dang'rous snares to souls;
They're but a drop of flatt'ring sweet,
And dash'd with bitter bowls.

5 God is mine all-sufficient good,
My portion and my choice,
In him my vast desires are fill'd,
And all my pow'rs rejoice.

6 In vain the world accosts my ear,
And tempts my heart anew;
I cannot buy your bliss so dear,
Nor part with heav'n for you.

CII. A happy resurrection.

1 NO, I'll repine at death no more,
But, with a cheerful gasp resign
To the cold dungeon of the grave
These dying, with'ring limbs of mine.

2 Let worms devour my wasting flesh,
And crumble all my bones to dust,
My God shall raise my frame anew
At the revival of the just,

3 Break, sacred morning, through the skies,
Bring that delightful, dreadful day,

Cut short the hours, dear Lord, and come :
Thy ling'ring wheels how long they stay !

[4 Our weary spirits faint to see
The light of thy returning face,
And hear the language of those lips
Where God has shed his richest grace.]

[5 Haste then upon the wings of love,
Rouse all the pious sleeping clay,
That we may join in heav'nly joys,
And sing the triumph of the day.]

CIII. Christ's commission, John iii. 16, 17.

1 COME, happy souls, approach your God
With new melodious songs ;
Come, render to almighty grace
The tributes of your tongues.

2 So strange, so boundless was the love
That pity'd dying men,
The Father sent his equal Son
To give them life again.

3 Thy hands, dear Jesus, were not arm'd
With a revenging rod,
No hard commission to perform
The vengeance of a God.

4 But all was mercy, all was mild,
And wrath forsook the throne,
When Christ on the kind errand came,
And brought salvation down.

5 Here, sinners, you may heal your wounds,
And wipe your sorrows dry ;
Trust in the mighty Saviour's name,
And you shall never die.

- 6 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
Accept thine offer'd grace ;
We bless the great Redeemer's love,
And give the Father praise.

CIV. The same.

- 1 RAISE your triumphant songs
To an immortal tune,
Let the wide earth resound the deeds
Celestial grace has done.
- 2 Sing, how eternal love
Its chief beloved chose,
And bid him raise our wretched race
From their abyss of woes.
- 3 His hand no thunder bears,
Nor terror cloaths his brow ;
No bolts to drive our guilty souls
To fiercer flames below.
- 4 'Twas mercy fill'd the throne,
And wrath stood silent by,
When Christ was sent with pardons down
To rebels doom'd to die.
- 5 Now, sinners, dry your tears,
Let hopeless sorrow cease ;
Bow to the sceptre of his love,
And take the offer'd peace.
- 6 Lord, we obey thy call,
We lay an humble claim
To the salvation thou hast brought,
And love and praise thy name.

CV. Repentance, flowing from the patience of God.

- 1 AND are we wretches yet alive?
And do we yet rebel?
'Tis boundless, 'tis amazing love,
That bears us up from hell!
- 2 The burden of our weighty guilt
Would sink us down to flames,
And threat'ning vengeance rolls above,
To crush our feeble frames.
- 3 Almighty goodness cries, Forbear!
And strait the thunder stays:
And dare we now provoke his wrath,
And weary out his grace?
- 4 Lord, we have long abus'd thy love,
Too long indulg'd our sin,
Our aking hearts ev'n bleed to see
What rebels we have been.
- 5 No more, ye lusts, shall ye command,
No more will we obey!
Stretch out, O God, thy conqu'ring hand,
And drive thy foes away.

CVI. Repentance at the Cross.

- 1 OH, if my soul were form'd for woe,
How would I vent my sighs!
Repentance should like rivers flow
From both my streaming eyes.
- 2 'Twas for my sins, my dearest Lord
Hung on the curst tree,
And groan'd away a dying life
For thee, my soul, for thee.

- 3 Oh, how I hate those lusts of mine
That crucify'd my God,
Those sins that pierc'd and nail'd his flesh
Fast to the fatal wood!
- 4 Yes, my Redeemer, they shall die,
My heart has so decreed;
Nor will I spare the guilty things
That made my Saviour bleed.
- 5 Whilst with a melting broken heart,
My murder'd Lord I view,
I'll raise revenge against my sins,
And slay the murderers too.

CVII. The everlasting absence of God intolerable.

- 1 THAT awful day will surely come,
Th' appointed hour makes haste,
When I must stand before my Judge,
And pass the solemn test.
- 2 Thou lovely chief of all my joys,
Thou sov'reign of my heart,
How could I bear to hear the voice
Pronounce the sound, Depart?
- [3 The thunder of that dismal word
Would so torment my ear,
'Twould tear my soul asunder, Lord,
With most tormenting fear.]
- [4 What, to be banish'd for my life,
And yet forbid to die?
To linger in eternal pain,
Yet death for ever fly?]
- 5 Oh! wretched state of deep despair,
To see my God remove,

And fix my doleful station where
I must not taste his love.

- 6 Jesus, I throw my arms around
And hang upon thy breast,
Without a gracious smile from thee
My spirit cannot rest.
- 7 Oh ! tell me that my worthless name
Is graven on thy hands ;
Shew me some promise in thy book,
Where my salvation stands !
- [8 Give me one kind, assuring word,
To sink my fears again,
And cheerfully my soul shall wait
Her threescore years and ten.]

CVIII. Access to the throne of grace by a Mediator.

1 COME, let us lift our joyful eyes
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there
Upon a throne of love.

2 Once 'twas a seat of dreadful wrath,
And shot devouring flame ;
Our God appear'd consuming fire,
And Vengeance was his name.

3 Rich were the drops of Jesus' blood
That calm'd his frowning face,
That sprinkled o'er the burning throne,
And turn'd the wrath to grace.

4 Now we may bow before his feet,
And venture near the Lord ;
No fiery cherub guards his seat,
Nor double-flaming sword.

T

- 5 The peaceful gates of heav'nly bliss
Are open'd by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach th' almighty throne.
- 6 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high;
And glory to th' eternal King,
That lays his fury by.

CIX. The darkness of providence.

- 1 LORD, we adore thy vast designs,
Th' obscure abyfs of providence,
Too deep to sound with mortal lines,
Too dark to view with feeble sense.
- 2 Now thou array'st thine awful face
In angry frowns, without a smile:
We, thro' the cloud, believe thy grace,
Secure of thy compassion still.
- 3 Thro' seas and storms of deep distress
We sail by faith, and not by sight;
Faith guides us in the wilderness,
Thro' all the briars, and the night.
- 4 Dear Father, if thy lifted rod
Resolve to scourge us here below,
Still we must lean upon our God,
Thine arm shall bear us safely thro'.

CX. Triumph over death, in hope of the resurrection.

- 1 AND must this body die?
This mortal frame decay?
And must these active limbs of mine
Ly mould'ring in the clay?

- 2 Corruption, earth, and worms,
Shall but refine this flesh,
'Till my triumphant spirit comes,
To put it on afresh.
- 3 God my Redeemer lives,
And often from the skies
Looks down, and watches all my dust,
'Tis he shall bid it rise.
- 4 Array'd in glorious grace
Shall these vile bodies shine,
And ev'ry shape, and ev'ry face,
Look heav'nly and divine.
- 5 These lively hopes we owe
To Jesus' dying love ;
We would adore his grace below,
And sing his pow'r above.
- 6 Dear Lord accept the praise
Of these our humble songs,
'Till tunes of nobler sound we raise
With our immortal tongues.

CXI. Thanksgiving for victory: Or, God's dominion, and our deliverance.

- 1 ZION rejoice, and Judah sing,
The Lord assumes his throne ;
Let Britain own the heav'nly King,
And make his glories known.
- 2 The great, the wicked, and the proud,
From their high seats are hurl'd ;
Jehovah rides upon a cloud,
And thunders through the world.
- 3 He reigns upon th' eternal hills,
Distributes mortal crowns ;

Empires are fix'd beneath his smiles,
And totter at his frowns.

4 Navies, that rule the ocean wide,
Are vanquish'd by his breath,
And legions, arm'd with pow'r and pride,
Descend to wat'ry death.

5 Let tyrants make no more pretence
To vex our happy land;
Jehovah's name is our defence,
Our buckler is his hand.

[6 Long may the King, our sov'reign, live,
To rule us by his word;
And all the honours he can give,
Be offer'd to the Lord.]

CXII. Angels ministering to Christ and saints.

1 GREAT God! to what a glorious height
Hast thou advanc'd the Lord thy Son!
Angels, in all their robes of light,
Are made the servants of his throne.

2 Before his feet thine armies wait,
And swift as flames of fire they move,
To manage his affairs of state,
In works of vengeance, or of love.

3 His orders run through all the hosts,
Legions descend at his command,
To shield and guard the British coasts,
When foreign rage invades our land.

4 Now they are sent to guide our feet
Up to the gates of thine abode,
'Thro' all the dangers that we meet
In travelling the heav'nly road.

- 5 Lord, when I leave this mortal ground,
And thou shalt bid me rise, and come,
Send a beloved angel down,
Safe to conduct my spirit home.

CXIII. The same.

- 1 THE majesty of Solomon,
How glorious to behold,
The servants waiting round his throne,
The iv'ry and the gold !
- 2 Bat, mighty God ! thy palace shines
With far superior beams ;
Thine angel guards are swift as winds,
Thy ministers are flames.
- [3 Soon as thine only Son had made
His entrance on this earth,
A shining army downward fled,
To celebrate his birth.
- 4 And, when oppress'd with pains and fears,
On the cold ground he lies.
Behold, a heav'nly form appears,
T' allay his agonies.]
- 5 Now to the hands of Christ, our King,
Are all their legions giv'n ;
They wait upon his saints, and bring
His chosen heirs to heav'n.
- 6 Pleasure and praise run thro' their host,
To see a sinner turn ;
Then Satan has a captive lost,
And Christ a subject born.
- 7 But there's an hour of brighter joy,
When he his angels sends,

Obstinate rebels to destroy,
And gather in his friends.

- 8 Oh ! could I say, without a doubt,
There shall my soul be found,
Then let the great archangel shout,
And the last trumpet sound.

CXIV. Christ's death, victory, and dominion.

- 1 I Sing my Saviour's wond'rous death ;
He conquer'd when he fell :
'Tis finish'd said his dying breath,
And shook the gates of hell.
- 2 'Tis finish'd, our Immanuel cries,
The dreadful work is done ;
Hence shall his sov'reign throne arise,
His kingdom is begun.
- 3 His cross a sure foundation laid
For glory and renown,
When thro' the regions of the dead
He pass'd to reach the crown.
- 4 Exalted at his Father's side
Sits our victorious Lord ;
To heav'n and hell his hands divide
The vengeance or reward.
- 5 The saints from his propitious eye,
Await their several crowns,
And all the sons of darkness fly
The terror of his frowns.

CXV. God the avenger of his saints : Or, His kingdom supreme.

- 1 HIGH as the heav'ns above the ground
Reigns the Creator, God ;

- Wide as the whole creation's bound,
Extends his awful rod.
- 2 Let princes of exalted state
To him ascribe their crown,
Render their homage at his feet,
And cast their glories down.
- 3 Know that his kingdom is supreme,
Your lofty thoughts are vain ;
He calls you Gods, that awful name,
But ye must die like men.
- 4 Then let the sov'reigns of the globe
Not dare to vex the just ;
He puts on vengeance like a robe,
And treads the worms to dust.
- 5 Ye judges of the earth, be wise,
And think of heav'n with fear ;
The meanest saint that you despise
Has an avenger there.

CXVI. Mercies and thanks.

- 1 HOW can I sink with such a prop
As my eternal God,
Who bears the earth's huge pillars up,
And spreads the heav'ns abroad ?
- 2 How can I die, while Jesus lives,
Who rose and left the dead ?
Pardon and grace my soul receives
From mine exalted head.
- 3 All that I am, and all I have,
Shall be for ever thine ;
Whate'er my duty bids me give,
My cheerful hands resign.

- 4 Yet if I might make some reserve,
And duty did not call,
I love my God with zeal so great,
That I should give him all.

CXVII. Living and dying with God present.

- 1 I Cannot bear thine absence, Lord,
My life expires if thou depart :
Be thou, my heart, still near my God,
And thou, my God, be near my heart.
- 2 I was not born for earth and sin,
Nor can I live on things so vile ;
Yet I will stay my Father's time,
And hope and wait for heav'n a while.
- 3 Then, dearest Lord, in thine embrace
Let me resign my fleeting breath,
And, with a smile upon my face,
Pass the important hour of death.

CXVIII. The priesthood of Christ.

- 1 BLOOD has a voice to pierce the skies,
Revenge, the blood of Abel cries :
But the dear stream, when Christ was slain,
Speaks peace as loud from ev'ry vein.
- 2 Pardon and peace from God on high ;
Behold, he lays his vengeance by ;
And rebels that deserve his sword,
Become the fav'rites of the Lord.
- 3 To Jesus let our praises rise,
Who gave his life a sacrifice :
Now he appears before his God,
And, for our pardon, pleads his blood,

CXIX. The holy scriptures.

1 LADEN with guilt, and full of-fears,
I fly to thee, my Lord,
And not a glimpse of hope appears,
But in thy written word.

2 The volume of my Father's grace
Does all my grief assuage :
Here I behold my Saviour's face
Almost in ev'ry page.

3 This is the field where hidden lies
The pearl of price unknown :
That merchant is divinely wise,
Who makes the pearl his own.

4 Here consecrated water flows,
To quench my thirst of sin ;
Here the fair tree of knowledge grows
Nor danger dwells therein.

5 This is the Judge that ends the strife,
Where wit and reason fail :
My guide to everlasting life,
Thro' all this gloomy vale.

6 Oh ! may thy counsels, mighty God,
My roving feet command ;
Nor I forsake the happy road
That leads to thy right hand.

CXX. The law and the gospel joined in scripture.

1 THE Lord declares his will,
And keeps the world in awe ;
Amidst the smoke on Sinai's hill,
Breaks out his fiery law.

- 2 The Lord reveals his face,
And, smiling from above,
Sends down the gospel of his grace,
Th' epistles of his love.
- 3 The sacred words impart
Our Maker's just commands,
The pity of his melting heart,
And veng'ance of his hands.
- [4 Hence we awake our fear,
We draw our comfort hence;
The arms of grace are treasur'd here,
And armour of defence.
- 5 We learn Christ crucify'd,
And here behold his blood;
All arts and knowledges beside
Will do us little good.]
- 6 We read the heav'nly word,
We take the offer'd grace,
Obey the statutes of the Lord,
And trust his promises.
- 7 In vain shall Satan rage
Against a book divine,
Where wrath and lightning guard the page,
Where beams of mercy shine.

CXXI. The law and gospel distinguished.

- 1 THE law commands, and makes us know
What duties to our God we owe;
But 'tis the gospel must reveal
Where lies our strength to do his will.
- 2 The law discovers guilt and sin,
And shews how vile our hearts have been;
Only the gospel can express
Forgiving love, and cleansing grace.

- 3 What curses doth the law denounce
Against the man that fails but once ?
But in the gospel Christ appears,
Pard'ning the guilt of num'rous years.
- 4 My soul, no more attempt to draw
Thy life and comfort from the law ;
Fly to the hope the gospel gives :
The man that trusts the promise, lives.

CXXII. Retirement and meditation.

- 1 MY God, permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee ;
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.
- 2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heav'nly birth ?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour go ?
- 3 Call me away from flesh and sense,
One sov'reign word can draw me thence ;
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.
- 4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn ;
Let noise and vanity be gone :
In secret silence of the mind,
My heav'n, and there my God, I find.

CXXIII. The benefit of public ordinances.

- 1 AWAY from ev'ry mortal care,
Away from earth our souls retreat ;
We leave this worthless world afar,
And wait and worship near thy seat.
- 2 Lord, in the temple of thy grace
We see thy feet, and we adore ;

- We gaze upon thy lovely face,
And learn the wonders of thy pow'r.
- 3 While here our various wants we mourn,
United groans ascend on high;
And pray'r bears a quick return
Of blessings in variety.
- [4 If Satan rage, and sin grow strong,
Here we receive some cheering word;
We gird the gospel-armour on,
To fight the battles of the Lord.
- 5 Or if our spirit faints and dies,
(Our conscience gall'd with inward stings)
Here doth the righteous sun arise,
With healing beams beneath his wings.]
- 6 Father! my soul would still abide
Within the temple, near thy side;
But if my feet must hence depart,
Still keep thy dwelling in my heart.

CXXIV. Moses, Aaron, and Joshua.

- 1 'TIS not the law of ten commands,
On holy Sinai given,
Or sent to men by Moses' hands,
Can bring us safe to heav'n.
- 2 'Tis not the blood which Aaron spilt,
Nor smoke of sweetest smell,
Can buy a pardon for our guilt,
Or save our souls from hell.
- 3 Aaron the priest resigns his breath
At God's immediate will;
And in the desert yields to death
Upon th' appointed hill.

- 4 And thus, on Jordan's yonder side,
The tribes of Israel stand,
While Moses bow'd his head and dy'd
Short of the promis'd land.
- 5 Isra'l rejoice, now * Joshua leads,
He'll bring your tribes to rest ;
So far the Saviour's name exceeds
The ruler and the priest.

CXXV. Faith and repentance, unbelief and impenitence.

- 1 LIFE and immortal joys are giv'n
To souls that mourn the sins they've done;
Children of wrath made heirs of heav'n,
By faith in God's eternal Son.
- 2 Woe to the wretch that never felt
The inward pangs of pious grief,
But adds to all his crying guilt
The stubborn sin of unbelief.
- 3 The law condemns the rebel dead,
Under the wrath of God he lies ;
He seals the curse on his own head,
And with a double vengeance dies.

CXXVI. God glorified in the gospel.

- 1 THE Lord, descending from above,
Invites his children near ;
While pow'r and truth, and boundless love,
Display their glories here.
- 2 Here, in thy gospel's wondrous frame,
Fresh wisdom we pursue ;
A thousand angels learn thy name
Beyond whate'er they knew.

U

* Joshua, the same with Jesus, and signifies a Saviour.

- 3 Thy name is writ in fairest lines;
 Thy wonders here we trace:
 Wisdom thro' all the myst'ry shines,
 And shines in Jesus' face.
- 4 The law its best obedience owes
 To our incarnate God;
 And thy revenging justice shows
 Its honours in his blood.
- 5 But still the lustre of thy grace
 Our warmer thoughts employs,
 Gilds the whole scene with brightest rays,
 And more exalts our joys.

CXXVII. Circumcision and baptism.

(Written only for those who practise the baptism of infants.)

- 1 THUS did the sons of Abrah'm pass
 Under the bloody seal of grace;
 The young disciples bore the yoke,
 'Till Christ the painful bondage broke.
- 2 By milder ways doth Jesus prove
 His Father's covenant, and love;
 He seals to saints his glorious grace,
 And not forbids their infant-race.
- 3 Their seed is sprinkled with his blood,
 Their children set apart for God;
 His Spirit on their offspring shed,
 Like water pour'd upon the head.
- 4 Let ev'ry saint, with cheerful voice,
 In this large covenant rejoice;
 Young children, in their early days,
 Shall give the God of Abrah'm praise.

CXXVIII. Corrupt nature from Adam.

- 1 BLESS'D with the joys of innocence,
Adam, our Father, stood,
 'Till he debas'd his soul to sense,
 And eat th' unlawful food.
- 2 Now we are born a sensual race,
 'To sinful joys inclin'd ;
 Reason has lost its native place,
 And flesh enslaves the mind.
- 3 While flesh, and sense, and passion reigns,
 Sin is the sweetest good ;
 We fancy music in our chains,
 And so forget the load.
- 4 Great God ! renew our ruin'd frame,
 Our broken pow'rs restore,
 Inspire us with a heav'nly flame,
 And flesh shall reign no more.
- 5 Eternal Spirit ! write thy law
 Upon our inward parts,
 And let the second Adam draw
 His image on our hearts.

CXXIX. We walk by faith, not by sight.

- 1 TIS by the faith of joys to come
 We walk thro' desarts dark as night,
 'Till we arrive at heav'n our home,
 Faith is our guide, and faith our light.
- 2 The want of sight she well supplies,
 She makes the pearly gates appear ;
 Far into distant worlds she pries,
 And brings eternal glories near.

- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert thro',
While faith inspires a heav'nly ray,
Tho' lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.
- 4 So Abrah'm, by divine command,
Left his own house to walk with God;
His faith beheld the promis'd land,
And fir'd his zeal along the road.

CXXX. The new creation.

- 1 ATTEND, while God's exalted Son
Doth his own glories shew:
*Behold I sit upon my throne,
Creating all things new.*
- 2 *Nature and sin are pass'd away,
And the old Adam dies;
My hands a new foundation lay,
See the new worlds arise.*
- 3 *I'll be a sun of righteousness
To the new heav'ns I make,
None but the new-born heirs of grace
My glories shall partake.*
- 4 Mighty Redeemer! set me free
From my old state of sin;
Oh, make my soul alive to thee,
Create new pow'rs within.
- 5 Renew mine eyes, and form mine ears,
And mould my heart afresh;
Give me new passions, joys and fears,
And turn the stone to flesh.
- 6 Far from the regions of the dead,
From sin, and earth, and hell;
In the new world that grace has made,
I would for ever dwell.

CXXXI. The excellency of the Christian religion.

- 1 LET everlasting glories crown
 Thy head, my Saviour, and my Lord;
 Thy hands have brought salvation down,
 And writ the blessings in thy word.
- [2 What if we trace the world around,
 And search from Britain to Japan,
 There shall be no religion found
 So just to God, so safe to man.]
- 3 In vain the trembling conscience seeks
 Some solid ground to rest upon;
 With long despair the spirit breaks,
 'Till we apply to Christ alone.
- 4 How well thy blessed truths agree!
 How wise and holy thy commands!
 Thy promises how firm they be!
 How firm our hope and comfort stands!
- [5 Not the feign'd fields of Heath'nish bliss
 Could raise such pleasures in the mind;
 Nor does the Turkish paradise
 Pretend to joys so well refin'd.]
- 6 Should all the forms that men devise
 Assault my faith with treach'rous art,
 I'd call them vanity and lies,
 And bind the gospel to my heart.

CXXXII. The offices of Christ.

- 1 WE bless the prophet of the Lord,
 That comes with truth and grace;;
Jesus, thy Spirit, and thy word,
 Shall lead us in thy ways.

- 2 We rev'rence our high-priest above,
Who offer'd up his blood,
And lives to carry on his love,
By pleading with our God.
- 3 We honour our exalted King ;
How sweet are his commands !
He guards our souls from hell and sin,
By his almighty hands.
- 4 Hosanna to his glorious name,
Who saves by diff'rent ways ;
His mercies lay a sov'reign claim
To our immortal praise.

CXXXIII. The operations of the Holy Spirit.

- 1 ETERNAL Spirit ! we confess,
And sing the wonders of thy grace ;
Thy pow'r conveys our blessings down
From God the Father, and the Son.
- 2 Enlighten'd by thine heav'nly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day ;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger, and our refuge too.
- 3 Thy pow'r and glory works within,
And breaks the chains of reigning sin ;
Doth our imperious lusts subdue,
And forms our wretched hearts anew.
- 4 The troubled conscience knows thy voice,
Thy cheering words awake our joys ;
Thy words allay the stormy wind,
And calm the surges of the mind.

CXXXIV. Circumcision abolish'd.

- 1 THE promise was divinely free,
Extensive was the grace ;

*I will the God of Abrah'm be,
And of his num'rous race.*

- 2 He said, and with a bloody seal,
Confirm'd the words he spoke;
Long did the sons of Abrah'm feel
The sharp and painful yoke.
- 3 'Till God's own Son descending low,
Gave his own flesh to bleed;
And Gentiles taste the blessings now,
From the hard bondage freed.
- 4 The God of Abrah'm claims our praise,
His promises endure;
And Christ, the Lord, in gentler ways,
Makes the salvation sure.

CXXXV. Types and prophecies of Christ.

- 1 BEHOLD the woman's promis'd seed!
Behold the great Messiah come!
Behold the prophets all agreed
To give him the superior room!
- 2 Abrah'm the saint rejoic'd of old
When visions of the Lord he saw;
Moses, the man of God, foretold
This great Fulfiller of his law.
- 3 The types bore witness to his name,
Obtain'd their chief design, and ceas'd;
The incense, and the bleeding lamb,
The ark, the altar, and the priest.
- 4 Predictions in abundance meet
To join their blessings on his head;
Jesus, we worship at thy feet,
And nations own the promis'd seed.

CXXXVI. Miracles at the birth of Christ.

- 1 THE King of glory sends his Son
To make his entrance on this earth ;
Behold the midnight bright as noon,
And heav'nly hosts declare his birth !
- 2 About the young Redeemer's head
What wonders and what glories meet !
An unknown star arose, and led
The eastern sages to his feet.
- 3 Simeon and Anna both conspire
The infant Saviour to proclaim ;
Inward they felt the sacred fire,
And bless'd the Babe, and own'd his name.
- 4 Let Jews and Greeks blaspheme aloud,
And treat the holy Child with scorn ;
Our souls adore th' eternal God,
Who condescended to be born.

CXXXVII. Miracles in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ.

- 1 BEHOLD, the blind their sight receive !
Behold, the dead awake, and live !
The dumb speak wonders, and the lame
Leap like the hart, and bless his name !
- 2 Thus doth th' eternal Spirit own,
And seal the mission of his Son ;
The Father vindicates his cause,
While he hangs bleeding on the cross.
- 3 He dies ; the heav'ns in mourning stood ;
He rises, and appears a God :
Behold the Lord ascending high,
No more to bleed, no more to die !

- 4 Hence and for ever from my heart
I bid my doubts and fears depart;
And to those hands my soul resign,
Which bear credentials so divine.

CXXXVIII. The power of the gospel.

- 1 THIS is the word of truth and love,
Sent to the nations from above;
Jehovah here resolves to shew
What his almighty grace can do.
- 2 This remedy did wisdom find,
To heal diseases of the mind;
'This sov'reign balm, whose virtues can
Restore the ruin'd creature, man.
- 3 The gospel bids the dead revive,
Sinners obey the voice, and live:
Dry bones are rais'd, and cloath'd afresh,
And hearts of stone are turn'd to flesh.
- 4 Where Satan reign'd in shades of night,
The gospel strikes a heav'nly light:
Our lust its wondrous pow'r controuls,
And calms the rage of angry souls.]
- 5 Lions, and beasts of savage name,
Put on the nature of the lamb;
While the wild world esteems it strange,
Gaze, and admire, and hate the change.]
- 6 May but this grace my soul renew,
Let sinners gaze and hate me too;
The word that saves me doth engage
A sure defence from all their rage.

CXXXIX. The example of Christ.

- 1 MY dear Redeemer, and my Lord!
I read my duty in thy word;

- But in thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.
- 2 Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe, and make them mine.
- 3 Cold mountains, and the midnight air,
Witness'd the fervour of thy pray'r;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict, and thy vict'ry too.
- 4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Amongst the followers of the Lamb.

CXL. The examples of Christ and the saints.

- 1 GIVE me the wings of faith to rise
Within the veil, and see
The saints above, how great their joys,
And bright their glories be.
- 2 Once they were mourning here below,
And wet their couch with tears;
They wrestled hard, as we do now,
With sins, and doubts, and fears.
- 3 I ask them, whence their victory came?
They, with united breath,
Ascribe their conquest to the Lamb,
Their triumph to his death.
- 4 They mark'd the footsteps that he trod,
(His zeal inspir'd their breast):
And following their incarnate God,
Possess the promis'd rest.

- 5 Our glorious Leader claims our praise,
For his own pattern giv'n,
While the long cloud of witnesses
Shew the same path to heav'n.

CXLI. Faith assisted by sense : Or, Preaching baptism, and the Lord's supper.

- 1 MY Saviour God, my sov'reign Prince,
Reigns far above the skies ;
But brings his graces down to sense,
And helps my faith to rise.
- 2 My eyes and ears shall bless his name,
They read and hear his word :
My touch and taste shall do the same,
When they receive the Lord.
- 3 Baptifimal water is design'd
To seal his cleansing grace,
While at his feast of bread and wine
He gives his saints a place.
- 4 But not the waters of a flood
Can make my flesh so clean,
As by his Spirit and his blood
He'll wash my soul from sin.
- 5 Not choicest meats, or noblest wines,
So much my heart refresh,
As when my faith goes thro' the signs,
And feeds upon his flesh.
- 6 I love the Lord, that stoops so low,
To give his word a seal :
But the rich grace his hands bestow,
Exceeds the figures still.

CXLII. Faith in Christ our sacrifice.

- 1 NOT all the blood of beasts
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.
- 2 But Christ, the heav'nly Lamb,
Takes all our sins away;
A sacrifice of nobler name,
And richer blood than they.
- 3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,
While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.
- 4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens thou didst bear,
When hanging on the cursed tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.
- 5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his bleeding love.

CXLIII. Flesh and spirit.

- 1 WHAT different powers of grace and sin
Attend our mortal state!
I hate the thoughts that work within,
And do the works I hate.
- 2 Now I complain, and groan, and die,
While sin and Satan reign:
Now raise my songs of triumph high,
For grace prevails again.
- 3 So darkness struggles with the light,
Till perfect day arise;

Water and fire maintain the fight,
Until the weaker dies.

- 4 Thus will the flesh and spirit strive,
And vex and break my peace ;
But I shall quit this mortal life,
And sin for ever cease.

CXLIV. The effusion of the Spirit : or, The success of the gospel.

- 1 GREAT was the day, the joy was great,
When the divine disciples met ;
Whilst on their heads the spirit came,
And sat like tongues of cloven flame,
2 What gifts, what miracles he gave !
And pow'r to kill and pow'r to save !
Furnish'd their tongues with wond'rous words,
Instead of shields, and spears, and swords.
3 Thus arm'd he sent the champions forth,
From East to West, from South to North ;
Go, and assert your Saviour's cause,
Go, spread the myst'ry of his cross.
4 These weapons of the holy war,
Of what almighty force they are,
To make our stubborn passions bow,
And lay the proudest rebel low !
5 Nations the learned and the rude,
Are by these heav'nly arms subdu'd ;
While Satan rages at his loss,
And hates the doctrine of the cross.
6 Great King of grace ! my heart subdue ;
I would be led in triumph too,
A willing captive to my Lord,
And sing the vict'ries of his word.

CXLV. Sight through a glass, and face to face.

- 1 I Love the windows of thy grace
Through which, my Lord is seen,
And long to meet my Saviour's face
Without a glass between.
- 2 Oh, that the happy hour were come
To change my faith to sight !
I shall behold my Lord at home
In a diviner light.
- 3 Haste, my beloved, and remove
These interposing days ;
Then shall my passions all be love,
And all my pow'rs be praise.

CXLVI. The vanity of creatures : Or, no rest on earth.

- 1 MAN has a soul of vast desires,
He burns within with restless fires ;
Toft to and fro, his passions fly
From vanity to vanity.
- 2 In vain on earth we hope to find
Some solid good to fill the mind :
We try new pleasures, but we feel
The inward thirst and torment still.
- 3 So, when a raging fever burns,
We shift from side to side by turns ;
And 'tis a poor relief we gain,
To change the place, but keep the pain.
- 4 Great God ! subdue this vicious thirst,
This love to vanity and dust ;
Cure this vile fever of the mind,
And feed our souls with joys refin'd.

CXLVII. The creation of the world, Gen. i.

- 1 NOW, let the spacious world arise,
Said the Creator Lord :
At once th' obedient earth and skies
Rose at his sov'reign word.
- 2 Dark was the deep ; the waters lay
Confus'd, and drown'd the land :
He call'd the light, the new born day
Attends on his command.
- 3 He bids the clouds ascend on high ;
The clouds ascend, and bear
A wat'ry treasure to the sky,
And float on softer air.
- 4 The liquid element below
Was gather'd by his hand ;
The rolling seas together flow,
And leave the solid land.
- 5 With herbs and plants (a flow'ry birth)
The naked globe he crown'd,
Ere there was rain to bless the earth,
Or sun to warm the ground.
- 6 Then he adorn'd the upper skies ;
Behold the sun appears,
The moon and stars in order rise,
To mark out months and years.
- 7 Out of the deep th' almighty King
Did vital beings frame,
The painted fowls of ev'ry wing,
And fish of ev'ry name.]
- 8 He gave the lion and the worm
At once their wond'rous birth,

- And grazing beasts of various form
Rose from the teeming earth.
- 8 Adam was fram'd of equal clay,
Though sov'reign of the rest,
Design'd for nobler ends than they,
With God's own image blest'd.
- 10 Thus glorious in the Maker's eye
The young creation stood;
He saw the building from on high,
His word pronounc'd it good.
- 11 Lord, while the frame of nature stands,
Thy praise shall fill my tongue;
But the new world of grace demands
A more exalted song.

CXLVIII. God reconciled in Christ.

- 1 DEAREST of all the names above,
My Jesus, and my God,
Who can resist thy heav'nly love.
Or trifle with thy blood?
- 2 'Tis by the merits of thy death
The Father smiles again;
'Tis by thine interceding breath
The spirit dwells with men.
- 3 'Till God in human flesh I see,
My thoughts no comfort find:
The holy, just, and sacred Three,
Are terrors to my mind:
- 4 But if Immanuel's face appear,
My hope, my joy begins;
His name forbids my slavish fear,
His grace removes my sins.

- 5 While Jews on their own law rely,
 And Greeks of wisdom boast,
 I love th' incarnate mystery,
 And there I fix my trust.

CXLIX. Honour to magistrates: or, Government from God.

- 1 ETERNAL Sov'reign of the sky,
 And Lord of all below;
 We mortals to thy majesty
 Our first obedience owe.
- 2 Our souls adore thy throne supreme,
 And bless thy providence,
 For magistrates of meaner name,
 Our glory and defence.
- [3 The crowns of British princes shine
 With rays above the rest,
 Where laws and liberties combine
 To make the nation blest'd.]
- 4 Kingdoms on firm foundations stand,
 While virtue finds reward;
 And sinners perish from the land,
 By justice and the sword.
- 5 Let Cæsar's due be ever paid
 To Cæsar and his throne;
 But consciences and souls were made
 To be the Lord's alone.

CL. The deceitfulness of sin.

- 1 SIN has a thousand treach'rous arts
 To practise on the mind;
 With flatt'ring looks she tempts our hearts,
 But leaves a sting behind.

- 2 With names of virtue she deceives
The aged and the young;
And while the heedless wretch believes,
She makes his fetters strong.
- 3 She pleads for all the joys she brings,
And gives a fair pretence;
But cheats the soul of heav'nly things,
And chains it down to sense.
- 4 So on a tree divinely fair,
Grew the forbidden food;
Our mother took the poison there,
And tainted all her blood.

CLI. Prophecy and inspiration.

- 1 'T WAS by an order from the Lord,
The ancient prophets spoke his word;
His Spirit did their tongues inspire,
And warm'd their hearts with heav'nly fire.
- 2 The works and wonders which they wrought,
Confirm'd the messages they brought;
The prophet's pen succeeds his breath;
To save the holy words from death.
- 3 Great God! mine eyes with pleasure look
On the dear volume of thy book;
There my Redeemer's face I see,
And read his name, who dy'd for me.
- 4 Let the false raptures of the mind
Be lost, and vanish in the wind:
Here I can fix my hope secure;
This is thy word, and must endure.

CLII. Sinai and Sion, Heb. xii. ver. 18, &c.

- 1 NOT to the terrors of the Lord,
The tempest, fire, and smoke,

- Not to the thunder of that word
Which God on Sinai spoke ;
- 2 But we are come to Sion's hill,
The city of our God,
Where milder words declare his will,
And spread his love abroad.
- 3 Before th' innumerable host
Of angels cloath'd in light !
Behold the spirits of the just,
Whose faith is turn'd to fight !
- 4 Behold the blest'd assembly there,
Whose names are writ in heav'n !
And God, the judge of all, declares
Their vilest sins forgiv'n.
- 5 The faints on earth, and all the dead,
But one communion make ;
All join in Christ, their living Head,
And of his grace partake.
- 6 In such society as this
My weary soul would rest ;
The man that dwells where Jesus is,
Must be for ever blest'd.

CLIII. The distemper, folly, and madness of sin.

- 1 SIN, like a venomous disease,
Infects our vital blood :
The only balm is sov'reign grace,
And the physician, God.
- 2 Our beauty and our strength are fled,
And we draw near to death ;
But Christ the Lord recalls the dead,
With his almighty breath.

- 3 Madnefs, by nature, reigns within,
 The paffions burn and rage,
 'Till God's own Son, with skill divine,
 The inward fire affuage.
- [4 We lick the duft, we grasp the wind,
 And folid good defpife :
 Such is the folly of the mind,
 'Till Jesus makes us wife.
- 5 We give our fouls the wounds they feel,
 We drink the pois'nous gall,
 And rufh with fury down to hell ;
 But heav'n prevents the fall.]
- [6 The man poffefs'd among the tombs,
 Cuts his own flefh, and cries :
 He foams and raves, 'till Jesus comes,
 And the foul fpirit flies.]

CLIV. Self-righteoufnefs insufficient.

- 1 “* WHERE are the mourners (faith the Lord)
 “ That wait and tremble at my word ?
 “ That walk in darknefs all the day ?
 “ Come, make my name your truft and ftay.
- [2 “ No works nor duties of your own
 “ Can for the fmalleft fin atone ;
 “ † The robes that nature may provide,
 “ Will not your leaft pollutions hide.
- 3 “ The foftest couch that nature knows,
 “ Can give the confcience no repofe :
 “ Look to my righteoufnefs, and live ;
 “ Comfort and peace are mine to give.]

* Ifa. l. io. 11.

† Ifa. xxviii. 20.

- 4 " Ye sons of pride, that kindle coals
" With your own hands, to warm your souls,
" Walk in the light of your own fire,
" Enjoy the sparks that you desire.
- 5 " This is your portion at my hands,
" Hell waits you with her iron-bands;
" Ye shall ly down in sorrow there,
" In death, in darkness, and despair."

CLV. Christ our passover.

- 1 LO, the destroying angel flies
To Pharaoh's stubborn land !
The pride and flow'r of Egypt dies
By his vindictive hand.
- 2 He pass'd the tents of Jacob o'er,
Nor pour'd the wrath divine ;
He saw the blood on ev'ry door,
And bless'd the peaceful sign.
- 3 Thus the appointed Lamb must bleed,
To break th' Egyptian yoke :
Thus Isra'l is from bondage freed,
And 'scapes the angel's stroke.
- 4 Lord, if my heart were sprinkled too
With blood so rich as thine,
Justice no longer would pursue
This guilty soul of mine.
- 5 Jesus our Passover was slain,
And has at once procur'd
Freedom from Satan's heavy chain,
And God's avenging sword.

CLVI. Presumption and despair : Or, Satan's various temptations.

1 I Hate the tempter, and his charms,
I hate his flatt'ring breath ;
The serpent takes a thousand forms
To cheat our souls to death.

2 He feeds our hopes with airy dreams,
Or kills with slavish fear :
And holds us still in wide extremes,
Presumption and despair.

3 Now he persuades, How easy 'tis
To walk the road to heaven ;
Anon, he swells our sins, and cries,
They cannot be forgiven.

[4 He bids young sinners, Yet forbear
To think of God, or death ;
For prayer and devotion are
But melancholy breath.

5 He tells the aged, they must die,
And 'tis too late to pray ;
In vain for mercy now they cry,
For they have lost their day.]

6 Thus he supports his cruel throne
By mischief and deceit,
And drags the sons of Adam down
To darkness and the pit.

7 Almighty God ! cut short his pow'r,
Let him in darkness dwell ;
And that he vex the earth no more,
Confine him down to hell.

CLVII. The same.

- 1 NOW Satan comes with dreadful roar,
And threatens to destroy ;
He worries whom he can't devour
With a malicious joy.
- 2 Ye sons of God, oppose his rage,
Resist, and he'll be gone ;
Thus did our dearest Lord engage,
And vanquish him alone.
- 3 Now he appears almost divine,
Like innocence and love ;
But the old Serpent lurks within,
When he assumes the dove.
- 4 Fly from the false deceiver's tongue,
Ye sons of Adam, fly ;
Our parents found the snare too strong,
Nor should the children try.

CLVIII. Few saved : Or, The almost Christian, the hypocrite, and apostate.

- 1 BROAD is the road that leads to death,
And thousands walk together there ;
But wisdom shews a narrower path,
With here and there a traveller.
- 2 Deny thyself, and take thy cross,
Is the Redeemer's great command ;
Nature must count her gold but dross,
If she would gain this heav'nly land.
- 3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteem'd almost a saint,
And makes his own destruction sure.

- 4 Lord, let not all my hopes be vain,
Create my heart entirely new ;
Which hypocrites could ne'er attain,
Which false apostates never knew.

CLIX. An unconverted state : Or, Converting grace.

- [1 GREAT King of glory, and of grace !
We own with humble shame,
How vile is our degenerate race,
And our first father's name.
- 2 From Adam flows our tainted blood,
The poison reigns within,
Makes us averse to all that's good,
And willing slaves to sin,
- [3 Daily we break thy holy laws,
And then reject thy grace ;
Engag'd in the old Serpent's cause,
Against our Maker's face.]
- 4 We live estrang'd afar from God,
And love the distance well ;
With haste we run the dang'rous road
'That leads to death and hell.
- 5 And can such rebels be restor'd !
Such natures made divine !
Let sinners see thy glory, Lord,
And feel this pow'r of thine.
- 6 We raise our Father's name on high,
Who his own Spirit sends
To bring rebellious strangers nigh,
And turn his foes to friends.

CLX. Custom in sin.

1 LET the wild leopards of the wood
Put off the spots that nature gives,
Then may the wicked turn to God,
And change their tempers, and their lives.

2 As well might Ethiopian slaves
Wash out the darkness of their skin;
The dead as well may leave their graves,
As old transgressors cease to sin.

3 Where vice has held its empire long,
'Twill not endure the least controul;
None but a pow'r divinely strong
Can turn the current of the soul.

4 Great God! I own thy pow'r divine,
That works to change this heart of mine;
I would be form'd anew, and bless
The wonders of creating grace.

CLXI. Christian virtues : or, The difficulty of conversion.

1 STRAIT is the way, the door is strait
That leads to joys on high;
'Tis but a few that find the gate,
While crowds mistake, and die.

2 Beloved self must be deny'd,
The mind and will renew'd,
Passion suppress'd, and patience try'd,
And vain desires subdu'd.

3 Flesh is a dangerous foe to grace,
Where it prevails and rules;
Flesh must be humbled, pride debas'd,
Lest they destroy our souls.

- 4 The love of gold be banish'd hence,
(That vile idolatry),
And ev'ry member, ev'ry sense,
In sweet subjection ly.
- 5 The tongue, that most unruly pow'r,
Requires a strong restraint ;
We must be watchful ev'ry hour,
And pray, but never faint.]
- 6 Lord ! can a feeble helpless worm
Fulfil a task so hard ;
Thy grace must all my work perform,
And give the free reward.

CLXII. The meditation of heaven : or, The joy of faith.

- 1 MY thoughts surmount these lower skies,
And look within the veil ;
There springs of endless pleasure rise,
The waters never fail.
- 2 There I behold, with sweet delight,
The blessed Three in One :
And strong affections fix my sight
On God's incarnate Son.
- 3 His promise stands for ever firm,
His grace shall ne'er depart :
He binds my name upon his arm,
And seals it on his heart.
- 4 Light are the pains that nature brings ;
How short our sorrows are,
When with eternal, future things,
The present we compare !
- 5 I would not be a stranger still
To that celestial place,

Where I for ever hope to dwell
Near my Redeemer's face.

CLXIII. Complaint of desertion and temptations.

1 DEAR Lord! behold our sore distress;
Our sins attempt to reign;
Stretch out thine arm of conqu'ring grace,
And let thy foes be slain.

[2 The lion with his dreadful roar
Affrights thy feeble sheep;
Reveal the glory of thy pow'r,
And chain him to the deep.]

3 Must we indulge a long despair?
Shall our petitions die?
Our mournings never reach thine ear,
Nor tears affect thine eye?

4 If thou despise a mortal groan,
Yet hear a Saviour's blood;
An advocate so near the throne,
Pleads and prevails with God.

5 He brought the Spirit's pow'ful sword
To slay our deadly foes:
Our sins shall die beneath thy word,
And hell in vain oppose.

6 How boundless is our Father's grace,
In height, in depth, and length!
He makes his Son our righteousness,
His Spirit is our strength.

CLXIV. The end of the world.

1 WHY should this earth delight us so?
Why should we fix our eyes

On these low grounds where sorrows grow,
And every pleasure dies ?

2 While time his sharpest teeth prepares
Our comforts to devour,
There is a land above the stars,
And joys above his pow'r.

3 Nature shall be dissolv'd, and die,
The sun must end his race,
The earth and sea for ever fly
Before my Saviour's face.

4 When will that glorious morning rise,
When the last trumpet sound,
And call the nations to the skies,
From underneath the ground ?

CLXV. Unfruitfulness, ignorance, and unsanctified affections.

1 LONG have I sat beneath the sound
Of thy salvation, Lord,
But still how weak my faith is found,
And knowledge of thy word !

2 Oft I frequent thy holy place,
And hear almost in vain :
How small a portion of thy grace
My mem'ry can retain !

[3 My dear Almighty, and my God,
How little art thou known
By all the judgments of thy rod,
And blessings of thy throne.]

[4 How cold and feeble is my love !
How negligent my fear !
How low my hope of joys above !
How few affections there !]

5 Great God ! thy sov'reign pow'r impart,
 To give thy word success :
 Write thy salvation in my heart,
 And make me learn thy grace.

[6 Shew my forgetful feet the way
 That leads to joys on high ;
 There knowledge grows without decay,
 And love shall never die.]

CLXVI. The divine perfections.

1 HOW shall I praise th' eternal God,
 That infinite unknown ?
 Who can ascend his high abode,
 Or venture near his throne !

[2 The great Invisible ! he dwells
 Conceal'd in dazzling light ;
 But his all-searching eye reveals
 The secrets of the night.

3 'Those watchful eyes, that never sleep,
 Survey the world around ;
 His wisdom is a boundless deep,
 Where all our thoughts are drown'd.]

[4 Speak we of strength ? his arm is strong,
 To save or to destroy ;
 Infinite years his life prolong,
 And endless is his joy.]

[5 He knows no shadow of a change,
 Nor alters his decrees ;
 Firm as a rock his truth remains,
 To guard his promises.]

[6 Sinners before his presence die :
 How holy is his name !

His anger and his jealousy
Burn like devouring flame.]

7 Justice upon a dreadful throne
Maintains the rights of God,
While mercy sends her pardons down,
Bought with a Saviour's blood.

8 Now to my foul, immortal King,
Speak some forgiving word ;
Then 'twill be double joy to sing
The glories of my Lord.

CLXVII. The same.

1 GREAT God ! thy glories shall employ
My holy fear, my humble joy !
My lips, in songs of honour, bring
Their tribute to th' eternal King.

[2 Earth and the stars, and worlds unknown,
Depend precarious on his throne ;
All nature hangs upon his word,
And grace and glory own their Lord.]

[3 His sov'reign pow'r what mortal knows ?
If he command, who dare oppose ?
With strength he girds himself around,
And treads the rebels to the ground.]

[4 Who shall pretend to teach him skill,
Or guide the counsels of his will ?
His wisdom, like a sea divine,
Flows deep and high beyond our line.]

[5 His name is holy, and his eye
Burns with immortal jealousy :
He hates the sons of pride, and sheds
His fiery vengeance on their heads.]

- [6 The beamings of his piercing sight
Bring dark hypocrisy to light ;
Death and destruction naked ly,
And hell uncover'd to his eye.]
- [7 Th' eternal law before him stands ;
His justice, with impartial hands,
Divides to all their due reward,
Or by the sceptre, or the sword.]
- [8 His mercy, like a boundless sea,
Washes our load of guilt away ;
While his own Son came down and dy'd,
T' engage his justice on our side.]
- [9 Each of his words demands my faith ;
My soul can rest on all he saith ;
His truth inviolably keeps
The largest promise of his lips.]
- 10 Oh, tell me, with a gentle voice,
Thou art my God, and I'll rejoice !
Fill'd with thy love, I dare proclaim
The brightest honours of thy name.

CLXVIII. The same.

- 1 JEHOVAH reigns, his throne is high,
His robes are light and majesty ;
His glory shines with beams so bright,
No mortal can sustain the sight.
- 2 His terrors keep the world in awe,
His justice guards his holy law,
His love reveals a smiling face,
His truth and promise seal the grace.
- 3 Through all his works his wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs ;
His pow'r is sov'reign to fulfil
The noblest counsels of his will.

- 4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my Father and my Friend?
Then let my songs with angels join;
Heav'n is secure, if God be mine.

CLXIX. The same as the cxlviii. Psalm.

- 1 THE Lord Jehovah reigns,
His throne is built on high;
The garments he assumes
Are light and majesty;
His glories shine
With beams so bright,
No mortal eye
Can bear the sight.

- 2 The thunders of his hand
Keep the wide world in awe;
His wrath and justice stand
To guard his holy law;
And where his love
Resolves to bless,
His truth confirms,
And seals the grace.

- 3 Thro' all his ancient works
Surprising wisdom shines,
Confounds the pow'rs of hell,
And breaks their curs'd designs;
Strong is his arm,
And shall fulfil
His great decrees,
His sov'reign will.

- 4 And can this mighty King
Of glory condescend?
And will he write his name,
My Father and my Friend!

I love his name,
I love his word;
Join all my pow'rs,
And praise the Lord.

CLXX. God incomprehensible and sovereign.

- [1* CAN creatures, to perfection, find
Th' eternal, uncreated mind?
Or can the largest stretch of thought
Measure and search his nature out?
- 2 'Tis high as heaven, 'tis deep as hell;
And what can mortals know, or tell?
His glory spreads beyond the sky,
And all the shining worlds on high.
- 3 But man, vain man, would fain be wise,
Born like a wild young colt, he flies
Thro' all the follies of his mind,
And swells and snuffs the empty wind.]
- 4 God is a king of power unknown,
Firm are the orders of his throne;
If he resolve, who dare oppose,
Or ask him why, or what he does?
- 5 He wounds the heart, and he makes whole;
He calms the tempest of the soul:
When he shuts up in long despair,
Who can remove the heavy bar?
- 6 * He frowns, and darkness veils the moon,
The fainting sun grows dim at noon;
† The pillars of heav'n's starry roof
Tremble and start at his reproof.

* Job xi. 7, &c.

* Job xxv. 5. † Job xxvi. 11, &c.

- 7 He gave the vaulted heav'n its form,
The crooked serpent and the worm ;
He breaks the billows with his breath,
And smites the sons of pride to death.
- 8 These are a portion of his ways ;
But who shall dare describe his face !
Who can endure his light ? or stand
To hear the thunders of his hand !

AND

SPIRITUAL SONGS,

PREPARED FOR THE HOLY ORDINANCE OF THE LORD'S SUPPER.

BOOK III.

I. The Lord's Supper instituted, 1 Cor. xi. 23, &c.

1 'TWAS on that dark, that doleful night,
When pow'rs of earth and hell arose
Against the Son of God's delight,
And friends betray'd him to his foes.

2 Before the mournful scene began,
He took the bread, and bless'd, and brake:
What love through all his actions ran!
What wond'rous words of grace he spake:

3 *This is my body, broke for sin,
Receive, and eat the living food:*
Then took the cup, and bless'd the wine,
'Tis the new cov'nant in my blood.

[4 For us his flesh with nails was torn,
He bore the scourge, he felt the thorn;
And justice pour'd upon his head
Its heavy vengeance, in our stead.

5 For us his vital blood was spilt,
To buy the pardon of our guilt ;
When for black crimes of biggest size,
He gave his soul a sacrifice.]

6 *Do, this (he cry'd) 'Till time shall end,
In mem'ry of your dying friend ;
Meet at my table, and record
The love of your departed Lord.*

[7 *Jesus, thy feast we celebrate,
We shew thy death, we sing thy name,
'Till thou return, and we shall eat
The marriage-supper of the Lamb.]*

II. *Communion with Christ, and with saints, 1 Cor, x.
16, 17.*

[1 *JESUS invites his saints
To meet around his board ;
Here pardon'd rebels sit, and hold
Communion with their Lord.*

2 For food he gives us flesh ;
He bids us drink his blood :
Amazing favour ! matchless grace
Of our descending God !]

3 This holy bread and wine
Maintains our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death .

4 Our heav'nly Father calls
Christ and his members one ;
We the young children of his love,
And he the first-born Son.

5 We are but sev'ral parts
Of the same broken bread ;

One body hath its sev'ral limbs,
But Jesus is the head.

6 Let all our pow'rs be join'd,
His glorious name to raise;
Pleasure and love fill ev'ry mind,
And ev'ry voice be praise.

III. The New Testament in the blood of Christ: Or, The New Covenant sealed.

- 1 THE promise of my Father's love
Shall stand for ever good:
He said, and gave his soul to death,
And seal'd the grace with blood.
- 2 To this dear cov'nant of thy word
I set my worthless name;
I seal th' engagement to my Lord,
And make my humble claim.
- 3 Thy light, and strength, and pard'ning grace,
And glory shall be mine;
My life and soul, my heart and flesh,
And all my powers are thine.
- 4 I call that legacy my own
Which Jesus did bequeath;
'Twas purchas'd with a dying groan,
And ratify'd in death.
- 5 Sweet is the mem'ry of his name
Who bless'd us in his will,
And to his testament of love
Made his own life the seal

Z

IV. Christ's dying love : Or, Our pardon bought at a dear price.

1 HOW condescending, and how kind,
Was God's eternal Son !
Our mis'ry reach'd his heav'nly mind,
And pity brought him down.

[2 When justice, by our sins provok'd,
Drew forth its dreadful sword,
He gave his soul up to the stroke,
Without a murm'ring word.]

[3 He sunk beneath our heavy woes,
To raise us to his throne ;
There's ne'er a gift his hand bestows,
But cost his heart a groan.]

4 This was compassion like a God,
That when the Saviour knew
The price of pardon was his blood,
His pity ne'er withdrew.

5 Now though he reigns exalted high,
His love is still as great :
Well he remembers Calvary,
Nor lets his saints forget.

[6 Here we behold his bowels roll
As kind as when he dy'd,
And see the sorrows of his soul
Bleed through his wounded side.]

[7 Here we receive repeated seals
Of Jesus' dying love :
Hard is the wretch that never feels
One soft affection move.]

8 Here let our hearts begin to melt,
While we his death record ;

And, with our joy for pardon'd guilt,
Mourn that we pierc'd the Lord.

V. Christ the bread of life, John vi. 31, 35, 39.

- 1 LET us adore th' eternal word,
'Tis he our souls that fed :
Thou art the living stream, O Lord,
And thou th' immortal bread.
- [2 The manna came from lower skies,
But Jesus from above,
Where the fresh springs of pleasure rise,
And rivers flow with love.
- 3 The Jesús, the Fathers, dy'd at last,
Who eat the heav'nly bread ;
But these provisions which we taste
Can raise us from the dead.]
- 4 Bless'd be the Lord, that gives his flesh
To nourish dying men ;
And often spreads his table fresh,
Lest we should faint again.
- 5 Our souls shall draw their heav'nly breath,
Whilst Jesus finds supplies ;
Nor shall our graces sink to death,
For Jesus never dies.
- [6 Daily our mortal flesh decays,
But Christ our life shall come ;
His unresisted pow'r shall raise
Our bodies from the tomb.]

VI. The memorial of our absent Lord, John xvi. 16.
Luke xxii. 19. John xiv. 3.

- 1 JESUS is gone above the skies,
Where our weak senses reach him not ;

- And carnal objects court our eyes,
To thrust our Saviour from our thought.
- 2 He knows what wand'ring hearts we have,
Apt to forget his lovely face :
And, to refresh our minds, he gave
These kind memorials of his grace.
- 3 The Lord of life this table spread
With his own flesh and dying blood,
We on the rich provision feed,
And taste the wine, and bless the God.
- 4 Let sinful sweets be all forgot,
And earth grow less in our esteem ;
Christ and his love fill ev'ry thought,
And faith and hope be fix'd on him.
- 5 While he is absent from our sight,
'Tis to prepare our souls a place,
That we may dwell in heav'nly light,
And live for ever near his face.
- [6 Our eyes look upward to the hills
Whence our returning Lord shall come :
We wait thy chariot's awful wheels,
To fetch our longing spirits home.]

VII. *Crucifixion to the world, by the cross of Christ, Gal.
vi. 14.*

- 1 WHEN I survey the wond'rous cross
On which the Prince of glory dy'd,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord, that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ my God :
All the vain things that charm me most,
I sacrifice them to his blood.

- 3 See from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down !
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet !
Or thorns compose so rich a crown ?
- [4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
Spreads o'er his body on the tree ;
Then am I dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.]
- 5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small :
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

VIII. The tree of life.

- [1 COME, let us join a joyful tune
To our exalted Lord,
Ye saints on high around his throne,
And we around his board.
- 2 When once upon this lower ground
Weary and faint ye stood,
What dear refreshments here ye found
From this immortal food !]
- 3 The tree of life, that near the throne
In heav'n's high garden grows,
Laden with grace, bends gently down
Its ever-smiling boughs.
- [4 Hov'ring amongst the leaves, there stands
The sweet celestial Dove,
And Jesus on the branches hangs
The banner of his love.]
- [5 'Tis a young heav'n of strange delight,
While in his shade we sit ;
His fruit is pleasing to the sight,
And to the taste is sweet.

6 New life it spreads through dying hearts,
 And cheers the drooping mind ;
 Vigour and joy the juice imparts,
 Without a sting behind.]

7 Now let the flaming weapon stand,
 And guard all Eden's trees :
 There's ne'er a plant in all that land
 That bears such fruit as these.

8 Infinite grace our souls adore,
 Whose wond'rous hand has made
 'This living branch of sov'reign pow'r,
 To raise and heal the dead.

IX. The spirit, the water, and the blood, 1 John v. 6.

[1 LET all our tongues be one,
 To praise our God on high,
 Who from his bosom sent his Son,
 To fetch us strangers nigh.

2 Nor let our voices cease
 To sing the Saviour's name ;
Jesus, th' ambassador of peace,
 How cheerfully he came !

3 It cost him cries and tears
 To bring us near to God ;
 Great was our debt, and he appears
 To make the payment good.]

[4 My Saviour's pierced side
 Pour'd out a double flood ;
 By water we are purify'd,
 And pardon'd by the blood.

5 Infinite was our guilt,
 But he, our priest, atones ;
 On the cold ground his life was spilt,
 And offer'd with his groans.]

- 6 Look up, my soul, to him
Whose death was thy desert,
And humbly view the living stream
Flow from his breaking heart.
- 7 There, on the curfed tree,
In dying pangs he lies;
Fulfil his Father's great decree,
And all our wants supplies.
- 8 Thus the Redeemer came,
By water, and by blood;
And when the Spirit speaks the fame,
We feel his witness good.
- 9 While the eternal Three
Bear their record above,
Here I believe he dy'd for me,
And feal'd my Saviour's love.
- [10 Lord, cleanse my foul from fin,
Nor let thy grace depart;
Great Comforter! abide within,
And witness to my heart.]

X. Christ crucified, the wisdom and power of God.

- 1 NATURE with open volume stands,
To spread her Maker's praise abroad;
And ev'ry labour of his hands
Shews something worthy of a God.
- 2 But in the grace that rescu'd man,
His brightest form of glory shines:
Here, on the cross, 'tis fairest drawn
In precious blood, and crimson lines.
- [3 Here his whole name appears complete;
Nor wit can guess, nor reason prove,
Which of the letters best is writ,
The pow'r, the wisdom, or the love.]

- 4 Here I behold his inmost heart,
Where grace and vengeance strangely join,
Piercing his Son with sharpest smart,
To make the purchas'd pleasures mine.
- 5 O! the sweet wonders of that cross,
Where God the Saviour lov'd and dy'd!
Her noblest life my spirit draws
From his dear wounds, and bleeding side.
- 6 I would for ever speak his name
In sounds to mortal ears unknown,
With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's throne.

XI. Pardon brought to our senses.

- 1 LORD, how divine thy comforts are!
How heav'nly is the place,
Where Jesus spreads the sacred feast
Of his redeeming grace!
- 2 There the rich bounties of our God,
And sweetest glories shine;
Where Jesus says, that I am his,
And my Beloved's mine.
- 3 Here, (says the kind redeeming Lord,
And shews his wounded side),
See here the spring of all your joys,
That open'd when I dy'd!
- [4 He smiles, and cheers my mournful heart,
And tells of all his pain:
All this, says he, I here for thee,
And then he smiles again.]
- 5 What shall we pay our heav'nly King
For grace so vast as this!

He brings our pardon to our eyes,
And seals it with a kiss.

[6 Let such amazing loves as these
Be founded all abroad ;
Such favours are beyond degrees,
And worthy of a God.]

[7 To him that wash'd us in his blood
Be everlasting praise,
Salvation, honour, glory, pow'r,
Eternal as his days.]

XII. The gospel-feast, Luke xiv. 16, &c.

[1 HOW rich are thy provisions, Lord !
'Thy table furnish'd from above !
The fruits of life o'erspread the board,
The cup o'erflows with heav'nly love.

2 Thine antient family, the Jews
Were first invited to the feast :
We humbly take what they refuse,
And Gentiles thy salvation taste.

3 We are the poor, the blind, the lame,
And help was far, and death was nigh !
But, at the gospel-call, we came,
And ev'ry want receiv'd supply.

4 From the highway that leads to hell,
From paths of darkness and despair,
Lord, we are come with thee to dwell,
Glad to enjoy thy presence here.]

[5 What shall we pay th' eternal Son,
That left the heav'n of his abode,
And to this wretched earth came down,
To bring us wand'ers back to God !

6 It cost him death to save our lives ;
 To buy our souls, it cost his own ;
 And all the unknown joys he gives
 Were bought with agonies unknown.

7 Our everlasting love is due
 To him that ransom'd sinners lost ;
 And pity'd rebels, when he knew
 The vast expence his love would cost.]

XIII. Divine love making a feast, and calling in the guests : Luke xiv. 17, 22, 23.

1 HOW sweet and awful is the place,
 With Christ within the doors,
 While everlasting love displays
 The choicest of her stores ?

2 Here ev'ry bowel of our God
 With soft compassion rolls,
 Here peace and pardon, bought with blood,
 Is food for dying souls.

[3 While all our hearts, and all our songs,
 Join t' admire the feast,
 Each of us cry, with thankful tongues,
 " Lord, why was I a guest ?

4 " Why was I made to hear thy voice,
 " And enter while there's room ;
 " When thousands make a wretched choice,
 " And rather starve than come ?"]

5 'Twas the same love that spread the feast,
 That sweetly forc'd us in :
 Else we had still refus'd to taste,
 And perish'd in our sin.

[6 Pity the nations, O our God !
 Constrain the earth to come ;

Send thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.

- 7 We long to see thy churches full,
That all the chosen race
May with one voice, and heart, and soul,
Sing thy redeeming grace.]

XIV. The song of Simeon, Luke ii. 28: Or, A sight of Christ makes death easy.

- 1 NOW have our hearts embrac'd our God,
We would forget all earthly charms,
And wish to die, as Simeon wou'd,
With his young Saviour in his arms.
- 2 Our lips should learn that joyful song,
We're but our hearts prepar'd like his;
"Our souls still willing to be gone,
"And, at thy word, depart in peace.
- 3 "Here we have seen thy face, O Lord,
"And view'd salvation with our eyes,
"Tasted and felt the living word,
"The bread descending from the skies.
- 4 "Thou hast prepar'd this dying Lamb,
"Hast set his blood before our face,
"To teach the terrors of thy name,
"And shew the wonders of thy grace.
- 5 "He is our light, our morning-star
"Shall shine on nations yet unknown;
"The glory of thine Israel here,
"And joy of spirits near thy throne."

XV. Our Lord Jesus at his own table.

- [1 THE mem'ry of our dying Lord
Awakes a thankful tongue:

- How rich he spread his royal board,
And blest'd the food, and fung.
- 2 Happy the man that eats this bread,
But doubly-blest'd was he
That gently bow'd his loving head,
And lean'd it, Lord, on thee.
- 3 By faith, the same delights we taste
As that great fav'rite did,
And sit and lean on Jesus' breast,
And take the heav'nly bread.]
- 4 Down from the palace of the skies
Hither the King descends !
" Come, my beloved, eat (he cries)
" And drink salvation, friends.
- 5 " My flesh is food and physic too,
" A balm for all your pains :
" And the red streams of pardon flow
" From these my pierced veins."]
- 6 Hosanna to his bounteous love !
For such a feast below !
And yet he feeds his saints above
With nobler blessings too.
- [7 Come, the dear day, the glorious hour,
That brings our souls to rest !
Then we shall need these types no more,
But dwell at th' heav'nly feast.]

XVI. The agonies of Christ.

- 1 NOW let our pains be all forgot,
Our hearts no more repine ;
Our suff'rings are not worth a thought,
When, Lord, compar'd with thine.

- 2 In lively figures here we see
The bleeding Prince of love ;
Each of us hope, he dy'd for me,
And then our griefs remove.
- [3 Our humble faith here takes her rise,
While sitting round his board ;
And back to Calvary she flies,
To view her groaning Lord.
- 4 His soul, what agonies it felt
When his own God withdrew ;
And the large load of all our guilt
Lay heavy on him too.
- 5 But the Divinity within
Supported him to bear :
Dying, he conquer'd hell and sin,
And made his triumph there.]
- 6 Grace, wisdom, justice, join'd, and wrought
The wonders of that day :
No mortal tongue, nor mortal thought,
Can equal thanks repay.
- 7 Our hymns should sound like those above,
Could we our voices raise ;
Yes, Lord, our hearts shall all be love,
And all our lives be praise.

XVII. Intomparable food ; Or, The flesh and blood of Christ.

[1 WE sing th' amazing deeds
That grace divine performs ;
Th' eternal God comes down and bleeds,
To nourish dying worms.

- 2 This soul-reviving wine,
Dear Saviour, 'tis thy blood ;

We thank that sacred flesh of thine
For this immortal food;]

3 The banquet that we eat
Is made of heav'nly things;
Earth has no dainties half so sweet
As our Redeemer brings.

4 In vain had Adam fought,
And search'd his garden round;
For there was no such blessed fruit
In all the happy ground.

5 Th' angelic host above
Can never taste this food:
They feast upon their Maker's love,
But not a Saviour's blood.

6 On us th' almighty Lord
Bestows this matchless grace,
And meets us with some cheering word,
With pleasure in his face.

7 Come all ye drooping saints,
And banquet with the King;
This wine will drown your sad complaints,
And tune your voice to sing.

8 Salvation to the name
Of our adored Christ:
Through the wide earth his grace proclaim
His glory in the high'st.

XVIII. The same.

I JESUS! we bow before thy feet;
Thy table is divinely stor'd;
Thy sacred flesh our souls have eat,
'Tis living bread; we thank thee, Lord!

- 2 And here we drink our Saviour's blood;
We thank thee, Lord: 'tis generous wine,
Mingled with love; the fountain flow'd,
From that dear bleeding heart of thine.
- 3 On earth is no such sweetness found,
For the Lamb's flesh is heav'nly food:
In vain we search the world around
For bread so fine, or wine so good.
- 4 Carnal provisions can, at best,
But cheer the heart, or warm the head;
But the rich cordial that we taste
Gives life eternal to the dead.
- 5 Joy to the Master of the feast,
His name our souls for ever bless;
To God the King, and God the Priest,
A loud Hosanna round the place.

XIX. Glory in the cross: Or, Not ashamed of Christ crucified.

- 1 AT thy command, our dearest Lord,
Here we attend thy dying feast;
Thy blood, like wine, adorns thy board,
And thine own flesh feeds ev'ry guest.
- 2 Our faith adores thy bleeding love,
And trusts for life in one that dy'd;
We hope for heav'nly crowns above,
From a Redeemer crucify'd.
- 3 Let the vain world pronounce its shame,
And sling their scandals on the cause;
We come to boast our Saviour's name,
And make our triumphs in his cross.

- 4 With joy we leave the scoffing age,
He that was dead has left his tomb,
He lives above their utmost rage,
And we are waiting till he come.

XX. *The provisions for the table of our Lord: or,
The tree of life, and river of love.*

- 1 LORD, we adore thy bounteous hand,
And sing the solemn feast,
Where sweet celestial dainties stand
For ev'ry willing guest.

- [2 The tree of life adorns the board
With rich immortal fruit,
And ne'er an angry flaming sword
To guard the passage to't.

- 3 The cup stands crown'd with living juice;
The fountain flows above,
And runs down streaming for our use,
In rivulets of love.]

- 4 The food's prepar'd by heav'nly art,
'The pleasure's well refin'd;
They spread new life through ev'ry heart,
And cheer the drooping mind.

- 5 Shout and proclaim the Saviour's love,
Ye faints that taste his wine;
Join with your kindred faints above,
In loud Hosannas join.

- 6 A thousand glories to the God
That gives such joy as this;
Hosanna! let it sound abroad,
And reach where Jesus is.

XXI. The triumphant feast for Christ's victory over sin and death, and hell.

[1 COME, let us lift our voices high,
High as our joys arise,
And join the songs above the sky,
Where pleasure never dies.

2 Jesus, the God, that fought and bled,
And conquer'd when he fell;
That rose, and at his chariot wheels
Dragg'd all the pow'rs of hell.]

[3 Jesus, the God, invites us here
To this triumphal feast,
And brings immortal blessings down
For each redeemed guest.]

4 The Lord! how glorious is his face!
How kind his smiles appear!
And oh! what melting words he says
To ev'ry humble ear!

5 "For you, the children of my love,
"It was for you I dy'd;
"Behold my hands, behold my feet,
"And look into my side.

6 "These are the wounds for you I bore,
"The tokens of my pains,
"When I came down to free your souls
"From misery and chains.

[7 "Justice unsheath'd its fiery sword,
"And plung'd it in my heart;
"Infinite pangs for you I bore,
"And most tormenting smart.

8 "When hell and all its spiteful pow'rs
"Stood dreadful in my way,

- “ To rescue those dear lives of yours,
 “ I gave my own away.
- 9 “ But while I bled, and groan’d, and dy’d,
 “ I ruin’d Satan’s throne ;
 “ High on my cross I hung, and spy’d
 “ The monster tumbling down.
- 10 “ Now you must triumph at my feast,
 “ And taste my flesh and blood,
 “ And live eternal ages blest’d,
 “ For ’tis immortal food.”
- 11 Victorious God ! what can we pay
 For favours so divine ?
 We would devote our hearts away
 To be for ever thine.]
- 12 We give thee, Lord, our highest praise,
 The tribute of our tongues ;
 But themes so infinite as these
 Exceed our noblest songs.

XXII. The compassion of a dying Christ.

- 1 OUR spirits join t’adore the Lamb :
 Oh, that our feeble lips could move
 In strains immortal as his name,
 And melting as his dying love !
- 2 Was ever equal pity found ?
 The Prince of heav’n resigns his breath,
 And pours his life out on the ground,
 To ransom guilty worms from death.
- 3 [Rebels, we broke our Maker’s laws ;
 He from the threat’nings sets us free,
 Bore the full vengeance on his cross,
 And nail’d the curses to the tree.]

- [4 The law proclaims no terror now,
And Sinai's thunder roars no more;
From all his wounds new blessings flow,
A sea of joy without a shore.
- 5 Here we have wash'd our deepest stains,
And heal'd our wounds with heav'nly blood:
Bless'd fountain! springing from the veins
Of Jesus, our incarnate God.]
- 6 In vain our mortal voices strive
To speak compassion so divine:
Had we a thousand lives to give,
A thousand lives should all be thine.

XXIII. Grace and glory by the death of Christ.

- [1 SITTING around our Father's board,
We raise our tuneful breath;
Our faith beholds her dying Lord,
And dooms our sins to death.]
- 2 We see the blood of Jesus shed,
Whence all our pardons rise;
The sinner views th' atonement made,
And loves the sacrifice.
- 3 Thy cruel thorns, thy shameful cross,
Procure us heav'nly crowns:
Our highest gain springs from thy loss:
Our healing from my wounds.
- 4 Oh! tis impossible that we
Who dwell in feeble clay,
Should equal sufferings bear for thee,
Or equal thanks repay.

XXIV. Pardon and strength from Christ.

- 1 FATHER, we wait to feel thy grace,
 To see thy glories shine;
 The Lord will his own table bless,
 And make the feast divine.
- 2 We touch, we taste the heav'nly bread,
 We drink the sacred cup:
 With outward forms our sense is fed,
 Our souls rejoice in hope.
- 3 We shall appear before the throne
 Of our forgiving God,
 Dress'd in the garments of his Son,
 And sprinkled with his blood.
- 4 We shall be strong to run the race,
 And climb the upper sky;
Christ will provide our souls with grace,
 He bought a large supply.
- [5 Let us indulge a cheerful frame,
 For joy becomes a feast;
 We love the mem'ry of his name
 More than the wine we taste.]

XXV. Divine glories and graces.

- 1 HOW are thy glories here display'd.
 Great God how bright they shine,
 While at thy word we break the bread,
 And pour the flowing wine!
- Here thy revenging justice stands,
 And pleads its dreadful cause;
 Here saving mercy spreads her hands,
 Like Jesus on the cross.

- 3 Thy saints attend with ev'ry grace
On this great sacrifice ;
And love appears with cheerful face,
And faith with fixed eyes.
- 4 Our hope in waiting posture sits,
To heav'n directs her sight ;
Here ev'ry warmer passion meets,
And warmer pow'rs unite.
- 5 Zeal and revenge perform their part,
And rising sin destroy ;
Repentance comes with aching heart,
Yet not forbids the joy.
- 6 Dear Saviour, change our faith to sight,
Let sin for ever die ;
Then shall our souls be all delight,
And ev'ry tear be dry.

I Cannot persuade myself to put a full period to these divine hymns, 'till I have addressed a special song of glory to God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Though the Latin name of it, Gloria Patri, be retained in our nation from the Roman church, and though there may be some excels of superstitious honour paid to the words of it; which may have wrought some unhappy prejudices in weaker Christians, yet I believe it still to be one of the noble parts of Christian worship. The subject of it is the doctrine of the Trinity, which is that peculiar glory of the divine nature, that our Lord Jesus Christ has so clearly revealed unto men, and is so necessary to true Christianity. The action is praise, which is one of the most complete and exalted parts of Christian worship. I have cast the song into a variety of forms, and have fitted it by a plain version, or a larger paraphrase, to be sung either alone, or at the conclusion of another hymn. I have added also a few Hosannas, or ascriptions of salvation to Christ, in the same manner, and for the same end.

A song of praise to the ever-blessed Trinity, God the Father, Son, and Spirit.

XXVI. 1st Long Metre.

- 1 BLESS'D be the Father, and his love,
To whose celestial source we owe
Rivers of endless joy above,
And rills of comfort here below.
- 2 Glory to thee, great Son of God,
From whose dear wounded body rolls
A precious stream of vital blood,
Pardon and life for dying souls.
- 3 We give thee, sacred Spirit, praise,
Who in our hearts of sin and woe
Makes living springs of grace arise,
And into boundless glory flow.
- 4 Thus God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit we adore,
The sea of life and love unknown,
Without a bottom or a shore.

XXVII. 1st Common metre.

- 1 GLORY to God the Father's name,
Who, from our sinful race,
Chose out his fav'rites to proclaim
The honours of his grace.

- 2 Glory to God the Son be paid,
Who dwelt in humble clay,
And, to redeem us from the dead,
Gave his own life away.
- 3 Glory to God the Spirit give,
From whose almighty pow'r
Our souls their heav'nly birth derive,
And bless the happy hour.
- 4 Glory to God that reigns above,
Th' eternal Three and One,
Who, by the wonders of his love,
Has made his nature known.

XXVIII. 1st Short metre.

- 1 LET God the Father live
For ever on our tongues;
Sinners from his first love derive
The ground of all their songs.
- 2 Ye faints, employ your breath
In honour to the Son,
Who brought your souls from hell and death,
By off'ring up his own.
- 3 Give to the Spirit praise
Of an immortal strain,
Whose light and power, and grace convey
Salvation down to men.
- 4 While God the Comforter
Reveals our pardon'd sin,
O may the blood and water bear
The same record within.
- 5 To the great One and Three,
'That seal this grace in heav'n,

The Father, Son, and Spirit, be
Eternal glory giv'n.

XXIX. 2d Long Metre.

1 GLORY to God the Trinity,
Whose name has mysteries unknown;
In essence one, in person three,
A social nature, yet alone.

2 When all our noblest pow'rs are join'd,
The honours of thy name to raise,
Thy glories over-match our mind,
And angels faint beneath the praise.

XXX. 2d Common metre.

1 THE God of mercy be ador'd,
Who calls our souls from death,
Who saves by his redeeming word,
And new creating breath.

2 To praise the Father and the Son,
And Spirit, all divine,
The One in Three, and Three in One,
Let saints and angels join.

XXXI. 2d Short metre.

1 LET God the Maker's name
Have honour, love, and fear,
To God the Saviour pay the same,
And God the Comforter.

2 Father of lights above,
Thy mercy we adore,
The Son of thy eternal love,
And Spirit of thy pow'r.

XXXII. 3d Long metre.

TO God the Father, God the Son,
 And God the Spirit, Three in One,
 Be honour, praise, and glory giv'n,
 By all on earth, and all in heav'n,

XXXIII. Or thus:

ALL glory to thy wond'rous name,
 Father of mercy, God of love;
 Thus we exalt the Lord the Lamb,
 And thus we praise the heav'nly Dove.

XXXIV. 3d Common metre.

NOW let the Father, and the Son
 And Spirit be ador'd,
 Where there are works to make him known,
 Or saints to love the Lord.

XXXV. Or thus:

HONOUR to thee, almighty Three,
 And everlasting One;
 All glory to the Father be,
 The Spirit, and the Son.

XXXVI. 3d Short metre.

YE angels round the throne,
 And saints that dwell below,
 Worship the Father, love the Son,
 And bless the Spirit too.

XXXVII. Or thus :

GIVE to the Father praise,
Give glory to the Son,
And to the Spirit of his grace
Be equal honour done.

XXXVIII. A song of praise to the blessed Trinity.

The 1st as the cxlviith Psalm.

1 I GIVE immortal praise
To God the Father's love,
For all my comforts here,
And better hopes above :
He sent his own
Eternal Son,
To die for sins
That man had done.

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too,
Who bought us with his blood
From everlasting woe :
And now he lives,
And now he reigns,
And sees the fruit
Of all his pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live :
His work completes
The great design,
And fills the soul
With joy divine.

- 4 Almighty God ! to thee
Be endless honours done,
The undivided Three,
And the mysterious One :
Where reasons fails,
With all her pow'rs,
Their faith prevails,
And love adores.

XXXIX. The 2d as the cxlviiiith Psalm.

- 1 TO Him that chose us first,
Before the world began ;
To Him that bore the curse,
To save rebellious man ;

To Him that form'd
Our hearts anew,
Is endless praise
And glory due.

- 2 The Father's love shall run
Thro' our immortal songs ;
We bring to God the Son
Hosannas on our tongues :

Our lips address
The Spirit's name
With equal praise,
And zeal the same.

- 3 Let ev'ry saint above,
And angel round the throne,
For ever bless and love
The sacred Three in One.

Thus heav'n shall raise
His honours high,
When earth and time
Grow old and die.

XL. The 3d as the cxlviiith Psalm.

TO God the Father's throne
 Perpetual honours raise;
 Glory to God the Son,
 To God the Spirit praise:
 And while our lips
 Their tribute bring,
 Our faith adores
 The name we sing.

XLI. Or thus:

TO our eternal God,
 The Father and the Son,
 And Spirit all divine,
 Three mysteries in One,
 Salvation, pow'r,
 And praise be given
 By all on earth,
 And all in heav'n.

The HOSANNA; or, Salvation ascribed to Christ.

XLII. Long metre.

1 HOSANNA to King David's Son,
 Who reigns on a superior throne;
 We bless the Prince of heav'nly birth,
 Who brings salvation down to earth.

2 Let ev'ry nation, ev'ry age,
 In this delightful work engage:
 Old men and babes in Sion sing
 The growing glories of her King.

XLIII. Common metre.

- 1 HOSANNA to the Prince of grace,
 Sion, behold thy King;
Proclaim the Son of David's race,
 And teach the babes to sing.
- 2 Hofanna to th' incarnate Word,
 Who from the Father came;
Ascribe salvation to the Lord,
 With blessings on his name.

XLIV. Short metre.

- 1 HOSANNA to the Son
 Of David, and of God,
Who brought the news of pardon down,
 And bought it with his blood.
- 2 To Christ th' anointed King
 Be endless blessings giv'n;
Let the whole earth his glory sing,
 Who made our peace with heav'n.

XLV. As the cxlviiith Psalm.

- 1 HOSANNA to the King
 Of David's ancient blood;
Behold he comes, to bring
Forgiving grace from God:
 Let old and young
 Attend his way,
 And at his feet
 Their honours lay.

- 2 Glory to God on high,
Salvation to the Lamb;

Let earth, and sea, and sky
His wondrous love proclaim;
Upon his head
Shall honours rest,
And ev'ry age
Pronounce him blest.

Pioneer of Our H

By The RIGHT HON. SIR

WHEN Isaac Watts died on November 25, 1748, he was a great national figure. His 74 years of life had spanned the last quarter of the 17th century and the first half of the 18th; and those years had been full of great and stormy events. He had gained for himself an esteem that bordered on veneration, not only for his bearing throughout those troubled years, but for the contributions he had made to almost every phase of the national thought. But, 200 years after the event, I hope it is no disservice to his name and fame to say that he himself might have been "lost in following years" had it not been for one superlative achievement. The bi-centenary of his death is being observed throughout the world this month because he was, beyond all other things, a writer of hymns.

Some of those hymns have now become national possessions and are to be found in every hymn-book, and many of the lines have passed into our common speech. "Our God, our Help in Ages Past," as Watts wrote it and before John Wesley altered it, is perhaps the greatest hymn in the language. It is as familiar as the National Anthem. Time, moreover, has endowed it with that rare and moving quality which comes only from a very special kind of association. Our fathers, and our fathers' fathers, sang this hymn in times of national thanksgiving and national sorrow, and the memory of that association is now indissolubly joined with the familiar words.

An Incalculable Debt

NOTHING like this can be said with truth of much of the other work of Watts, although some of it survived in popular esteem to days not very far distant from our own. The sermons, the disputations, the educational manuals, the philosophical treatises, the works of popular divinity, even the verses which gained him entrance to the "Lives of the Poets" and a Memoir from the pen of Southey—all these things, it must be sorrowfully admitted, have no longer a commanding place in the public regard. For one person who is familiar with "The Improvement of the Mind," which won an easy task to select profitable, and, as I think,

a most unworthy task. For there still remains the superb achievement by which Watts is remembered, and, so long as men are stirred by memorable and lovely things, so long will the name of Watts be held in grateful and affectionate remembrance. Whether it be in St.
Paul's or the Abbey, in the Tabernacle at Cardiff or in the wayside church or chapel, congregational singing has a special and peculiar power to stir the emotions. Here it is that Watts comes magnificently into his own.

In Times of Peril

MANY of the hymns have a very special place in the affections of countless men and women. To some it is the remembrance of a great congregation singing the Forty-Sixth Psalm in the version of Watts at a time when the perils of the nation seemed to be overwhelming:

God is the refuge of His saints
When storms of sharp distress invade:

to others it is "When I survey the wondrous cross," perhaps the most moving of all the hymns, or "There is a land of pure delight," perhaps the most poetical, with its magical use of proper names in the third verse; or any one of the hymns made memorable by some personal experience or some very special association.

The good hymn need not, of course, be poetry, and very rarely is; but it must be written in simple words of plain meaning, it must have a good tune that people can sing, it must be religious, it must inspire and elevate, and it touches greatness when it is scriptural too. In all these essential things the hymns of Isaac
Watts have stood the test of time, and it is wholly good to turn aside from the ordinary occupations of the day for a moment, to reflect with pride and thankfulness on the life and work of a great and noble man.

His memorial is in the Abbey and,
fittingly enough, John and Charles
Wesley are by his side; but his lasting memorial is surely in the hearts of ordinary men and women the world over,
for whom he found the means to express their deepest feelings in moments of personal joy or sorrow, or in those great moments of national feeling when we are all one.
